The Muthoot Group launches host of CSR Initiatives

The Muthoot Group, with a family business legacy of over 800 years, has chartered a long journey in enabling people overcome challenges and achieving their dreams.

One of the chief architects of this accomplishment was Late Shri. M.G. George Muthoot, former Group Chairman of The Muthoot Group.

2nd November this year marks his 72nd birth anniversary. It is a day, we at The Muthoot Group are commemorating by dedicating in his fond memory, a set of philanthropic initiatives that are meant to hugely comfort people from various sections of our society.

of sustainable energy generation, helping the differently-abled, medical emergency, healthcare facilities, education (including scholarships), sustainable livelihood through employment, sanitation (pursuing Swachh Bharat Mission) and food distribution, besides others.

Supporting Healthcare Facilities: For providing better health facilities to thousands of poor patients, a Snehasraya Health Checkup Van for free testing of Renal disease in Sangli, Pune; In addition to this the Group has also sponsored an Ambulance for Cancer patients in a shelter home in Mumbai.

Distribution of Muthoot branded bags to Aasha Workers, who played a major role in protecting the health and well-being of ordinary citizens during the Covid pandemic. 370 Aasha workers will benefit from these shoulder bags which will help them transport essential medicines, small medical equipment and other important basic items.

Blood Donation Camp, with the support and coordination of the Red Cross, staff from The Muthoot Group and other young people will be encouraged to Donate Blood and help Save Lives in Hyderabad. Programme Sailing Covid Warriors - health workers who have been in the forefront fighting Covid. Recognizing and respecting their immense contribution to the society. The Muthoot Group shall honour 30 health workers with Cash Rewards and Certification. These warriors consisting of Doctors, Nurses and support staff have been selected by IMA Madhura.

Supporting the Differently-abled: 39 special wheelchairs have been donated to wheelchair Cricket Association for supporting the differently-abled players in New Delhi. Sustainable Livelihood Support: 25 tricycle carts were donated to the underprivileged and needy, along with 10 manual cycle rickshaws for their sustainable livelihood support in New Delhi.

Distribution of 20 four-wheel wooden push carts, weighing scale and initial investment to small scale street vendors in Bangalore. Inauguration of Tailoring Unit, as part of employment creation program. 5 electric sewing machines will be handed over to a Women's Group for production of carry-bags, masks and other household items in Chennai.

Sanitation in Schools - 'Swachh Bharat Mission' A Toilet unit for 200 students constructed in a rural Government Primary School in Greater Noida. Handing over of renovated toilet complex to the city administration, as part of our efforts to support the country's Swachh Bharat Mission in Chennai. Scholarships in Education: Distribution of scholarships at YMCA - BMC Government Schools, to 50 students in Mumbai.

Supporting Sustainable Energy Generation: The welfare activities will enable the National Association of Blind to save 6-7 Lakh per annum, as the solar panels will be fulfilling 100% of their current electricity requirement in New Delhi. Supporting Food for All: Distribution of food for 5200 plus poor & less privileged people in different Old age homes, Ashrams, Temples, Leprosy Home, Orphanages etc. throughout India. Rehabilitation (Housing): Handing-over keys for 3 Muthoot Aashyana houses out of a total 201 houses, built for people who lost their houses during the devastating floods in 2016. Besides these, a host of other social welfare activities are also being rolled out by The Muthoot Group during the year as a befitting tribute to the Man with a Golden Heart - Shri. M. G. George Muthoot. The Muthoot Family and all its 40,000+ dedicated workforce remain committed to taking forward his philanthropic legacy to even greater heights in times to come.
