MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

OVERVIEW OF BEARING INDUSTRY:

The Indian bearing market comprises of ball and roller bearings which is estimated to be of Rs. 66 billion in size. The said bearing market can be primarily divided into two sectors viz. 'Automotive' and 'Industrial'. Each of these segments may further be sub divided into 'OEM' and 'end user'. The organized bearing sector contributes to about 65% of the total market size. Of the total domestic demand, about 85% are met through import route.

The bearing industry can further be classified based on the rolling element used in the bearings, into basic bearing family categories, like deep groove ball bearings, tapered roller bearings, cylindrical roller bearings, spherical roller bearings, needle roller bearings, etc. and other special kind of bearings for specific applications. The major user of bearings in India is OEM followed by automobile segment consumers. Bearings are used in many user industry segments such as Automotive, Agricultural machinery, Defense, General engineering, Infrastructure, Cement, Off-Road vehicles, Power, Railways, Steel, Machine tools, Material Handling, to name a few.

During the period April – December 2010, India's GDP growth averaged at 8.6 % with quarterly development as follows:

Industrial Production during April - December 2010 also rose by 8.6%. Developments in Mining, Manufacturing and Electricity sectors were placed at 7.7%, 9.1% and 4.7% respectively.

The Automotive industry saw one of the strongest periods of demand in 2010.

STRENGTH:

The Directors are well experienced and technically qualified with well succession plan. The Company is in this line of business for more than 32 years and enjoys its brand name in the market. The Company has wide market network with established customer base. The Company is able to obtain skilled workmen at comparatively lower cost. The Company is profit making one and self performance is improving year after year.

OPPORTUNITIES:

Indian GDP growth slowed down to 8.2% in the third quarter of 2010. However, the same is expected to exceed 8.5% during 2010-11, while it is likely to be around 8.5% during 2011-12. The growth trends in automotive industry remain positive at about 12 to 15 per cent in 2011 and the prospect for growth in the said industry will range from moderate to good in 2011-12.

A steady growth in educated young population in India, expansion of middle class and trickle down effects of overall prosperity in rural areas, are good indicators of inclusive economic growth. The need for effective and efficient transportation both personal and public will rise more rapidly than before. At the same time, the 'value consciousness' of Indian middle class will mean that market growth will be mainly focused in areas of motorcycles and small cars segments at least during the medium term.

A large number of public and private investment programs in power sector manifest Indian government's priority to this sector. Renewable energy too shows a lot of potential in the medium and long term.

Overall prospects for industrial development thus remain very positive in India and it seems that the strong demand for bearing products will continue in the coming times. The inflationary force on the economy is a great concern requiring urgent corrective steps to tame the inflation.

THREATS:

Overall global scenario presents a mixed picture. Impact of political situation in Egypt and Libya on global economies is severe. Tragic consequences of destruction in Japan due to earthquake and tsunami are still unclear, but it is clear that it will certainly influence the Indian Economy.

Oil prices always remain an issue of concern.

Inflationary trends in Indian economy remain unwarranted. Rising input cost is a major concern that leads to uncertainty in the growth.

Consistent increase in the Steel prices poses a pressure on the cost and margin to bearing manufacturers.

Cheap imports from China and South East Asian countries have shown an increasing trend, causing depression in the domestic consumption and pressure on your company's margin.

The counterfeiting of the bearings is the biggest bane to the industry. These spurious products affect the business and the brand image. These spurious bearings mainly caters to the replacement market which is price sensitive. Your Company is taking steps to curtail the spurious trade by improved packaging, creating awareness among the consumers, protecting "AECL" brand and such necessary actions.

SEGMENT WISE PERFORMANCE:

The Company has primarily two segments of activities, namely, 'Bearings' and 'Power'. Their present performance and future prospects have been given separately in Directors' Report.

The Company has a sound system of internal controls for financial reporting of various transactions, and compliance with relevant laws, rules and regulations. The Company has well documented policies procedures and authorisation guidelines commensurate with the level of responsibility and standard operating procedures specific to the business.

BUSINESS STRATEGY AND OUTLOOK:

AECL is the leading manufacturer of all types of anti-friction bearings and it offers wide range of bearings to the different categories of buyers, like Automobiles, Defense, State Road Transport Corporation, steel plants, thermal plants, cement plants, sugar and paper industries, fan and pump, gear box, agro-machinery industries and material handling equipments.

Recent data of Indian Economy manifest fast getting back to growth trajectory. It seems private and public investment in new project will certainly increase the demand as the basic confidence improves.

At the Company level, the majority of the product range is import substitutes and there is likelihood to increase our sale on export front. A number of initiative for strict cost control and improving efficiency and production at all levels have been taken, which is expected to further enhance the performance of the Company in the years to come.

At the core of AECL, technical up gradation and advancement is a perpetual effort soliciting involvement of the top management which itself endeavors to encourage new development, continuous quality improvement and strong desire to prove that our technology is proficient to compete with any top technologically advanced organization and thus, resulting in unshakeable customer confidence in India and abroad for AEC bearings.

The Company is trying to focus on sharpening its competitiveness and offering a product mix which is totally market driven.

The Company restricts its export domain only to the most quality-conscious market like the United States and European Union which accounts majority of its revenue. We have 100% subsidiary in the USA which also acts as a marketing front end. We manufacture bearings for demanding applications. It is among a handful of customized bearing manufacturers worldwide producing bearings of 1800mm diameter.

Ours special bearing range includes:

1. Steel Plant bearings
2. Mining Equipment.
3. Material handling equipment.
4. Bearings for cement, sugar, paper and other continuous process industry
5. Special bearings for high speed heavy duty turbines (used in power plants)
6. Oilfield applications

In accordance with the accounting standard 26 "Intangible assets" issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, intangible assets are amortised as follows:

- (a) Considering the legal rights are renewable, renewal is virtually certain and economic benefits to be derived, the useful life of 50 years of Trademark is estimated by the Management and hence the Cost of Trademark is amortised over 50 years. For the year Rs. 8,17,220/- (Previous year Rs. 8,17,220/-) is charged to profit & loss account.

11. Forward contract in foreign currencies - Hedging and Derivatives :

The Company uses foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge its exposure to movement in foreign exchange rates for cash flow. The use of these foreign exchange forward contracts reduce the risk or cost to the company and the company does not use those for trading or speculation purposes .

Effective from June 1, 2008, the Company adopted AS - 30, " Financial Instruments : Recognition and Measurement", to the extent that the adoption did not conflict with existing accounting standards and other authoritative pronouncements of the Company Law and other regulatory requirements.

The Company records the gain or loss on effective hedges, if any, in the Hedging Reserve Account until the transaction are complete. On completion, the gain or loss is transferred to the Profit and Loss Account of that period. To designate a forward contract as an effective hede, the management objectively evalutes evidence with appropriate supporting documents at the inception of each contract whether the contract is effective in achieving offsetting cash flows attributable to the hedged risk . In the absence of a designation as effective hedge, a gain or loss is recognized in the Profit and Loss Account. Currently hedge undertaken by the Company are all ineffective in nature and the resultant gain or loss consequent to fair valuation is recognized in the profit and Loss Account at each reporting date.

The company has outstanding foreign exchange forward contract aggregating Rs. NIL (Previous year Rs. 3.59) Crores. Although this contract is effective as hedge from an economic perspective , they do not qulify for hedge accounting due to ineffectiveness in nature and accordingly these are accounted as derivatives instruments at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in the Profit and Loss Account.

Exchange Loss of Rs. 32,87,323/- (Previous Year Exchange Loss Rs. 1,35,98,654/-) on foreign exchange forward contracts has been recognized in the year ended March 31, 2011.

At each balance sheet date, the carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed to re-assure realisation.

[xiii] Derivative instruments and hedge accounting

The company uses foreign exchange forwards contracts to hedge its exposure to movements in foreign exchange rate. This foreign exchange forward contracts is not used for trading or speculation purposes. The accounting policies for forward contracts is based on whether it meet the criteria for designation as effective cash flow hedges. To designate the forward contract as an effective cash flow hedge, the company objectively evaluates with appropriate supporting documentation at the inception of the each contract whether the contract is effective in achieving offsetting cash flows attributable to the hedged risk. Effective hedge is generally measured by comparing the cumulative change in the fair value of the hedge contracts with a cumulative change in the fair value of the hedged item.

For forward contracts that are designated as effective cash flow hedges, the gain or loss from the effective portion of the hedge is recorded and reported directly in the share holders' fund (under the head "hedging reserve") and are reclassified into the profit & loss account upon the occurrence of the hedged transactions.

The company recognizes gains or losses from changes in fair value of forward contracts that are not designated as effective cash flow hedges for accounting purposes in the profit and loss account in the period the fair value changes occur.

2. Contingent liabilities not provided for in respect of :

3. BUY BACK OF SHARES

Up to March 31, 2010, the Company had bought back and extinguished total 53,200 equity shares of Rs. 10 each at an average price of Rs. 54.99 per share, utilizing a sum of Rs. 29,35,463/- (inclusive of brokerage and applicable taxes total amount Rs.9,869/- The amount of Rs.23,93,594/- paid towards buy back of shares, in excess of the face value, had been charged to General Reserve Account. The Company had also transferred Rs 5,32,000/-from free reserves to Capital Redemption Reserve Account, which represents the nominal value of shares bought back during the year.

4. Forward contract in foreign currencies – Hedging and Derivatives :

The company uses foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge its exposure to movement in foreign exchange rates for cash flow. The use of these foreign exchange forward contracts reduce the risk or cost to the Company and the Company does not use those for trading or speculation purposes.

Effective June 1, 2008, the company adopted AS - 30, "Financial Instruments : Recognition and Measurement", to the extent that the adoption did not conflict with existing accounting standards and other authoritative pronouncements of the Company Law and other regulatory requirements.

The Company records the gain or loss on effective hedges, if any, in the Hedging Reserve Account until the transactions are complete. On completion, the gain or loss is transferred to the Profit and Loss account of that period. To designate a forward contract as an effective hedge, the Management objectively evaluates evidence with appropriate supporting documents at the inception of each contract whether the contract is effective in achieving offsetting cash flows attributable to the hedged risk. In the absence of a designation as effective hedge, a gain or loss is recognized in the Profit and Loss account. Currently hedge undertaken by the Company are all ineffective in nature and the resultant gain or loss consequent to fair valuation is recognized in the Profit and Loss account at each reporting date.

The Company has outstanding foreign exchange forward contract aggregating Rs. NIL. (Previous year Rs. 3.59 Crores). Although this contract is effective as hedge from an economic perspective, they do not qualify for hedge accounting due to ineffectiveness in nature and accordingly these are accounted as derivatives instruments at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in the Profit and Loss Account.

Exchange Loss of Rs. 32,87,323/- (Previous Year exchange Loss Rs. 1,35,98,654/-) on foreign exchange forward contracts has been recognized in the year ended March 31, 2011.
