TERROR STRIKE ON BSF CAMP NEAR...

It is understood that one of the terrorists - who were all in BSF fatigues - pretended to be a soldier and fired in the same direction as the security forces until he was spotted and killed.

After the first terrorist was killed in retaliatory firing around 4.15 am, shortly after the group attacked the camp, two other terrorists ran into two buildings - the administrative block and the officers' mess - and fired from there.

According to one official account, the second terrorist had the audacity to come out of the three-story administrative building and took position with the soldiers. He was wearing a camouflage dress of the CRPF and aimed his weapon towards the building where our forces were also aiming, a senior officer told the NDTV. When an officer turned to a soldier to hand over more ammo, they spotted the stranger aiming at the administrative building - a man they hadn't seen before and didn't remember positioning him there.

The officer continued, "They suspected him as they hadn't placed him there. Then he gave them a sign asking them to come forward. The moment he turned his AK 47, they fired on him and neutralized him then and there."

The three terrorists were killed after nearly 8 hours of gun-battle. Pakistan-based terror group Jaish-e-Mohammed's 'Afzal Guru Squad' has claimed responsibility for the attack. Over a dozen Jaish suicide attackers had crossed over to India through the Jammu sector in August, some six to seven of them are still at large. Officials in the know of developments said there was prior intelligence that an operative identified as 'Noora Trali' had brought in a suicide squad into the city.

Civilian air operations, which were suspended for nearly three hours in the morning, resumed at 10 am. Piecing together the chain of events, police said militants entered the BSF's 182 battalion headquarters through a damaged perimeter wall and started firing in all directions.

PIL for NIA probe into stampede

The petition also seeks a direction to the Railways to set up a Disaster Management System in coordination with the concerned police force.

After hearing the petition, Chief Justice said, "I saw the news (pertaining to the incident). But this is a fact that nothing can be done overnight. Will hear this petition on Friday."

The criminal PIL filed by Andheri resident Faisal Banaraswala through his advocate Gunratn Sadavrate was mentioned before another division bench of Justice Bhushan Gavai and Justice Sandeep Shinde.

In his PIL, Banaraswala has sought a thorough enquiry by the NIA in the stampede incident that claimed 23 lives last week. He has also sought directions to the Railways to make apt arrangements for the safety of the commuters by removing the hawkers and all other obstacles that hinder the smooth movement of commuters on platforms as well as bridges. Apart from this, Banaraswala has also sought directions to the Railways to make available Ambulance and other health services at all the railway stations in Mumbai and Thane.

'Mera phool gir gaya' became 'Pool'...

We were unable to move our limbs and lay still in the open space between two sections of the staircase. It was only my will power which helped me survive," she said.

"A victim of the stampede, who was later identified as Tiakram Teli (45), sacrificed his life to help me. He was lying on the top and breathing heavily. My hands were dangling in the air, he evicted me from the heap, pushing me downstairs after he realised that I was injured," recalls Vishwakarma.

"It was her good fortune that she landed on the third last stair at the exit of the bridge. I couldn't realize what was happening. But in no time, two more persons tumbled over and I was sandwiched between them. A local volunteer, who spotted me, pulled my hand and extricated me from the heap," recounts the survivor. She has minor injuries on her hands and legs and is getting treated by her family doctor.

Vishwakarma has a humble family background and aspires to become an engineer. The brave 19-year-old said that one must have the will power to tackle all difficult situations in life.

I am alive - Ghatkopar resident...

Alam was one of the 23 victims who got stuck in the stampede and died of suffocation and internal injuries at KEM Hospital. "I met a lot of media persons who enquired about my uncle and requested me to share his picture. The only picture I had was the one in which both of us are together, and I specially told them to not to get confused about who is who," Shaikh added.

"Some of the tabloids also picked up the news and printed his picture as one of the deceased along with his uncle, the local TV channels also reported the same."

"Some of my friends later informed me that a banner has been put up outside the bridge, paying homage to the victims, which also carries my name and picture. I received a lot of calls and messages, people have been coming to meet me, thinking I am no more," Shaikh added.

While the media houses corrected their mistake in subsequent reports, Shaikh had no idea what to do about the banner. "It has been printed by some local politician and I don't know whom to contact about it. So, I decided to get in touch with the western or the central railway authorities," Shaikh said.

Mallya arrested, out on bail again...

Mallya is in Britain on an "indefinite leave to remain" visa or on permanent residence after India cancelled his passport.

Mallya has repeatedly refused to appear before courts and investigators in India since he secretly fled to Britain last March, after defaulting on loan payments to state-owned banks and allegedly misusing the funds by rerouting them to tax havens. The extradition process from the UK involves a number of steps, including a decision by the judge whether to issue a warrant of arrest. In case of a warrant, the person is arrested and brought before the court for preliminary hearing followed by an extradition hearing before a final decision is taken by the secretary of state.

Sasikala parole plea rejected

According to doctors, he is awaiting transplantation of a deceased donor's liver and a kidney. The jail superintendent had said earlier that the legal cell was considering her plea.

Sasikala has been in jail here since February after the Supreme Court upheld her conviction by a special court in a disproportionate assets case. Her relatives Iavarasi and V N Sudhakaran are also serving four-year jail terms.

Sasikala's nephew and sidelined AIADMK leader T T V Dhinakaran had also said in Chennai on Monday that she had applied for a 15-day parole to meet her ailing husband.

Pak breaches all propriety

Asif made the remarks while talking about Kashmiris who have been killed in Jammu and Kashmir and civilian casualties in cross-border firing along the Line of Control and the Working Boundary, the Dawn reported.

Explaining his stance, Asif said, "Look at the language the Indian prime minister is using, the way Muslims are being killed over cow-related issues. And just recently, on Dussehra, they burnt the effigies of Rohingya Muslims four times," he claimed.

"In Dussehra, they burn the effigies of villains. They declared Rohingya Muslims terrorists," he stressed, adding that although India was quick to call others terrorists, "the biggest terrorist (is Modi). Muslims were raped and murdered under his supervision when he was chief minister (of Gujarat)."

The US had banned him," he said.
