Understanding the Identity

"In the realm of sustainability resides the little universe of Sahyadri wherein it has carved a niche for itself as a competent player. A dynamic company led by young leaders, it radiates the energy that walks a new direction and talks innovation, in the expanding world of green. A grounded enterprise true to its values and discipline in structure & function, Sahyadri drives the steady foundation set by its founders, the bond it shares with people and high regard for processes to provide answers that take you further and farther"

Shri.L.B.Patel – Group Founder

The belief in his deeds and values, resides the undercurrent of our business.

When he arrived in Maharashtra in the first quarter of the previous century, none including himself had imagined that it was to be the dawn of a revolutionary Enterprise - the enterprise that would spread its wings to shores beyond the continent in the coming 60 years.

Bestowed by the founder, the vision and values continue to live in each member of the enterprise, leaders and team alike, together striving to offer sound and reliable answers in the building material space.

BPL Ratio in India

About 276 million people

In 2012, the Indian government stated 21.9% of its population is below its official poverty limit. The World Bank, in 2011 based on 2005's PPPs International Comparison Program, estimated 23.6% of Indian population, or about 276 million people, lived below $1.25 per day on purchasing power parity.

50 percent of India's population defecates in the open: UNICEF

New Delhi, June 03, 2014: UNICEF estimates that almost 594 million - nearly 50 percent of India's population — defecates in the open...

New Delhi, June 26, 2013: Nearly 73 per cent households in rural India practice open defecation despite sanitation drives launched by the government, according to an independent evaluation by the Planning Commission.

Toilet shortage fueling India rape scourge as women easy prey:

Badaun gang-rape highlights the dire necessity of sanitation and police reforms

June 2, 2014: Yet again, we find ourselves in the midst of a tale of barbaric gang-rape and murder. Two Dalit teenage girls in Badaun district of Uttar Pradesh, on their way to the open fields at night (because of the lack of bathrooms), are repeatedly raped and murdered, hanged from a mango tree.

Toilets for the Girl Child

Globally, waterborne diseases kill more children than AIDS, malaria and measles combined. Waterborne diseases are caused due to the lack of safe drinking water and sanitation facilities. It is estimated that annually, about 37.7 million Indians are affected by waterborne diseases. Out of this, 1.5 million children are estimated to die of diarrhoea alone.

The statistics are more alarming at the school level. In India, 41.18% schools don't have separate toilets for girls. Some schools have only a single toilet, which is not clean. Single toilets increase the risk of not only disease transmission, but also sexual harassment. Many girls opt to drop out of school due to the lack of proper toilet facilities. It is especially true in the case of adolescent girls who skip school for five to six days every month, during menstruation. This hampers their education and leads them to drop out of school completely. The school drop out rates are 66% for girls.

Proper sanitation facilities in schools are critical for improving the rate of completion of studies at school for the girls.

Empowered Woman, Empowered Family

How BYP will be a catalyst in the Nation's Progress

1. By arresting the migration of rural farmers and farm workers / labor from Rural India as agriculture is not the steady source of income due to unstable weather conditions.
2. By supporting the farmers with additional, reliable and steady source of income irrespective of weather conditions. This will help in arresting the main reason of suicides of farmers in India. As per Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia, Farmer suicide in India is the intentional ending of one's life by a person dependent on farming as their primary source of livelihood. In 2012, the National Crime Records Bureau of India reported 13,754 farmer suicides. According to NCRB , 46 farmers commit suicide every day in India. As of 2013, a total of 296,438 farmers have killed themselves in India since 1995. Farmer suicides account for 11.2% of all suicides in India. Activists and scholars have offered a number of conflicting reasons for farmer suicides, such as monsoon failure, high debt burdens, genetically modified crops etc.
3. BYP is the best tool for Honorable PM's initiative of NRLM (National Rural Livelihood Mission) as it will provide the steady & consistent income to BPL families and uneducated, unskilled and semi-skilled people.

Agricultural produce, the main source of income is not a steady income because of imbalance in weather conditions & natural calamities.
