The Company Secretary shall oversee corporate disclosure. He shall be responsible for deciding whether a public announcement is necessary for verifying or denying rumours and then making the disclosure.

5. Timely Reporting of shareholdings/ownership and changes in ownership

The Company Secretary shall be responsible for ensuring that disclosures of shareholdings/ownership of major shareholders and disclosure of changes in ownership as required under the Stock Exchange Listing Agreements and/or any rules/regulations made under the Securities & Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 are made in a timely and adequate manner.

5. Disclosure/dissemination of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information with special reference to Analysts, Institutional Investors

The Company shall follow the guidelines given hereunder while dealing with analysts and institutional investors:—

- (i) Only Public information to be provided – The Company shall provide only public information to the analyst/research persons/large investors like institutions. Alternatively, the information given to the analyst shall be simultaneously made public at the earliest.
- (ii) Recording of discussion - In order to avoid misquoting or misrepresentation, it shall be ensured that at least two company representatives are present at meetings with Analysts, brokers or Institutional Investors and the transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the website of the Company to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- (iii) Handling of unanticipated questions – The Company shall not answer analysts' questions that raise issues outside the intended scope of discussion. Unanticipated questions shall be taken on notice and a considered response given later. If the answer includes price sensitive information, a public announcement shall be made before responding.
- (iv) Simultaneous release of Information - When the company organises meetings with analysts, the company shall make a press release or post relevant information on its website after every such meet. The company may also consider live webcasting of analyst meets.

6. Medium of disclosure/dissemination

The Company shall disseminate all unpublished Price Sensitive Information on a continuous and in a timely manner to stock exchanges where its Securities are listed and thereafter to the Press.

As a good corporate practice, the unpublished Price Sensitive Information disclosed to the Stock Exchanges and to the Press may also be supplemented by prompt updates on the Company's web-site. The Company may also consider other modes of public disclosure of Price Sensitive Information so as to improve investor access to the same.

The Chief Investor Relations Office shall mark a copy of the Press Release to the Company's Information Technology (IT) Dept. simultaneously for supplementing the Company's website: www.panacea-biotec.com.

The information filed by the Company with the Stock Exchanges under the continuous disclosure requirement of Listing Agreement may also be posted on the Company's website. The following information shall however be continuously disclosed in the Company's website:

- Un-audited quarterly and half yearly financial results and audited annual financial results.
- Details of dividend recommended by the Board.
- Dates of Shareholder's Meetings, Book Closure and record date.
