TATA Consultancy Services (TCS) has decided to make available a sum of upto ₹1,100 crore as interest-free cash advances, to help its employees recover and rebuild themselves in the aftermath of devastating floods in Chennai. The advances, ranging from ₹1 lakh and to a maximum equivalent of three months' gross salary, will be disbursed from the week of December 14, to those who apply. N Chandrasekaran, MD & CEO, on Thursday wrote in a mail to the employees based in Chennai.

The recovery of the advances will start after April 1, 2016 for 12 months. TCS has close to 60,000 employees working in different locations, in and around Chennai. This comes close on the heels of Cognizant's commitment of $40 million (₹260 crore) to help residents, its employees and business partners in Chennai with relief and rehabilitation.

In addition, TCS is setting aside ₹50 crore for direct grants to TCS staff who have suffered extensive damage to their homes, reimbursement of medical or hospitalisation expenses (over and above TCS

We hope these measures will help them and many others get back on their feet quickly and put this traumatic experience behind us," Chandrasekaran said.

"We are in the process of looking out for fresh investors and have appointed investment bank Credit Suisse to look for strategic buyers," he said.
