Statement to be annexed to Postal Ballot Notice pursuant to Section 102(1) of the Companies Act, 2013

Pursuant to Section 180(1)(c) of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act'), in case any company wishes to borrow the monies in excess of its paid-up share capital and free reserves, (apart from temporary loans obtained from the company's bankers in ordinary course of business) it shall obtain consent of the members by a special resolution.

As the members are aware, a special resolution approving the issue of Non-convertible Debentures (NCDs) for an amount aggregating up to Rs. 5,000 Crore has been passed at the Company's Thirty Second Annual General Meeting held on July 24, 2017. Based on the restructuring exercise undertaken by the Company, two of its wholly owned subsidiaries, viz., JM Financial Institutional Securities Limited and JM Financial Investment Managers Limited are proposed to be merged with the Company through the scheme of amalgamation. Post completion of the restructuring exercise, the Company would cease to be a Core Investment Company (CIC) and would become a SEBI registered merchant banker subject to necessary regulatory and other approvals.

In view of the above, the limit on borrowing the moneys under the Core Investment Companies (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016 would not be applicable to the Company. As an operating company, it will also need to arrange access to funding in respect of its various business requirements. Some of the businesses of the Group will continue to be carried out by the Company's continuing subsidiary companies. The Company would, as a holding Company, need to support any urgent capital or financial needs of its operating subsidiaries on a need basis. It is therefore proposed to obtain the Members' consent through the special resolution to borrow the moneys in excess of the Company's paid up capital and free reserves pursuant to Section 180(1)(c) of the Act subject to a maximum borrowing of Rs. 5,000 Crore and remaining outstanding at any point in time.

The Board commends passing of the Special Resolution as set out in the Notice.

None of the Directors/Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, or their relatives is, in any way, concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the resolution set out in the accompanying Notice.
