DIVIDEND

The Company has not declared any dividend for the year ended 31st March, 2008.

PRESENT PERFORMANCE AND FUTURE PROSPECT

Like earlier years, your company has been able to maintain upward trend of profitability. A buoyant capital market environment and a robust economic growth coupled with a improved GDP growth witnessed by our country has also helped your company to post all round improvement in its performance. Its income has improved by 75.76%, Operating Profit (Proit before Depreciation) by 68.19%, Profit before Tax (PBT) by 74.06% and Profit after Tax (PAT) by 74.50% as compared to last year. The Company has been able to utilize its fund in a better manner which has helped to increase its interest income by 75.76%. With our economy maintaining the same level of growth pattern and our capital market showing stability, your company is sure to post a higher growth in the years to come.

FUTURE PLANNING & PROSPECT

Your Company is also considering to diversify its activities in the field of Real Estate / Construction activities and Export/Import of tradable items. To capitalize the high growth in the construction and Real Estate sector, your Company is considering to enter into joint venture for construction and development of township, hotels, resorts, amusement park and residential-cum-commercial complexes. The total project cost for the same is estimated around $300 million which shall be mainly raised through External commercial Borrowings (ECBs) and / or private placement of equity shares to overseas entities. Recently, the concept of generating power / energy through use of wind power technology has become very popular all over the world as it is pollution free and cost of generation is cheaper as compared to the conventional system of generating energy. In India, the Central Government and the State governments are offering various concession in terms of lower customs duty and cess and providing long term finances at a competitive rate of interest. Your Company is also considering the proposal to set up wind power projects through joint venture with any overseas entities. The company is also looking into the prospect of export and import of tradable and retail items to / from European countries. It has already obtained necessary Export / Import Code (IEC) (Office of the JT. Director General of Foreign Trade) in this respect.

Industry Structure and Developments

The Operations of Non Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) are being regulated and supervised by Reserve Bank of India in terms of powers conferred up on it under Chapter III – B of Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934. The regulatory and supervisory framework for NBFCs have been continuously strengthened in order to ensure strong and healthy functioning of the financial services sector.

The NBFC sector in India has become very matured with reduced dependence on acceptance of public deposits as part of its overall funding. The NBFC sector plays a vital role in funding various projects and working capital requirement by the corporate sector for long term as well as short term basis.

The buoyant economic environment and positive GDP growth got the attention of the global investors and the FII inflows continued even in the current fiscal. The net investments by FIs touched USD 7 billions in the month of September 2007. Higher capital inflow along with encouraging performance by Indian corporate sector helped the equity market to grow substantially. The average daily market volume/ turnover in cash segment of NSE touched Rs.20,000 crores in October 2007. Also, the average volume in derivative segment which was Rs.29,543 crores in the year 2006-07 touched a high of Rs.83,348 crores in October 2007. The year has seen considerable growth in the mutual fund sector and the total assets under various mutual fund schemes at the end of the year stood at Rs.5 lacs crores. The last financial year also witnessed some major IPOs raising fund from the Indian capital markets like DLF Ltd and Reliance Power Ltd. However, the market witnessed major correction in the last quarter of the financial year 2007-08 due to sub prime crisis in the housing sector and its related negative impact on the overseas markets. The negative quarterly performance by some of the leading FIIs and investment bankers of the world impacted severely all the major market indices worldwide and our BSE SENSEX and NIFTY also corrected by more than 30% from their peak level. Continuing negative global trends coupled with steep price rise in crude oil continues to cast a shadow on the outlook of the market in the near future.

Opportunities & Threats

Indian Financial Market has a very high growth potential and the macro economic fundamentals are also strong enough to help the country to sustain its growth potential resulting into higher disposable income and a larger number of investors. The quantum of growth in resource mobilization by mutual fund industry along
