Report on Corporate Governance

Corporate governance is about commitment to values and ethical business conduct. It is also about how an organisation is managed, viz., its corporate and business structure, its culture, policies and manner in which it deals with various stakeholders. Timely and accurate disclosure of information regarding the financial position of the company, its performance and ownership forms part of the corporate governance.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PHILOSOPHY

The company believes that sound corporate governance practices are crucial to the smooth and efficient operation of a company and its ability to attract investment, protect the rights of its stakeholders and provide shareholder value.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The corporate governance practices of the company ensure that the board remains informed, independent and involved in the company and that there are ongoing efforts towards better governance to mitigate “non-business” risk.

The board is fully aware of its fiduciary responsibilities and recognises its responsibilities to shareholders and other stakeholders to uphold the highest standards in all matters concerning the company.

The board of directors (“the board”) are committed to representing the long-term interests of the stakeholders and in providing effective governance over the company’s affairs and exercise reasonable business judgment on the affairs of the company. The company has formulated a Code of Conduct applicable to the board and also has adopted an Insider Trading Code for prevention on insider trading.

Composition

The board has been constituted in a manner, which results in an appropriate mix of non-executive and independent directors to ensure proper governance and management.

The independent directors of the company provide an annual certificate of independence in accordance with clause 49 of the listing agreement and Companies Act, 2013, to the company which is taken on record by the board.

Board Meetings

The board meets at regular intervals. During the year ended 31 March, 2014, five meetings of the board were held i.e. 10 May, 2013, 8 August, 2013, 23 September, 2013, 31 October, 2013 and 30 January, 2014.

The details of directors as at 31 March, 2014 including the details of their other board directorship and committee membership reckoned in line with clause 49 of the listing agreement as well as their shareholdings are given below:

KARTIK INVESTMENTS TRUST LIMITED

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF KARTIK INVESTMENTS TRUST LIMITED

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of KARTIK INVESTMENTS TRUST LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2014, and the Statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement for the period then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility on the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- a) in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2014;
- b) in the case of the Profit and Loss Account, of the profit for the year ended on that date; and
- c) in the case of the Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows for the year ended on that date.

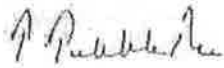

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2003 ("the Order") issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (4A) of section 227 of the Act, we give in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Order.
2. As required by section 227(3) of the Act, we report that:
 - a) we have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
 - b) in our opinion proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books
 - c) the Balance Sheet, Statement of Profit and Loss, and Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account.
 - d) in our opinion, the Balance Sheet, Statement of Profit and Loss, and Cash Flow Statement comply with the Accounting Standards referred to in subsection (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956;
 - e) on the basis of written representations received from the directors as on March 31, 2014, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors is disqualified as on March 31, 2014, from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956.

ACCOMPANYING NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of preparation of Financial Statements

The Financial Statements have been prepared to comply in all material aspects with applicable accounting principles in India, the Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.

b) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention under accrual basis of accounting.

c) Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements is in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles, which requires estimates, and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialised.

d) Revenue Recognition

Accrual basis of accounting has been adopted for both revenue and costs.

e) Investments

Investments are valued at cost and income arising there from is accounted on accrual basis. Diminution in the value of investments is recognised only if such diminution is considered permanent.

f) Taxes on Income

Current tax is determined on income for the year chargeable to tax under the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Deferred Tax is recognised for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised subject to consideration of prudence.

g) Provisions

Provisions are recognised only where there is a present obligation as a result of past events and when a reliable estimate of the amount of obligation can be made.

2. Deferred Tax

Deferred tax asset attributable to unabsorbed carried forward business loss and losses under the head Capital Gains as at 31st March 2014 aggregating Rs.85984/- (As at 31/3/2013 – Rs.85984/-) has not been recognised in view of the uncertainty regarding its utilisation by way of set off in subsequent years.
