CHAPTER – II

RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION AND TRADING BY INSIDERS

A. Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information.

(1) No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

(2) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:–

(i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company;

(ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.

(4) For purposes of point no. (3) above, the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-regulation (3), and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

B. Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

(1) No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following : –

(i) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between promoters who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

(ii) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

(a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(iii) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5.

(2) In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.

(3) Insider shall maintain the confidentiality of all unpublished price sensitive information. They should not pass such information to any person including the other insider.

(4) Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be handled on a "Need to Know" basis i.e. such information shall be shared with any person including the other insider except where such information is required to be passed for legitimate purposes and for performance of duties or discharge of legal obligation.

(5) Files containing unpublished price sensitive information or any such related confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted/destroyed after its use.

(6) The Company shall adopt a Chinese Wall Policy to prevent the misuse of confidential information, which separates those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information.

C. TRADING PLANS

(1) An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

(2) Such trading plan shall:–

(i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

(ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;

(iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

(iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

(v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

(vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

(vii) Application for Trading Plan shall be given in Form I.

(3) The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

(4) The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information so as to avoid a violation of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4.

(5) Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

(6) Letter of intimation of approval of Trading plan is at Form II.

(7) Such Insider is required to intimate the Compliance Officer regarding execution of trading plan within two trading days of each transaction intimated under the trading plan as per proforma provided in Form III.

(8) The Compliance Officer shall maintain a register of trading plan of securities by the Insiders and notification to Stock as given in REG-I.

D. TRADING WINDOW

(1) The trading window shall be closed when Compliance Officer determines that designated person or a class of designated person are expected to be in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

(2) The trading window shall remain closed in the following events in general:-

- Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually)
- Recommendation/Declaration of Dividend
- Issue of securities by way of public/rights/bonus/FPO etc.
- Any major expansion plans
- Amalgamation, mergers, acquisitions, takeovers and buy back of shares.
- Disposal of whole or substantially the whole of the Company.
- Merger, de-merger, restructuring, scheme of arrangement.
- Consolidation/splitting of face value of shares
- Voluntary de-listing of shares by the Company
- Forfeiture of shares
- ADR/GDR or any other class of securities to be issued abroad.
- Cancellation of dividend/right/bonus etc.

(3) The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

(4) The remaining days of a year other than the days when the window is closed shall be called "Valid Trading Window".

(5) All Designated Persons shall conduct their dealings in the securities of the Company only in the "Valid Trading Window" period as mentioned above and shall not enter into "Contra Trade" i.e. opposite or reverse transactions, in the securities of the Company during the next six months following the prior transaction. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

- (6) The Compliance Officer shall maintain a register of the periods of "Closed Trading Window", wherein he shall record the date of closure and opening of the trading window and the purpose for which trading window is closed. A Proforma of the register of periods of closure of Trading Window is given in REG-II.
- (7) In case of Employee Stock Option Plans (ESOPs), exercise of option may be allowed during the period when the Trading Window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when the Trading Window is closed.

E. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

- (1) When the trading is open, all Designated persons of the Company who intend to deal, on their behalf and / or on behalf of their dependent family members, in the securities of the Company and where the number of shares intended to be dealt exceeds 2000 shares or shares of market value of more than ₹ 5,00,000/-, should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as described hereunder. - (2) No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of un-published price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.
- (3) Any pre cleared trade not executed by the designated person within 7 trading days of its pre clearance would require fresh clearance for the trades to be executed. Such Designated Person is required to intimate the Compliance Officer regarding execution/ non execution of pre approved transaction within two trading days as per proforma provided in Form III.
- (4) Letter of intimation of pre clearance is at Form II.
- (5) Along with the request for pre-clearance of transaction, an undertaking shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated person, that he is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, incorporating, inter-alia, the following clauses:
 - (a) That they do not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That in case designated persons has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) That designated persons have not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified from time to time.
 - (d) That designated persons have made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- (6) Immediately on receipt of the pre-clearance application, the date and time of the receipt of the same shall be recorded thereon. The Compliance Officer shall process the pre-clearance applications and if the pre-clearance application is in accordance and in compliance with the provisions of this CODE, the Compliance Officer shall endeavor to communicate the pre-clearance immediately but not later than 48 hours from the time of receiving the application. In the absence of the Compliance Officer, the officer authorized by the Compliance Officer shall give the pre-clearance.
- (7) No contra trade shall be executed by the designated person within the period of six months from date of execution of the pre-cleared trade.
- (8) The Compliance Officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations.
- (9) In case of execution of a contra trade, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.
- (10) The Compliance Officer shall maintain a register of pre-clearance of securities by the Designated Person as given in REG-III.
