Company business

Gokak Textiles Limited was incorporated in 2007 following a scheme of demerger of textile arm of Forbes Gokak Limited (FGL). The company has manufacturing units at Gokak Falls (Karnataka), Belgaum (Karnataka) and Ludhiana (Punjab). The company is engaged in producing cotton yarn (grey and dyed) and other value-added yarns such as bamboo/multimodal yarns, mélange yarns, compact yarns and organic yarns and some readymade items such as cotton canvas and terry towels. The company is also into manufacturing of readymade knitted garments including combed polo and T-shirts for export markets and cotton sweaters for domestic and export markets

The accumulated losses made by the company at end of the financial year 2014-15 led to an erosion of more than 50 percent of networth during the immediately preceding four financial years, following which the board has approved approaching to BIFR.

Recent development

Consequent to the accumulated losses made by the company leading to erosion in the net worth, the promoters took shareholders' approval in Feb'16 for subscribing to non-cumulative, non-convertible, redeemable preference shares upto Rs. 200 mn in Feb'16. The resolution was passed by shareholders.

Financial Performance

High raw material and interest costs continued to weigh heavily on the company's performance translating into losses at both the operating and net level. Continuous losses have translated into erosion of the net-worth of the company.
