

CODE OF CONDUCT TO REGULATE, MONITOR AND REPORT TRADING BY INSIDERS IN SECURITIES OF THE COMPANY

1. OBJECTIVE

Pursuant to the requirement of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 this internal Code is formulated to prohibit a Designated person, his/ her Immediate relative and a connected person who have access to or are in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, from trading in Company's shares.

The Code has been framed in line with the minimum standards for code of conduct specified in Schedule- B of the said Regulations.

This Code supersedes the Company's Code for prevention of Insider Trading framed under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992.

2. EFFECTIVE DATE

This code shall come into force on 22nd January, 2016, the date of its adoption by the Board of Directors of the Company.

3. DEFINITIONS

1.Compliance Officer means the Compliance officer appointed by the Company pursuant to regulation 6(1) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

2.Connected Person inter alia includes a person who is or has during 6 (six) months prior to the concerned act been associated with the Company, directly or indirectly, in any capacity including by reason of:

a. frequent communication with its officers ; or being in any contractual, fiduciary or employment relationship; or being a director, officer or an employee of the Company ; or

b. holding any position including a professional or business relationship between himself and the Company whether temporary or permanent that allows such person, directly or indirectly, access to unpublished price sensitive information or is reasonably expected to allow such access.

Further, following persons shall be deemed to be connected persons:

1. an immediate relative of Connected person as specified above;
2. a holding company or associate company or subsidiary company;
3. bankers to the Company;
4. a firm, trust, HUF, company or association of persons wherein a director of the Company or his immediate relative is a member;

5. banker of the Company having more than 10% holding or interest.

3. Designated Persons shall mean:

- a. Directors of the Company.
- b. Officers as defined in the Companies Act, 2013
- c. All employees up to three tiers below Board Level.
- d. Employees in the Corporate Finance Department as designated by the Chief Financial Officer
- e. All employees in the Secretarial Departments designated by the Company Secretary.
- f. All executive assistants/confidential secretaries to persons mentioned under (a) to (c) supra.
- g. Any other Connected person as may be specified by the Compliance Officer or Managing Director from time to time.

4. Immediate relative means the spouse of a designated person and includes parent and Sibling and child of such person or of the spouse, any of whom is either dependent financially on such designated person or consults such designated person in taking decisions relating to trading in securities.

For the purpose of this Code, the declaration given by a Designated Person to the effect that an Immediate Relative is dependent financially on him/her or who consults him/her in taking decisions relating to trading in securities will be accepted.

5. Insider means any person who is a Connected person or designated person as defined above or a person in possession of or having access to unpublished price sensitive information.

6. Unpublished Price sensitive information (UPSI) means any information, relating to the Company or its securities, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the Securities of the Company and shall, ordinarily including but not restricted to, information relating to the following:

- a. financial results
- b. dividends
- c. change in capital structure
- d. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
- e. changes in Key Managerial Personnel; and
- f. Material events in accordance with the Listing Agreement.

7. Trading window open period refers to the period during which the Company's securities can be traded by the Designated Persons as provided in this Code.

8. Trading Window Closure Period refers to the period during which the designated persons of the Company shall not deal with the shares of the Company.

Words and expressions used herein and not defined in this Code shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in SEBI Act, 1992, the SCRA Act, 1956, the Depositories Act, 1996 or the Companies Act, 2013 and Rules and Regulations made there under.

4. ROLE OF COMPLIANCE OFFICER

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for:

- a. Compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for reservation of UPSI;
- b. monitoring of trades and implementation of this Code under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors of the Company;
- c. reviewing the trading plan and assessing the potential of the plan for violation of the Regulations, if any;
- d. Approving and monitoring the implementation of the plan; Notify the trading plan to the stock exchanges where the securities are listed, on approval of the plan.

5. PRESERVATION, COMMUNICATION AND PROCUREMENT OF UPSI

- a. Designated persons shall maintain confidentiality of all UPSI. Designated persons shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly,
- b. UPSI is to be handled within and outside the Company on a "need to know" basis, and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- c. No Designated Person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider, of UPSI, relating to the Company or its securities, either directly or indirectly except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- d. Any person including Auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultant firms etc., assisting or advising the Company, who is expected to have access to UPSI in the course of business operations shall be advised to formulate a Code of Conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by its employees/ Connected persons towards achieving compliance of these regulations, adopting the minimum standards set out in the Regulations without diluting any provisions. They will also be subjected to the trading window provisions of this Code.

6. RESTRICTIONS FOR TRADING BY THE DESIGNATED PERSONS

All Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall be subject to the trading restrictions enumerated below:

- a. The Company shall in consultation with the management specify a trading window closure period. During such period the designated employees and their immediate relatives shall not deal with the shares of the company.
- b. The trading window shall be closed during the time when the UPSI is unpublished:
- c. The timing for closing and re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by Compliance Officer after taking into account of various factors. Generally, the trading window shall be closed at least ten working days in advance of the publication of the UPSI and shall be opened at least forty eight hours after the publication of the UPSI.
- d. The trading window shall also be closed when the Compliance Officer is of the opinion that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons is reasonably expected to be in possession of UPSI.

7. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

- a. All designated Persons on their behalf and on behalf of their immediate relative who intend to deal in the securities of the Company during the period when the trading window is open, should obtain pre-clearance for the transaction(s) if the value of the transaction, either to be conducted through a single transaction or a series of transactions, exceeding Rs.10 lakhs in value (market value) in every calendar quarter.
- b. No Designated Person shall make an application for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of UPSI even if the trading window is not closed. It is clarified that it is the responsibility of the Designated Persons to obtain approvals in respect of trades proposed to be conducted by them.
- c. An application may be made in the prescribed FORM NO C, to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the designated person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, number of securities held by him in physical and depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Company in this regard.
- d. Compliance Officer shall either clear the requested deal or decline to clear the same within 7 days of receipt of the request in the prescribed form. In case of declination, the reasons for the same shall be recorded by the Compliance Officer.
- e. The pre clearance given by the Company is valid for seven trading days only. If the trade is not done within that period a fresh clearance is required.

- f. An undertaking shall be executed in favour of the Company by such designated person confirming that:
 - i. That the designated person does not have any access or has not received up to the time of signing the undertaking any "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information".
 - ii. That in case the designated person has access to or receives unpublished price sensitive information after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction, he/she shall inform the Compliance officer of the change in his/her position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information is published.
 - iii. That he/she has not contravened this Code.
 - iv. That he/she has made a full and true disclosure while applying for clearance to trade.
- g. In case the Compliance Officer or any of his / her immediate relative wishes to trade in the securities of the company, he/ she should get the trade pre-cleared by the Managing Director of the Company and all provisions of the pre-clearance as would be applicable to a Designated Person shall be applicable to the Compliance Officer.
- h. Designated persons and their immediate relatives who buy or sell any number of securities shall not enter into an opposite transaction viz., sell or buy as the case may be for a period of six months following the previous transaction. Further, they shall also not take any position in derivative transactions in the securities at any time.

8. TRADING PLANS

Any Insider who may be perpetually in possession of UPSI is entitled to formulate a trading plan enabling him/her to trade in securities. The Compliance Officer is required to review the trading plan to assess whether the plan potentially violates the Regulations. Trading plan approved by the Compliance Officer should be notified to the stock exchanges where the securities are listed.

Trading plan shall:

- a. Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- b. Not entail trading for the period between twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- c. Entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- d. Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- e. Set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- f. Not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer may seek express undertakings necessary for the assessment, approval and implementation of the trading plan. An approved trading plan is irrevocable. Insider cannot execute any trade outside the scope of the trading plan.

9. DISCLOSURES

Initial Disclosure

Every Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel and Director of the Company shall be required to submit the details of their holdings in the Company's securities and that of their immediate relatives to the Compliance officer within thirty (30) days from the date of the Regulations becoming effective in Form No. B.
