Cong protests

Congress on Thursday announced next round of protests against price rise, including 'Mehangai Chaupal' in all assembly constituencies from August 17 to 23, and a rally on August 28 at Delhi's Ramliya Maidan. Congress' general secretary communication Jai Ram Ramesh said in a press statement that the nationwide agitation held by the party on August 5 "against the Modi government's anti-people policies", strongly resonated with the people. "Prime Minister Narendra Modi's desperate attempt to tar legitimate protest as 'black magic' only highlights the BJP government's insecurity about its failure to control rampaging inflation and unemployment," the Congress said. Ramesh said the Congress party will take this fight forward with a series of protests against the price rise and unemployment in the coming weeks. The party will organise interactive meetings called 'Mehangai Chaupal' at mandis, retail markets and other locations in all assembly constituencies from August 17 to 23. These will culminate in a 'Mehangai Par Halla Bol' rally on August 28 at the Ramliya Maidan in New Delhi, which will be addressed by senior Congress leaders. Pradesh Congress Committees will simultaneously hold 'Mehangai Par Halla Bol - Chalo Dilli' events at the state-, district- and block-levels. "The people of India are suffering because of the Modi government's economic mismanagement. Inflation is being exacerbated by higher taxes on essential goods like curd, buttermilk, and packaged food grains, while the transfer of public assets to cronies capitalists and the introduction of the misguided Agnipath Scheme are making a bad employment situation worse," Ramesh said. "The Indian National Congress will continue to spread awareness about these anti-people policies among the people and increase pressure on the BJP government to change course," he added. On August 5, Congress leaders held protests across the country at several locations. In Delhi, Congress MPs, dressed in black, protested at Parliament and attempted a march to Rashtrapati Bhawan led by party leader Rahul Gandhi. Congress MPs were detained at Vijay Chowk. Another protest was held at the party headquarters here which was led by Priyanka Gandhi and other senior leaders, who were detained outside the Congress office. In an apparent dig at Congress, Modi said no matter how much "black magic" Congress does, people will not trust the party again.

Another Mamata aide arrested for fraud Mondal allegedly involved in cattle smuggling scam

Kolkata, Aug 12: The CBI on Thursday arrested West Bengal's ruling Trinamool Congress leader Anubrata Mondal, considered a close associate of Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee, in connection with the alleged cattle smuggling scam. He was remanded to CBI custody by a special court till August 20. The Central Bureau of Investigation today (Thursday) arrested an accused during further investigation of a case related to alleged illegal cross-border trade of cattle. "The accused assisted and showed fictitious business activities to regularise the ill-gotten money. The said accused was consistently avoiding CBI's summons for long and not cooperating with the CBI investigation into the case," said a spokesperson of the federal investigative agency. On Wednesday, Mondal had skipped the federal investigative agency's 10th summons for interrogation. Mondal, TMC's national executive committee member and Birbhram district president, had appeared before the CBI sleuths only once in connection with the cattle smuggling case despite being summoned multiple times. Amidst a tight security ring thrown in by the central forces, Mondal was presented before the Special Court in Asansol, where the CBI counsel prayed for 14-day custody. The defence counsel did not seek bail. After hearing both sides, the judge ordered that Mondal be kept in CBI custody till August 20, as workers of left parties and the BJP shouted slogans outside the court premises, calling Mondal a "thief". The CBI sleuths reached Mondal's home in Nichepatty area under Ilambazar block of Birbhram around 10 a.m. on Thursday in a fleet of cars and decided to arrest him after some intense grilling.

TMC says will not support cheats

The CBI had registered the cattle trafficking case on September 21, 2020, against four accused including then Commandant B.S.F. Searches were earlier conducted at various locations across the country at the premises of the accused. Several accused were also arrested during the course of the investigation. "During the investigation, the illegal cross-border selling of cattle, the related movement, delivery and use of ill-gotten money, was found. It was also alleged that the accused persons were organising and poisoning large-scale illegal cattle smuggling to neighbouring country and collecting huge money from other persons. It was also revealed that the accused procured a huge number of cattle from Ilambazar Pashuhat (animal market) and ensured safe passage for transportation of cattle to the international border," the CBI spokesperson said. Among those arrested were Mondal's bodyguard Sregha Hussain, with the sleuths claiming that he was linked to assets worth over Rs. 100 crore.

grilling from the premier probe agency for his purported involvement in the violence in the state after last year's Assembly polls.
