Commenting on the results, Ms. Aarti Arvind, Managing Director & CEO, SQS India BFSI, said

“The year gone by was flat on a constant currency basis with positives emerging in the UK, Europe and Middle East. The US market was challenging with the changes in the political as well as economic environment. We have extended our positioning with in Agile, Robotic Process Automation and the development of accelerators. The rampdowns are behind us and revenue from new projects from existing clients as well as new clients will help to grow in Q1. Despite a difficult year industry wide, we have maintained our EBITDA at 19.7% for FY17.
