RESOLVED FURTHER THAT the Board of Directors be and is hereby authorized to do all such acts, deeds, matters and things as deem necessary in relation thereto, and to file all the necessary documents with Registrar of Companies, for the purpose of giving effect to this resolution.”

After transacting the above agenda items, the Chairman requested to display the empty ballot box and to lock the same. He also informed that voting by poll continue till the conclusion of the meeting. Thereafter, Chairman invited questions and comments of shareholders as per speaker list.

The Chairman stated that each shareholder, who desired to speak on the Annual Report, would be given a maximum of three minutes and requested the shareholders to be brief and precise and avoid repetition, so as to offer an opportunity to as many shareholders as possible to speak at the Meeting. A summary of the answers given by the Chairman in response to the questions raised by the shareholders have been recorded as under:

In response to a query on launch of new products, the Chairman clarified that the Company has launched a range of new products during the year which have already been covered in the annual report of the Company. He spoke on the Colgate Sugar Acid Neutralizer toothpaste which fights the sugar acids, Colgate Active Neem and Salt toothpaste and recommended to try the newly launched Colgate Total Charcoal toothpaste.

With regard to query in respect of expenditure on Research & Development, the Chairman clarified that the Company has spent approximately Rs. 16 Crore on Research & Development which is about 25% rise compared to the previous year.

In response to a query on prepaid rent, the Chairman clarified that it pertains to housing rental that has been paid in advance to the landlord.

With regards to query on miscellaneous income, the Chairman clarified that there were items like sale of flavor, leftover nylons, gain on maturity of long-term investments, insurance claims etc.

In response to miscellaneous expenditure, the Chairman clarified that it is a very long list and listed a few of them such as; warehousing, telecommunication and IT services, courier services, bank charges, recruitment cost etc.

With regard to a query on long term loan to employees, the Chairman clarified that these are long term loans given to employees and no loan is extended to any Director of the Company.

In response to a query on capital expenditure programme for the next 2-3 years, the Chairman clarified that the Company has the capital expenditure programme for the years 2016 and 2017 in place. The Company recently made two significant capital expenditures in setting up of the state-of-the-art toothpaste manufacturing plant at Sanand, Gujarat and the toothbrush manufacturing plant at Sri City, Andhra Pradesh.

With regard to a query on export income, the Chairman clarified that the export income was mainly generated from the toothpaste manufacturing plant at Sanand. He also added that the Company manufactures on behalf of Colgate subsidiaries for the purpose of export and do not sell it directly in foreign market.

In response to the query on the toothpaste being vegetarian or not, the Chairman clarified every single toothpaste of Colgate has a green dot which indicates completely vegetarian toothpaste.

In response to the query on the scholarship program, the Chairman clarified that the Company has extended the scholarship program throughout India and it is not limited to Maharashtra state only.

With regard to a query on doubtful debts, the Chairman clarified that according to the accounting practice the debts beyond a particular duration are treated as doubtful debts and they are particularly from the Canteen Stores Department (CSD) to whom we supply our products. They normally have a longer payment term. Hence, the Company classified them as doubtful debts.

In response to the query of who is Ms. Mehta, the Chairman clarified that Ms. Hima Mehta has been involved in the Company for a long period of time and has recently retired from the services of the Company. He further stated that considering her valuable contribution and commitment towards work, the Company has retained her. He requested a special applause for Ms. Hima Mehta.

With regard to the query on market share in the Sensitive segment, the Chairman clarified that sensitive segment is small and forms only 15% of the overall toothpaste market. He further added that sensitive segment has several brands and the two largest brands are Sensodyne which has the major share in sensitive segment followed by Colgate Sensitive Pro-relief.

In response to the query on payment of royalty, the Chairman clarified that the Company paid a royalty to the parent company @ 5% on domestic sales and 8% on export sales of toothpaste and only 1% royalty on toothpowder as the technology is mostly developed here.

With regard to question on factory visit, the Chairman clarified that since 1985 there has been no factory visit scheduled for the shareholders. He further added that it was not just a question of cost, but entry is restricted to maintain safety, hygiene and good manufacturing practices.

The Chairman also informed the shareholders that the toothpaste manufacturing facility is fully automated and completely sealed system like a pharmaceutical company. He further stated that not just Sanand, all the factories at Colgate carries high standard of manufacturing practices and the consumers can rest assure and be confident about the quality of the products manufactured.

After the question and answer session, there were video clips displayed for the shareholders on the scholarship program conducted by the Company and on the toothpaste manufacturing facility at Sanand.

The Chairman thanked everybody for providing unstinted support.

The Chairman informed that voting process shall stand closed after the scrutinizer takes the ballot box in his custody and the voting results will be declared upon receipt of the scrutinizer's report (annexed herewith) He also informed that the voting results will be placed on the websites of the Company, Stock Exchanges and NSDL.

There being no other business, the meeting ended at 5.15 p.m. with the vote of thanks to the Chair.
