- v) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in of the forms set out at the foot of Annexure "D" to The Companies (Central Government's) General Rules and Forms, 2013, and shall not be questioned on the ground that it fails to comply with any special requirements specified for such instruments by the Articles.
- vi) Every Bondholder entitled to vote at a meeting of the Bondholders of the Company on any resolution to be moved there at shall be entitled during the period beginning twenty four hours before the time fixed for the commencement of the meeting and ending with the conclusion of the meeting to inspect the proxies lodged, at any time during the business hours of the Company, provided not less than three days' notice in writing of the intention so to inspect is given to the Company.
- vii) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed or the transfer of the Bond in respect of which the proxy is given Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at the Registered Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.
14. On a poll taken at any meeting of the Bondholders a Bondholder entitled to more than one vote or his proxy or other person entitled to vote for him, as the case may be, need not if he votes, use all his votes or cast in the same way all the votes he uses:
- i) When a poll is to be taken, the Chairman of meeting shall appoint two scrutineers to scrutinise the votes given on the poll and to report thereon to him.
 - ii) The Chairman shall have power, at any time before the result of the poll is declared, to remove a scrutineer from office and to fill vacancies in the office of scrutineer arising from such removal or from any other cause.
 - iii) Of the two scrutineers appointed under this Clause, one shall always be a Bondholder (not being an officer or employee of the Company) present at the meeting, provided such a Bondholder is available and willing to be appointed.

15. i) Subject to the provisions of the said Act, the Chairman of the meeting shall have power to regulate the manner in which a poll shall be taken.
- ii) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the decision of the meeting on the resolution on which the poll was taken.
16. In the case of joint Bondholders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the other joint holder or holders.
17. The Chairman of a meeting of the Bondholders may, with the consent of the bondholders, adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
18. In the case of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands, or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled to as a Bondholder.
19. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
20. The Chairman of any meeting shall be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at such meeting. The Chairman present at the taking of a poll shall be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at such poll.
21. A meeting of the Bondholders shall, inter alia, have the following powers exercisable in the manner hereinafter specified in Clause 24 hereof:-
- i) Power to sanction any compromise or arrangement proposed to be made between the Company and the Bondholders.
- ii) Power to assent to any scheme for reconstruction or amalgamation of or by the Company whether by sale or transfer of assets under any power in the Company's Memorandum of Association or otherwise under the Act or provisions of any law.
- iii) Power to assent to any modification of the provisions contained in the Trust Deed and to authorise the Trustee to concur in and execute any Supplemental Deed embodying any such modification.
- iv) Power to remove the existing Trustee and to appoint a new Trustee.
- v) Power to give any direction, sanction, request or approval which under any provision of the Trust Deed is required to be given by a Special Resolution.
22. The powers set out in Clause 23 hereof shall be exercisable by a Special Resolution passed at a meeting of the Bondholders duly convened and held in accordance with provisions herein contained and carried by a majority consisting of not less than three-fourths of the persons voting thereat upon a show of hands or if a poll is demanded by a majority representing not less than three-fourths in value of the votes cast on such poll. Such a Resolution is herein called "Special Resolution".
23. The quorum for any meeting convened for the purpose of passing a Special Resolution shall be Bondholders holding 10% of the nominal amount of the Bonds then outstanding, present in person or by proxy, but so that if within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting, such Bondholders are not present so as to form a quorum, the meeting shall stand adjourned for 7 days, and shall accordingly be held on the corresponding day of the week, and at the same time and place as that originally fixed by the notice convening the meeting or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Trustee may determine; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present, then those Bondholders who are present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution passed thereat by a majority consisting of not less than three-fourth of the persons voting thereat upon a show of hands, or, if a poll is thereat.

24. A Resolution, passed at a general meeting of the Bondholder duly convened and held in accordance with these presents shall, be binding upon all the Bondholders whether present or not, at such meeting and each of the Bondholders shall be bound to give effect thereto accordingly, and the passing of any such resolutions shall be conclusive evidence that the circumstances justify the passing thereof, the intentions being that it shall rest with the meeting to determine without appeal whether or not the circumstances justify the passing of such resolution.
25. Minutes of all Resolutions and proceedings at every such meeting as aforesaid shall be made and duly entered into books from time to time provided for the purpose by the Trustee at the expenses of the Company and any such minutes as aforesaid, if purported to be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which such Resolutions were passed or proceeding held or by the Chairman of the adjourned meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein contained and until the contrary is proved every such meeting in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been made shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened and all resolutions passed thereat or proceedings taken, to have been duly passed and taken.
26. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, it shall be competent to all the Bondholders to exercise the rights, powers and authorities of the Bondholders under the said Trust Deed by a letter or letters signed by or on behalf of the Bondholders without convening a meeting of the Bondholders as if such letter or letters constituted a resolution or a meeting duly convened and held as aforesaid and shall have effect accordingly.
