ajnish Rai seeks protection in HC after MHRD wr

PRESS NEWS SERVICE
MEDABAD, JULY 31

TIRED IPS officer Rajnish Rai, o oversaw the investigation into 2007 Sohrabuddin Sheikh al-ed fake encounter and was r denied voluntary retirement the Centre, sought protection Wednesday in the Gujarat gh Court. The plea for protec-n cited the Union Ministry of uman Resources Development's HRD) second letter to the dian Institute of Management-medabad (IIM-A) asking why hired Rai as assistant professor.

Rai took voluntary retirement RS) from the All India Services November 2018 and has been orking with IIM-A as an assis-nt professor of Public Systems Group since May 6 this year.

At a July 23 hearing, his counsel advocate Rahul Sharma told the court that in the preceding week, the MHRD had written to IIM-A, inquiring why the institute had employed Rai when he was under suspension as per the government's records.

As reported by The Indian Express, the Union Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) had notified MHRD that the Centre had not approved of Rai's VRS application. It also informed the MHRD that the Centre had suspended Rai in December 2018 for leaving the services, and a chargesheet was filed in January 14 against him.

On Wednesday, Sharma told the division bench headed by Justice SR Brahmbhatt, "For the past four months the matter has been adjourned for one reason or another. They've now written twice to IIM-A on his (Rai's) employment with them. Misleading arguments have been made and now they're interfering with my client's current employment. They're playing games behind the scenes. Give us some protection, otherwise they'll harm my client irreparably."

Sharma, a former IPS officer himself from Rai's 1992 batch, had also taken voluntary retirement from the services in 2015 after a continuous wrangle with the state government. He had given damning evidence before the Nanavati-Shah commission probing the 2002 riots in the form of CDs containing call data records of the period during the riots. He quit the services to study law and practises in the High Court.

Notably, the division bench had expressed discernible shock at the government's interference in the matter of Rai's employment at the July 23 hearing. The second MHRD letter was sent to IIM-A after the hearing. MHRD had first written to the IIM-A on July 17.

Despite the two letters inquiring about Rai's employment with IIM-A, advocate Nirzar Desai, representing the central government, dismissed Rai's fears of irreparable harm that may be done to him. Desai said, "We are complying with interim orders of the HC and the CAT (Central Administra-tive Tribunal). We've not even called him (Rai) for an inquiry." Notably, Rai's petition sought the court's directions to the Centre to "not interfere, directly or indirectly, with any application made by the plicant (Rai) for employmen any organisation and to "a him to take up any employm subject to limitations of Rule the All India Services Rules, 19

Considering the content raised, the division bench served its decision to Mon Justice Brahmbhatt reasoned (giving protection/immunit Rai) would amount to passin order without hearing all part However, the court observed it will keep in mind Sharma's s missions with respect to the g ernment's interference in R employment at IIM-A.

All parties could not be he as the state government's cou was unavailable in the courtro and the central government's gal representative sought a
