

HCL Technologies Showcases Latest Digitalization Solutions at Oracle OpenWorld 2014

San Francisco, September 29, 2014: The global IT services company HCL Technologies will serve as a Grande sponsor of Oracle OpenWorld and showcase a number of Oracle capabilities and solutions, including its Digital Systems Integration solutions, at the conference Sept. 28 through Oct. 2 in San Francisco. Company executives will also participate in multiple presentations during the flagship event for Oracle business and technology users. HCL is a global leader in delivering end-to-end Oracle transformation services and innovative solutions to clients across all industry verticals.

"The transition of the Oracle E-Business Suite implementation and application support to HCL was very successful and exceeded our expectations. With professionalism, total commitment from the team and close collaboration, we jointly succeeded to complete: the hand-over of the application support; data migration; deployment of the solution to two new business units in The Netherlands and the UK, and HCL stabilized and enhanced Masternaut's business critical solutions provided by the Oracle E-Business Suite," said David Warburton-Broadhurst, CIO of Masternaut. "Based on the success of our co-operation, Masternaut has awarded HCL with an AMS contract for the support of the Oracle E-Business Suite and related custom elements."
