○ Management Discussion and Analysis

Polished diamond prices fell in June as Far East and Indian demand stalled and industry liquidity dried up as the Indian Rupee collapsed. Year on year one carat prices declined 13.7%. Demand in the United States is steady but wholesale buying remains selective as consumer's trend toward more affordable price points. Rough trading is at a standstill and DTC sightholders are rejecting overpriced De Beers boxes.

In June, for 1 ct. certified diamonds fell 1.6 percent. For 0.3 ct. stones declined by 1.2 percent and for 0.5 ct. diamonds dropped 1.4 percent. For 3 ct. diamonds fell 1 percent during the month.

During the first half of 2012, for 1 ct. diamonds fell 3.6 percent with the steepest declines occurring during the latter part of May and through June. For 0.3 ct. stones dropped 3.7 percent and for 0.5 ct. diamonds declined by 3.6 percent during the period. For 3 ct. stones fell 5 percent during the half-year.

According to the just released Research Report "Price Pressures," polished trading has slowed with increasing concern about the global recession. Far East demand is sluggish as wholesale and retail buyers expect further price declines. Indian diamond manufacturers and dealers are under pressure due to high rough prices, the depreciating rupee, high inflation and a declining economy. Liquidity is tight and banks are viewing new proposals with greater caution than before.

Estimates suggest that DTC sales fell 19 percent year on year to about $2.83 billion in the first half of 2012 as prices rose about 5 percent and the volume of supply dropped. Sightholders are losing money on their De Beers and ALROSA purchases and are refusing boxes. They will continue to do so until rough prices decline, which they inevitably will in the second half of the year.

The second half of 2012 is expected to be challenging for the diamond industry as Far East demand is projected to remain conservative in the near-term while India's industry crisis may be more prolonged. Polished prices are coming under increasing pressure as global diamond market sentiment is expected to remain weak.

Introduction

The Indian jewellery market is dominated by gold, which consists of almost 80 per cent of the market share, followed by fabricated studded jewellery including diamond and gemstone studded jewellery.

India is one of the premier locations for diamond manufacturing. The prospect of being able to open a truly world class diamond mine in India in the next few years and take India into the top 10 diamond producing regions in the world is a strong possibility, as per Stefanie Loader, Bunder Project Director, Rio Tinto. Further, India has also emerged as the largest cutting and polishing industry for diamond in the world.

Industry Structure

The gems and jewellery industry in 2011-12 has gone up by about 5 per cent at ₹ 2,000 billion (US$ 36.10 billion) against ₹ 1,950 billion (US$ 35.20 billion) in 2010-11.

The sector accounted for India's 14 per cent of the total merchandise exports. On the contrary, the imports of raw materials for making gems and jewellery stood at 32 per cent at ₹ 721.60 billion (US$ 35.20 billion) in 2011-12 over ₹ 545.64 billion (US$ 9.84 billion) in 2010-11.

The jewellery industry in India is estimated at ₹1,500 billion (US$ 27.07 billion), of which only 5 per cent is organised, thus creating opportunity for the foreign players to enter the Indian market.

Gold

Gold has always been the jewellers' favorite metal given its intrinsic luster and ease of fabrication. Gold jewellery enjoys the leading position in most markets across the world, and in many ways forms the backbone of the precious jewellery industry. Given the fact that gold is also one of the traded metals, gold jewellery consumption is also impacted by gold price movements.

South Africa has urged Indian jewellery firms to invest in manufacturing facilities as it seeks to encourage value addition to the gold produced in its country. Stefanus Botes, Minister Counsellor - Economic, South African High Commission said his country is willing to offer both fiscal and capital incentives to Indian companies setting up jewellery units. Besides, the Indian firms can take advantage of the "favourite nation status" to export to the US from South Africa. "Exports from South Africa to US are free of import duty and the Indian companies can get a 6 per cent cost advantage over other nations," Botes added.

Diamond

The jewellery companies in India, in particular diamond, have brought about a new trend, by rolling out low-cost diamond range to target the young adults. Jewellery demand in India grew by 13 per cent to ₹ 1,340 billion (US$ 24.19 billion) in 2011, as per a report by the World Gold Council (WGC).

Coloured Gemstones

This segment includes all other forms of jewellery; precious gemstones (emeralds, sapphires, rubies and tanzanite) and semi-precious gemstones; silver, pearls, etc. The industry is highly fragmented, thus generates business opportunity for the organised retailers and dealers to flourish.

The exports of coloured stone/ gems from India have grown by 15 per cent to ₹ 16.53 billion (US$ 298.40 million) this year from ₹ 14.32 billion (US$ 258.58 million) last year. Coloured gemstone processors of Jaipur, one of the world's major hubs for colour stone processing, have come together to form a company. About 50 colour stone makers have initiated procedures to form a company called Color Stone Gems India (CIL) with an equity capital of ₹ 1 billion (US$ 18.05 million).

"With this company, colour stone processors would be able to earn long-term supply contracts from rough mining nations and can make an impact in export markets by jointly working on creative issues".

Export of Gems and Jewellery

The total exports of gems and jewellery during April 2011 to March 2012 stood at US$ 42.84 billion, including that of cut and polished diamonds at US$ 23.33 billion, gold at US$ 16.52 billion and coloured gemstones at US$ 342.80 million, according to the provisional data.

India's gems and jewellery exports to Malaysia have the potential to record five-fold growth this year from US$ 78 million last year. "India one of the largest producers of diamonds in the world, has the potential to increase the wholesale gem purchasing initiatives among Malaysian jewelers," according to GJEPC. Diamond and gold will be the main export drivers to Malaysia.

The 2010 RNCOS report, indirectly supported by the findings of a leading industry body and published in the same year, estimates that by 2015, the gems and jewellery sector will help India earn about US$ 25 billion to US$ 35 billion in form of export revenue. A steady sale of jewelleries, especially of gold, has helped the gems and jewellery industry in India flourish at this rapid rate. In addition, India has evolved as a great place for diamond processing, according to the industry body.

Government Initiatives

India is emerging as a huge consumer market for jewellery and other luxury products and thereby appears as a very attractive opportunity for major brands to establish their presence in the Indian market. The booming domestic market along with export advantage of the industry and the Government's decision to review foreign direct investment (FDI) of up to 51 per cent in single brand retail stores has attracted various foreign players to the Indian market.

Foreign Direct Investment Policy

At present, the Indian government allows 100 per cent FDI in gems and jewellery through the automatic route.

For exploration and mining of diamonds and precious stones FDI is allowed up to 74 per cent under the automatic route.

For exploration and mining of gold and silver and minerals other than diamonds and precious stones, metallurgy and processing, FDI is allowed up to 100 per cent under the automatic route.

Foreign Trade Policy (2009-2014) Initiatives

Import of gold of 8 karat (k) and above is allowed under replenishment scheme subject to import being accompanied by an Assay Certificate specifying purity, weight and alloy content. Duty Free Import Entitlement [based on Free On Board (FOB) value of exports during previous financial year] of consumables and tools, for:

- o Jewellery made out of:
 - Precious metals (other than gold & platinum) - 2 per cent
 - Gold and platinum - 1 per cent
 - Rhodium finished silver - 3 per cent
 - Cut and polished diamonds - 1 per cent
- o Duty free import entitlement of commercial samples shall be US$ 6187.9.
- o Duty free re-import entitlement for rejected jewellery shall be 2 per cent of FOB value of exports.
- o Import of diamonds on consignment basis for certification/ grading & re- export by the authorised offices/ agencies of Gemological Institute of America (GIA) in India or other approved agencies will be permitted.
- o Personal carriage of gems and jewellery products in case of holding/participating in overseas exhibitions increased to US$ 5 million and to US$ 1 million in case of export promotion tours.
- o Extension in number of days for re-import of unsold items in case of participation in an exhibition in USA increased to 90 days.
- o In an endeavour to make India an international trading hub for diamond, it is planned to establish "Diamond Bourse(s)".

Road Ahead

The GJEPC is busy propagating the fineries of Indian gems and jewellery industry by organising road shows in Malaysia, Singapore, Jeddah, Riyadh, Korea and China. These road shows would assist in creating awareness about India International Jewellery Show (IIJS) and India International Jewellery Week (IIJW).

The India pavilion at the event held in JCK Las Vegas from June 1 to June 4, 2012, in the US had around 62 exhibitors from India. The exhibitors displayed an array of fine jewellery products carefully handpicked by the GJEPC from the finest and leading manufacturers and retailers in the country. The exhibitors were mostly from Surat (Gujarat), Mumbai and Delhi.

India's gems and jewellery industry is ready for the upcoming jewellery show in the US and expect to obtain huge export orders during 2012-13. "It is an opportunity to further accentuate India's growing recognition in the international arena as the global destination of gems and jewellery."

Future Outlook

Gems & jewellery sector to reach ₹ 2.13 lakh crore by 2015:

The gems and jewellery industry in India is likely to reach ₹ 2.13 lakh crore by 2015.

"Growing at a steady rate of 15 per cent the domestic gems and jewellery market is currently poised at ₹ 1.22 lakh crore," in a study titled 'Current Trends in Indian Gems and Jewellery Sector'.

Sought feedback from around 1,500 key retailers, manufacturers, wholesalers throughout the country including branded players from all verticals of the industry - gold, diamonds, silver and gemstones. The study was carried out between March-June.

The growth in the industry is spurred by its rising constant demand as jewellery is considered a trusted store of value in possession and a large number of Indian consumers approve of it as a safe investment option, said majority of industry bigwigs adding that demand is expected to rise further with onset of the annual festive season during August-October.

"Rising purchasing power, lifestyle changes and overall increasing affordability among Indian middle-class are significant reasons for higher jewellery demand."

Introduction of hallmarking and certifications has transformed the buying preferences as more youngsters can be seen buying jewellery as part of fashion accessory and are even parking their access funds as part of investments in this sector.

Availability of skilled artisans with expertise in jewellery making, designing and diamond cutting, processing at competitive wages is another reason for growth in this sector.

Conscious marketing efforts are also a reason for rapid increase in jewellery demand in India.

Number of people going online to buy jewellery has been rising. Traditional jewelers in India are realising the importance of internet in the contemporary world and providing hassle free shopping experience thereby luring customers from higher strata in large numbers.

"There are various online jewellery shops where customers can choose from a wide variety of items and place an order from the luxury of their home and get it delivered at their doorstep, this trend is catching up fast due to increasing internet penetration and availability of top-notch broadband services."

Exports of gems and jewellery from India are rising at over 15 per cent year-on-year basis and are expected to cross 50 billion dollars by the end of this fiscal.

Demand in the sector is flowing from countries like the UAE, the United States, the European Union, Russia, Latin America Hong Kong and China.

Growth in gems and jewellery is mainly driven by cut and polished diamonds market but China is emerging as a tough competitor as increasing number of diamond processors from various countries including India are setting up facilities in China considering factors like use of better technology, cheap and disciplined workforce, surge in number of Chinese consumers.

NOTE 23 : NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

I. Basis of accounting

The financial statements of the company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in India (Indian GAAP). The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention on a going concern basis. The accounting policies not specifically mentioned are consistent with generally accepted accounting principles.

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in India requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of financial statements and reported amounts of income and expenses during the period.

II. Presentation of financial statements

The Balance Sheet and the Statement of Profit and Loss are prepared and presented in the format prescribed in the Schedule VI to the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"). The Cash Flow Statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirement of Accounting Standard (AS)3 "Cash Flow Statements". The disclosure requirements with respect to items in the Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss, as prescribed in the Schedule VI to the Act, are presented by the way of notes forming part of accounts along with the other notes required to be disclosed under the notified Accounting Standards and the Listing Agreement.

III. Fixed Assets

Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Cost of acquisition is inclusive of freight, duties and other incidental expenses incurred during construction period and exclusive of CENVAT credited.

The assets acquired on hire purchase basis are stated at their cash value. The interest paid with the installments is being charged to the revenue.

IV. Depreciation

The depreciation on fixed assets has been provided on Written Down Value Method on Pro rata basis at the rates specified in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956. Leasehold land is being amortised over the period of lease.

V. Closing Stock

i. Raw materials are valued at cost.

ii. Finished Goods are stated at lower of the cost or net realisable value.

iii. Stores items purchased are treated as consumed in the year of purchase.

Investments are either classified as current or long term based on the management intention at the time of purchase.

Current Investment are carried at the lower of cost or market value. The comparison of cost and market value is done separately in respect of each category of investments.

IX. Taxation

Current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year. Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences, being the difference between taxable income and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is reasonable certainty of realisation in future.

X. Earning Per Share

The basic earning per share (EPS) is computed by dividing the net profit after tax for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the current year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earning per share, net profit after tax and the weighted number of equity shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.
