MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

Industry Scenario

Global Pulp and Paper industry made strenuous efforts to realign production with reduced demand in the wake of economic meltdown in the previous year. As a result, through the year, there was slow and steady improvement in Pulp prices initially, and Paper prices later on.

Towards later part of the year, inclement weather in US/Europe, and thereafter Earthquake in Chile, resulted in less pulp production and consequently a sharp increase in Pulp and Paper prices. Volumes however shown lower.

After witnessing slowdown during 2008-09, the Indian economy entered a recovery phase. The index for industrial production recorded a robust growth and business confidence continued to inch up as the year progressed.

Domestic Paper Industry, however continued to feel the impact of global melt down and local capacity build up. Added to these was increase in price of raw materials particularly in the Northern Region. Fuel oil prices also almost doubled from the 2008-09 bottom levels.

Recent upturn in the global markets has enabled the local industry to improve realisations and partly offset cost increases.

Growth Opportunities

A prompt stimulus package put together by Government of India cushioned the impact of global developments and led to a quick turn around. Recent surveys point to an improvement in business sentiments and prospects of further acceleration in economic activities in the near term. Nevertheless with India's increasing integration with the global economy, we are more susceptible to the volatilities in the world market. Although the Global outlook is more assuring than it was a few months ago, uncertainty about the shape and pace of global recovery persists.

SWOT Analysis

Strengths

Demand growth is expected to gain further momentum with the economy poised for a sustained growth in near term.

Weakness

Cost of Fibre, Fuel and Capital are major constraints for the industry. Some large capacity additions are also in pipe line.

Opportunities

With rising literacy levels and sustained economic growth, per capita consumption of paper is expected to increase.

Threats

There is still debate among the Economists about Global Economic recovery. Debt crisis in some of the European countries has led to further uncertainty. Domestic Economic growth has led to steep inflation in input prices and the end of this trend does not seem imminent in near term.

Social farm forestry

Social Farm Forestry activity continued to grow with the pace built up in the past. Cumulative area planted by the farmers with your company's support increased to more than 75,000 Hectare.

This initiative will help to mitigate the increasing pressures on wood supply caused by rapid demand growth.

Risks & Concerns

The paper industry uses wood, wood pulp, waste paper and agri residues as raw material. As most of the raw materials are in short supply, their price continues to increase

Macro-economic factors like global financial turmoil, economic slowdown, sluggish demand conditions, unforeseen political and social developments, natural calamities may affect the business of the company as also of the industry at large.

Internal Control System

Based on the nature of business and size of operations, the Company's internal control system has been designed to provide for:

- Accurate recording of transactions with internal checks and prompt reporting
- Adherence to applicable accounting standards and policies
- Review of capital investments and long term business plans
- Periodic review meetings to manage effectively all working capital elements
- Compliance with applicable statutes, policies, listing requirements, and operating guidelines of the company
- Effective use of resources and safeguard of asset

Financial Performance

The financial year 2009 -10 was a quite tough year. The year witnessed global as well as domestic market melting down. The demand across all the industries took a beating, the price dipped and on the other hand raw material and fuel oil price continued to move northwards. These factors had a negative impact on company's top and bottom lines. The company ended up the year with a profit before tax of Rs.662 lakhs on a net sales of Rs. 25127 lakhs.

Human Resources

Your Company employs the required work force for the smooth functioning in the organisation at all levels. The company also from time to time undertakes & imparts training programs to enhance the working skills of the employee according to the needs of the organisation thereby contributing in the growth of the company. The company consistently recruits, develops and employs suitably qualified, capable and experienced people

Future Outlook

Government emphasis on the elementary and technical education and investment in educational infrastructure coupled with increase in share of service sector in GDP is likely to accelerate the growth of paper consumption.

Forward Looking Statements

The Management Discussion & Analysis Report contains forward looking statements based upon the data available with the company, assumptions with regard to global economic conditions, the Government policies etc. The company can not guarantee the accuracy of the assumptions and perceived performance of the company in future. Therefore, it is cautioned that the actual results may materially differ from those expressed or implied in the report.

17. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

I. Accounting Policies

i) Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the provision of the Companies Act, 1956 and accounting standards notified vide Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006. Accounting policies unless specifically stated to be otherwise, are consistent and are in consonance with generally accepted accounting principles.

ii) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the period. Contingencies are recorded when it is probable that a liability will be incurred and the amounts can reasonably be estimated. Difference between the actual results and the estimates are recognised in the period in which the results become known/materialise.

iii) Fixed Assets

- a) Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition/construction. Cost includes borrowing cost and pre-operative expenses as allocated to the fixed assets.
- b) Capital Work-in-progress includes Machinery to be installed, Construction and Erection Materials, Advances etc.

iv) Investments

Long-term investments are stated at cost less provisions, if any, for diminution in the values thereof, other than temporary.

v) Inventories

- a) Inventories are valued at cost or estimated net realisable value whichever is lower. The value of inventories other than raw materials is determined on weighted average basis. The value of raw materials is determined by first in first out method. Cost of raw materials includes expenses incurred for procuring the same. Cost in respect of finished goods, stock in process and wrapper represents manufacturing cost and does not include interest, selling and distribution and certain administrative overheads.
- b) Customs duty on materials in bond and excise duty on finished goods lying in the factory as at the period-end is considered as cost for valuation of stocks.

vi) Impairment

Fixed Assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date for impairment. In case events and circumstances indicate any impairment, recoverable amount of fixed assets is determined. An impairment loss is recognised, whenever the carrying amounts of assets exceeds recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of assets net selling price or its value in use. In assessing the value in use, the estimated future cash flows from the use of assets are discounted to their present value at appropriate rate. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been change in the recoverable amount and such loss either no longer exists or has decreased. Impairment loss/reversal thereof is adjusted to the carrying value of the respective assets.

vii) Foreign Exchange Transactions and Derivatives

Transactions in foreign currencies are accounted for at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities at the period end are translated using closing exchange rates. The loss or gain thereon and also on the exchange differences on settlement of foreign currency transactions during the period are recognised as income or expenses and are adjusted to the profit and loss account under respective heads of accounts.

Exchange differences arising with respect to forward contracts other than those entered into, to hedge foreign currency risk on unexecuted firm commitments or of highly probable forecast transactions are recognized in the period in which they arise and the difference between the forwards rate and exchange rate at the date of transaction is recognized as income/expense over the life of the contract.

Keeping in view the announcement of Institute of Chartered Accountants of India dated March 29, 2008 regarding accounting for derivatives, mark to market losses on all other derivatives contracts (other than forward contracts dealt as above) outstanding as at the year end, are recognized in the accounts.

viii) Revenue Recognition

- a) Revenue is being recognised on accrual basis.
- b) All expenses, claims, interest on overdue debts/demands and other incomes to the extent ascertainable and considered payable or receivable as the case may be, have been accounted for.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognised in the year when they arise.

xi) Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition/construction of fixed assets are capitalised as part of the assets. Other borrowing costs are recognised as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

xii) Depreciation

a) Depreciation has been provided for as per Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956, on written down value method and in respect of plant and machinery acquired on or after 01.04.76, on straight-line method. Certain plants have been considered as continuous process plants on technical evaluation.

xiii) Taxation

Provision for tax is made for both current and deferred taxes. Current tax is provided on the taxable income using the applicable tax rates and tax laws. Deferred tax assets and liabilities arising on account of timing differences, which are capable of reversal in subsequent periods are recognised using tax rates and tax laws, which have been enacted or substantively enacted. Deferred tax assets other than in respect of carried forward losses or unabsorbed depreciation are recognised only to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets will be realized. In case of carry forward of unabsorbed depreciation and tax losses, deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is "virtual certainty" that such deferred tax assets can be realized against future taxable profits.

xiv) Provision, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets
