The growth in the profit of the Company has come on the back of operation efficiency and Shifting the focus is on High Margin Products . Operating profits have been consistent due to optimal capacity utilisation, downtrend in raw material prices and right mix of products.

Raw material prices is likely to be soften as per available international trend and expected to be come down by 3-5% on weighted averages basis in H1 FY16.

Speaking on the results, Mr. Mahesh Chandra Garg, Chairperson said, “The current quarter performance is encouraging and we expect to perform better with New Capacity, better product mix and New Product Launches in H2. Our expanded presence in International Market will be the demand drivers for our key sectors i.e. Auto, Infrastructure, Solar Energy and Engineering products. Dedication, Hardwork, discipline & research has always been our USP and will continue to be our road towards progress and prosperity. The team of dedicated and enthusiastic professionals of the Goodluck Steel family have taken it upon themselves to focus on building a strong bottom line which, I am sure will exceed the expectations of the dear shareholders who put faith in us over the years. Demand in India for our products for Infrastructure, Auto & Solar Energy is expected to rise due to positive Industrial Atmosphere.”
