ITEM NO.6

With the effectiveness of the Integrated and Composites Scheme, the Company has become a merged entity. The Employee base and business of the Company is increased manifold and its operations become more complex. Retaining and attracting talent has become one of the the challenging task.

In view of the above, a new scheme for grant of stock options is framed and proposed by the Board on recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee namely "Mahindra CIE Automotive Limited - Employees Stock Options Scheme 2015" (hereinafter referred to as ESOS).

The details as required under Regulation 6 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014 are as under:

i. Brief description of the scheme(s)

The Scheme is a generic authority from shareholders to Grant certain Number of Stock Options and to issue shares against the exercise of such Options and makes it flexible to operate. At the same time, it specifies conditions concerning eligible employees, total number of Options, retirement, termination, vesting period, exercise period etc.

Nomination & Remuneration Committee (NRC) and the Board have the authority to decide exercise price, names of employees and number of options to be granted to them, vesting period etc. These can be decided when actual grant is approved.

Salient Features:

- Maximum options which can be granted to an eligible employee - 800,000 (~ 0.25% of equity shares as on 30.06.15).
- Vesting Period – Nomination and Remuneration Committee has authority to decide the vesting period
- Exercise period is 4 years from the date of vesting or such other extended period as may be decided
- In case of resignation, unvested options to lapse
- In case of termination due to fraud or misconduct, NRC has a right to cancel even vested options in addition to unvested options.

ii. Total options that can be granted are 3,231,147 which constitutes 1% of the equity shares as on 30.06.15

iii. Identification of classes of employees entitled to participate and be beneficiaries in the ESOS

- a. Permanent employees of the Company or of its holding company or subsidiary company(ies), in India or outside India or of an associate company, unless they are prohibited from participating in the ESOS under any law or regulations for the time being in force;
- b. Directors of the Company, or of its holding company(ies) or subsidiary company(ies), in India or outside India, whether a Whole-time Director or not, unless they are prohibited from participating in the ESOS under any law or regulations for the time being in force; but does not include an employee who is a promoter or a person belonging to the promoter group; or a director who either himself or through his relative or through any body corporate, directly or indirectly, holds more than ten percent of the outstanding equity shares of the company.

iv. Requirements of vesting and period of vesting

The Options granted would vest within such time from the date of Grant and in such number of installments and subject to such terms as the Nomination and Remuneration Committee may decide, in its absolute discretion from time to time, of the Grant of the Options, subject to a minimum vesting period of one year.

v. Maximum period within which the options shall be vested

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is authorized to decide the Vesting period subject to minimum vesting period of one year.

vi. Exercise price or pricing formula

The Exercise Price for the purpose for Grant of Options shall be decided by the Board on recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (the Committee) at the time of Grant of Options to an employee.

vii. Exercise period

4 years from the date of vesting or such other extended period as may be decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

viii. Process of exercise

- a. An Eligible Employee wishing to exercise the vested Options shall submit an application in the specified format to the Company.
- b. In case the Eligible Employee wishes to exercise the Options, the Eligible Employee shall submit the application form to the Company along with a cheque/demand draft for the Exercise Price being the number of Options exercised multiplied by the Exercise Price per Equity Share as indicated in the Letter of Grant.
- c. The Eligible Employee must exercise a minimum of 100 (One Hundred only) Options or Options vested, whichever is lower;
- d. The Eligible Employees who wish to exercise the Options will have the right to include the names of their spouse, children(s) and/or their parent(s) as the second and third holders of the shares to be transferred consequent to the exercise of the Options

ix. The appraisal process for determining the eligibility of employees for the scheme(s)

The criteria for eligibility of the Eligible Employees for the Grant of Options will be decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee based on grade and/or performance and such other parameters as may be decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, in its sole discretion, from time to time. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee may review and revise the criteria for eligibility as aforesaid in keeping with the needs of the business and remuneration policies.

x. Maximum number of options to be issued per employee and in aggregate and maximum quantum of benefits to be provided per employee under a scheme(s)

Maximum number of Options to be granted per Eligible Employees shall not in any case exceed 8,00,000 Options in aggregate.

xi. The ESOS shall be implemented and administered directly by the Board of the Company.

xii. The ESOS involves new issue of shares by the Company only.

xiii. The Company shall confirm to the accounting policies specified in regulation 15 of the Regulations.

The Company shall follow the requirements of the 'Guidance Note on Accounting for employee share-based Payments' (Guidance Note) or Accounting Standards as may be prescribed by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) from time to time, including the disclosure requirements prescribed therein to value its options.

In case the Company opts for expensing of share based employee benefits using the intrinsic value, the difference between the employee compensation cost so computed and the employee compensation cost that shall have been recognised if it had used the fair value, shall be disclosed in the Directors' report and the impact of this difference on profits and on earnings per share ("EPS") of the Company shall also be disclosed in the Directors' report.

xiv. Any interest of key managerial personnel, directors or promoters in such scheme

The interest of the Directors, being Managing Director, Whole-time Director or non-executive non-independent Director and Key Managerial Personnel, is limited to the extent of the number of Options which may be granted to them, and which would be exercised, and shares received.

The Promoters and Independent Directors do not have any interest in such scheme.

A copy of the draft ESOS will be available for inspection on all working days till the date of Annual General Meeting (Monday to Friday) during office hours at the registered office of the Company.

The Directors recommend the Resolution as set out at Item No. 6 as a Special Resolution, for the approval of the Shareholders.

ITEM NO.7

The Company has subsidiaries in India and Abroad which account for approximately 70% of consolidate annual revenue. Ultimate parent CIE Automotive S.A. is well known for its excellence in operational and financial performance. Performance of these subsidiaries as well as support of Holding Company and Associates therefore is crucial for the Company at consolidated level.
