SCHEDULE 19

NOTES:

1. Accounting Policies :

- a) Basis of Accounting:
Income and Expenditure, incentives are accounted on accrual basis and in accordance with the applicable accounting standard and the relevant provision of the Companies Act, 1956.
- b) Fixed Assets:
Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation except for those, which are revalued, in which case they are stated at the revalued cost less accumulated depreciation.
- c) Depreciation:
Depreciation is provided under straight-line method at rates and in the manner provided by Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956. Leasehold land is amortized over the period of lease.
- d) Inventories:
Inventories are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost of Raw Material is arrived at on FIFO basis, Stores & Spares on Weighted Average Cost basis for Chain division and on FIFO basis for the Chemical division. Cost of Finished and Semi- finished goods are arrived at on estimated cost basis.
- e) Foreign Exchange Transaction:
Foreign exchange transactions are accounted at the rate of exchange prevailing at the date of transaction. At the year end all foreign currency assets and liabilities are recorded at the exchange rate prevailing on that date. All such exchange rate difference on account of such conversion is recognized in the Profit & Loss Account.
- f) Employee Benefits:
 - i) Gratuity liability is covered by contributions to ILCM Employees Gratuity Trust. Provision for Gratuity is made on the basis of amount of Accruing Liability each year and charged to Profit & Loss Account. Further contributions to the aforesaid Gratuity Trust are made from time to time against the liability outstanding in the Accounts.
 - ii) The Company makes contribution to Provident Fund and Pension Fund and these are charged to revenue.
- g) Taxation:
 - i) Provision for current tax is made on the basis of estimated tax liability as per the applicable provisions of the Income-tax Act,1961.
 - ii) Deferred tax for timing differences between tax profits and book profits is accounted by using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted as of the Balance Sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent there is a virtual certainty that these assets would be realized in future and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each Balance Sheet date.
 - iii) Provision for Fringe Benefit Tax is determined at Current applicable rates on expenses falling within the ambit of "Fringe Benefit" as defined under The Income Tax Act,1961.
- h) Lease:
Lease rentals in respect of assets acquired under operating leases are charged off to the Profit and Loss Account as incurred.
- i) Impairment of Assets:
The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the management estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.
- j) Provision and Contingent Liabilities:
The Company creates a provision when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, requires an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.
