The Chairman further explained that under the new provisions of the 2013 Act where e-voting is taking place, voting by show of hands has become not applicable. Under this scenario, Company would be providing opportunity to vote through Ballot Papers to only those shareholders who could not use e-voting facility and have not voted by e-voting.

Hence, for this AGM, the proceedings of meeting would be conducted in a different manner, in which case, each business agenda item would be taken up one by one, as per the usual procedure, but voting of the same would be carried out through poll process for which ballot papers would be distributed to the members on completion of last agenda item.

The Chairman further announced that this facility of poll process would be extended only to those shareholders who have not voted through E-Voting facility and not otherwise.

He then requested the members to participate in discussion relating to each agenda item and offered them to express their views, if they so desire.

He then took up each Agenda Item:

AGENDA ITEM NO. 1:
