In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the company's preparation and fair presentation of the results in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the results.

We believe that audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.
