Hexaware placed in the High Potential Category for SuccessFactors Services in the HfS Blueprint Report

Hexaware has been recognized for its strengths in the Cloud and SaaS based HR application services

Mumbai – 19 May 2016: Hexaware Technologies Limited, a leading global provider of IT, Business Process and Consulting Services, announced its placement in the HfS Research Blueprint Report in the "High potentials category" for SuccessFactors services.

Hexaware has been one of the prominent and early service providers for Cloud based HR application services. This recognition reflects on Hexaware's digital transformational capabilities through its investment in tools, technologies and service development across the entire HR value chain. The Company has been enhancing and enriching employee experience by deploying, managing, and supporting HRIT applications.

"Hexaware is positioned in the High Potential category in our Blueprint because of its capabilities in HR and cloud services and its early investment in related tools and technologies" said Khalda De Souza, Principal Analyst at HfS Research and author of the recent HfS Blueprint on SAP SuccessFactors Services. "Clients appreciate Hexaware's flexibility in Service Delivery and Pricing Methodologies, which are essential to being successful in the SaaS services market. Hexaware has the pieces in place to become a Strong Service Partner around SuccessFactors for clients today and tomorrow."

"Hexaware is extremely delighted to be recognized in the high potential category for SuccessFactors services. This special mention and recognition highlights our strong roots in HR applications. Hexaware has emerged as Leader in supporting customers in making transition to Cloud HCM in general and SuccessFactors in particular" says Madhavi Malineni, Head of HCM Practice, Hexaware Technologies Ltd. "Hexaware's ability in understanding client's environment and tailoring the roadmap to each client's needs has made this transition faster, smoother and less expensive"

The 2016 SuccessFactor Services HfS Blueprint Report, is the first qualitative analyst assessment of the SuccessFactors services market. . The report identifies differentials between Service Providers across various differentiating parameters like Innovation and Execution.

Hexaware's HCM practice has been serving the Global HR community with its comprehensive HR-IT services. The Company has served more than 2 million employees across various industry segments. Hexaware's HCM solution Center provides end-to-end HRIT Consulting and Deployment, HR Transformation, and Digital Employee and HR/IT takeout (managed services) services for hybrid (on-premises and cloud-based) HR/IT Technology Platforms.
