Chairman's overview

We are in the right place and right time with the right products to enhance value for our stakeholders

Dear shareholders,

The principal message that I intend to communicate is that the Indian real estate sector is at an inflection point.

For decades, the country's real estate sector was largely unorganised. Then there came a time a couple of decades ago, when the sector began to graduate from the unorganised to the organised. This began with the industry extending from design and development of standalone residential buildings to gated complexes. As gated complexes kept becoming larger and spreading across India, the companies engaged in their development began to evolve as well. They began to get larger, more brand-oriented and professionalised, laying the foundation for India's organised real estate sector.

Some of the most visible manifestations of India's organised real estate sector comprised superior branding, process standardisation, qualitative consistency, sophisticated design and timely delivery, resulting in customer delight.

One of the biggest changes that the organised real estate sector inspired was the embrace of complete cheque payments. Earlier, the real estate sector would be marked by opaque practices. With an increasing number of players turning completely professional, sectoral credibility increased. Even though unorganised players continued to exist, the reality was that the segregation had become all too apparent: the larger and responsible players from the sector conducted their business credibly and documented all their practices – setting a benchmark for the rest.

Introduction of RERA

Even as the business was gravitating from the unorganised to the organised players within the sector, a big transition transpired in 2016 when the Indian Government proposed the implementation of the Real Estate Regulation and Development Act (RERA), from 1 May 2017 onwards.

However, the lead-up to this crucial development needs to be explained. Even as real estate represented the largest consumer-based asset class in India, there virtually was no sectoral governance framework in place. The result was that promoters could launch projects with a number of municipal approvals pending; the proceeds paid by buyers for the purchase of apartments would be allocated to buy other properties; the design configuration of properties would be changed following sale, thereby compromising the customer's interests and finally there was no scope of punitive action against project completion delay.

The result of these inequities was that while the branded and professional real estate builders followed the rules that they had formulated, the others continued flouting them. The arrival of RERA transformed prevailing dynamics; it created only one kind of company in the sector – the organised. By raising the bar across every conceivable parameter – land acquisition, offering, design, sale and post-sale – the Central Government (through RERA) offered India's most expensive asset class the kind of respect it deserves.

The result is that with a stroke of the pen, the unorganised segments were brought under the fold of the organised. There is now a level playing field for all. This means that the rules that apply to the large apply to the small as well; nobody is exempt.

Sectoral implication

What does this mean for the real estate sector? In my mind, it means three significant things.

One, a number of the small players, who cannot comply with the stringent RERA requirements, will exit the sector.

Two, the number of apartments being built will lessen considerably as real estate players align themselves with the demanding requirements of RERA. This could, in turn, strengthen real estate realisations – for the first time in years – boosting the profitability of serious long-term players.

Three, one might see a growing incidence of mergers; the weaker players who own land would prefer to partner the process-driven larger players, resulting in a win-win proposition.

Preparedness

At Poddar Housing and Development Limited, we believe that we stand to benefit considerably following the implementation of RERA. We possess a large land bank, a low gearing, a regular inflow of cash from our existing projects and a host of officially-cleared projects on the verge of launch during the current year.

As our new project implementation accelerates during the current financial year, we believe that we will be in a position to bag larger land deals and forge strategic partnerships, which could make our growth attractive and sustainable. Consequently, I believe that Poddar Housing and Development Limited is in the right place, and right time and with the right products in the right location to enhance stakeholder value.

Management review

“We believe that our financial foundation will empower us to emerge as one of the most attractive mid-sized real estate development companies and one of the largest in the affordable space in India across the foreseeable future.”

Rohitashwa Poddar

Managing Director, explains the backdrop to the Company's performance of FY2016-17

Q

Were you pleased with the working of the Company during the year under review?

A

This is a question whose answer needs to be patiently explained. The Company took a conscious decision to slow its business and scale it only when the sector regained complete clarity.

During the year under review, the business was affected by the announcement of RERA, significantly raising the sector's compliance standards. The year under review was also marked by demonetisation, affecting consumer sentiment and creating raising expectations of a meltdown in real estate prices, postponing fresh spending. Lastly, the prospective implementation of the GST created uncertainties regarding tax rates, deferring purchases.

The combination of these realities affected the consumer mood and convinced serious long-term players like us that it would be better to not do any business rather than engage in bad business during the year under review.

Were there any positive developments during the year under review?

A

The positive was clearly the fact that the Company resisted the temptation to market apartments during the year. Our conscious decision to not engage in business represented a validation of our de-risked approach. It is one thing to claim that we possess a de-risked business model; it is another to be able to leverage our system of checks and balances to consciously walk away from business. However, let me reiterate that the business that we seemingly 'lost' will soon be recouped during the latter part of this financial year when all the projects that were deferred are launched.

Q

What were the technical reasons that convinced the Company that deferment would be the best alternative?

Take the GST for instance. At our Company, we figured that when we marketed our apartments in the early part of the year, the customer was reconciled to paying taxes at a certain rate. We reckoned that in the event that the Central Government raised the tax rates applicable for the sector following the implementation of the GST, then the customer would be reluctant to pay more. We foresaw that this could adversely affect their ability to pay their subsequent installments in a timely manner. The result: our cash flow and project progression would be impeded. Subsequently, we took a conscious call to launch projects only after there was a complete clarity regarding the implementation of the GST. Looking ahead, we expect to make up for lost time by launching a number of projects during the second half of the current financial year.

Q

How did the impending RERA affect the launch of projects?

A

As soon as the implications of RERA were evident across the country's real estate sector, the slowdown in apartment launch became evident. There was a general apprehension that one would have to remove one's promotions until one had registered the project with RERA;

besides, there was uncertainty about whether one would be able to register one's apartment in this nebulous environment. The result was that out of 10,000 real estate projects in Mumbai alone, only 45 applications were submitted for clearance and only two were approved in the space of 45 days after RERA was implemented. Besides, clarifications coming from the authorities were slow. The result is that the sector lost a precious year; for the company, the year under review proved to be a virtual write-off.

Q

What challenges did the Company face in the wake of the demonetisation?

A

The implementation of the demonetisation initiative created a new kind of scare. Virtually every media outlet in the country hinted at a sharp 30% decline in real estate realisations. The argument was that since the sector was fundamentally driven by cash transactions, a cash squeeze of this magnitude would cause prices to tumble. Ultimately, this never quite happened. However, what did transpire was that apartment transactions virtually came to a standstill across the country as buyers chose to wait it out until prices corrected. The price correction never did materialise, despite the predictions made by the media. At a time when people did not have sufficient cash to buy groceries, it would have been presumptuous to expect that they would go out and buy an apartment.

How did the Company respond to this situation?

A

Here I must remind our readers of a statement made in last year's annual report. We had readied 11 projects for launch in Mumbai – fully-expensed in terms of land acquisition costs and pre-launch activities. And yet, these projects could not be launched because regulatory changes meant that we did not receive the requisite clearances from the municipal corporations. We took a conscious decision to delay these projects until the regulatory scenario was sorted.

Now, we intend to launch these projects during the current financial year. Therefore, it would be relevant for shareholders to see our ₹111.09 lac in profit after tax in a more favourable light and appreciate the robustness of our business model.

How does the Company intend to make up for the lost time?

A

The Company intends to launch six projects during the second half of the current financial year with a revenue-earning potential of ₹2,000 crore over the next 3-5 years. We believe that there is a market waiting for these launches in the affordable segment of Mumbai's real estate sector. Following the introduction of the interest subsidy scheme in the 2017 Union Budget, we believe that demand for apartments in the affordable segment will finally live up to their potential. We believe that our Company is attractively placed to capitalise on this shift in sectoral mood as a large chunk of apartment portfolio falls under this category.

With no launches in the last financial year, how did the Company keep itself productively and gainfully engaged?

The Company recognised that the delay in project approvals was a blessing in disguise. The Company utilised the time to strengthen its management bandwidth. We commissioned our new ERP covering all the functions of the Company that will make it possible for us to exercise excellent concurrent control across our various operating sites, moderate costs and enhance productivity. The Company strengthened recruitment across its management team as well as trained and prepared for the launches that we expect will happen in the second half of the current year. In view of these initiatives, we believe that our Company is attractively growth-ready and should be able to capitalise on the emerging environment.

What are the strengths that the Company brings to this emerging business opportunity?

I need to communicate to shareholders that even as the year under review proved challenging, we continued to stay liquid. We finished the year with ₹62.41 crore on our books. We believe that sectoral troughs throw up some of the most attractive opportunities and it is up to us to capitalise on them. Consequently, we chose to strengthen our land bank at a time when some pricey Mumbai pockets turned affordable. I must assure shareholders that even as we continue to stay opportunity-responsive, we will continue acquiring land parcels at prices no higher than 10% of our eventual selling price. We believe that this will moderate holding costs before we can monetise the land parcel, strengthening our business sustainability.

I must assure shareholders that even as we continue to stay opportunity-responsive, we will continue acquiring land parcels at prices no higher than 10% of our eventual selling price.

Q What were some of the positives to have emerged during the fiscal gone by?

A As a sales-focused company, we cleared our entire finished apartment inventory by the fourth quarter of FY2016-17 and maximised revenues. Now that the entire inventory is cleared, we are in a position to look ahead and focus afresh on marketing projects that are in the pipeline, waiting to be launched.

Q What can shareholders look forward to?

A Shareholders can look forward to some aggressive growth. There used to be a time when the Company would be pleased to launch one project a year. The time has come when we are looking to launch six projects in just six months followed by another six in FY2018-19. We believe that this throughput will keep us engaged for the next few years and usher attractive growth across the foreseeable future.

Q The big question is whether the aggressive launch of 12 projects over the next 18 months (starting from the second half of the current financial year) might affect the Company's Balance Sheet robustness.

A The dangers of our business are not derived from an absence of buyers. They are derived from pursuing aggressive growth beyond our financial capacity. The first thing I want to communicate to shareholders is that we engaged in safe, predictable and sustainable growth and will continue doing so. We would like to carry on working with a Balance Sheet that has low debt and no audit qualifications. The big message that I want to send out is that we intend to scale the business without compromising our financial integrity. We believe that the speed with which we market projects will strengthen our cash flows and accelerate new project deployment. We expect to work with a Balance Sheet that is working capital- negative and under-borrowed. We believe that this financial foundation will empower us to emerge as one of the most attractive mid-sized real estate development companies as well as one of the largest in the affordable space in India over the foreseeable future.

Trusted brand

The Company designs apartments and residential complexes on the back of a thorough understanding of the aspirations and needs of prospective customers. The Company is known for its innovative designs, construction pace, high-end technologies and access to low-cost land (through direct purchases from farmers, joint development agreements, SRA schemes).

Affordability focus

The Company focuses on affordable residential opportunities priced under ₹15 lac in and around Mumbai (within 50 kilometres and not more than two hours from Mumbai's CBD), including Karjat, Kalyan, Shahpur, Badlapur, Vasai, Goregaon, Kandivali, Vidyavihar, Chembur and Ghatkopar.

Apartment design

The Company's housing complexes are flanked by large open spaces to enhance community engagement and best-in-class amenities. These resized apartments score high on the efficient utilisation of available space.

Customer servicing

The Company has extended beyond offering products to servicing clients. For instance, the Company offers a regular shuttle service to the nearest local railway station and arranges the financial support of banks and other financial institutions to facilitate apartment purchase. As a means to this end, the Company has established dedicated customer care centres.

End-to-end presence

The Company created three sub-brands – Swakam, Ananta and Spraha – that address the gamut of customers across the value chain, facilitating graduation to premier in-house brands for aspirational customers.

Robust management

The Company obtains regulatory approvals on schedule, continuously communicates with sub contractors, and keeps a check on key parameters (material management, waste management, safety and quality control). Moreover, it markets and sells properties in sync with construction schedules.

Prudent outsourcing

The Company outsources key personnel (architects and contractors), and chooses to focus on its core business.

High-end technology

The Company invests extensively in automation (Mivan and In Situ technologies) to accelerate project progress.

Substantial landbank

The Company has expanded its landbank via ownership, joint development and joint venture models.

Sales approach

The Company staggers its sales by providing only as much as the market can bear. It completes a part of a project and prices apartments accordingly.

The quicker the construction pace, the greater is the possibility of generating sizeable realisations.

Short gestation

The Company commercialises properties with speed and utilises the resultant cash flow to invest in other land banks. Usually, the Company completes its projects within two to three years.

Investment advantage

The Company received Rs.125 crore via a QIP in FY2014-15; 50% of this was invested in buying land parcels and joint ventures for land parcels development as on 31st March 2017.

Outcome

The Company has made a name for itself by erecting showpiece projects that not only improve realisations but also enhance neighbourhood profiles.

The Company's 'pin code transformer' identity was reinforced when it was bestowed the 'Most Promising Brand' award in the real estate category in 2014 by the World Consulting and Research Corporation (WCRC), Process Advisors and Evaluators – Ernst & Young. Looking ahead, the Company is poised to capitalise on the incipient affordable housing opportunity.

Indian economy

India's GDP grew at 7.1% in FY2016-2017 versus a revised 8% (7.9% as per previous estimate) growth number in FY2015-2016. India's GDP growth in the January-March quarter was lower than China's 6.9% over the same period. Demonetisation had a pronounced broad-based impact on the economy in the fourth quarter. Despite a sequential slowdown, agriculture and mining sectors reported robust consumption. Manufacturing, construction and major services were hit by the currency squeeze, pulling down real gross domestic product (GDP) growth in Q4 of FY2016-2017 to 6.1% from 7%. The lower-than-expected real GDP growth in Q4 of FY2016-2017 was also due to the firming of commodity prices, which hardened WPI. The GVA growth in Q4 of FY2016-2017 was pegged at just 5.6% as an unfavourable base impacted the estimate (GVA grew a robust 8.7% in Q4 of FY2015-2016). The GVA expansion slipped sharply to 6.6% in FY2016-2017 from 7.9% in FY2015-2016. Pertinently, although growth in real terms slipped in FY2016-2017, nominal GDP expansion touched 11% during the year against 9.9% in FY2015-2016, owing to higher inflation, especially at the wholesale level. With good monsoons, the agricultural sector posted a jump in growth as it expanded by 4.9% during FY2016-2017, compared with 0.7% recorded in the previous year. (Source: CSO)

Outlook

The growth estimate is dependent on the prediction of a normal monsoon this year along with the expectation of a boost in consumption demand, increased private sector activity and governmental spending. The nationwide rollout of the Goods and Services tax in Q2 of FY2017-18 is also expected to boost India's GDP by 0.25% to 0.5%. Consequently, the Indian economy is expected to grow by ~7.8% during FY2017-18. (Source: CARE ratings)

Indian real estate sector overview

India's real estate sector is one of the most attractive in terms of prospects, marked by a perpetual difference between demand and availability. Interestingly, while there is an excess of supply in urban premium apartments, there is a huge shortage in addressing the needs of the lower income housing segment (a segment referred to as 'affordable housing'). India was ranked fourth among the developing nations in Asia in terms of FDI inflows as per the World Investment Report, 2016 of the United Nations Conference for Trade and Development. The global capital flow into Indian real estate in 2016 stood at US$5.7 billion. India's Tier-I cities moved up to the 36th position in JLL's 2016 bi-annual Global Real Estate Transparency Index. The catalytic factors include structural reforms and a more liberalised FDI regime. Throughout 2016, the number of new residential project launches was lower than the units sold. With all the states staring at the approaching deadline to implement their versions of the RERA, most of them will definitely fall in line. This landmark law will enforce hitherto unprecedented transparency and accountability requirements with respect to the developers within the system, and do a lot to increase consumer confidence. Affordable housing in India is finally set to get the much-coveted infrastructure status. One crore houses are to be built in rural India by 2019, and this vital segment will now get to see cheaper sources of finance - including external commercial borrowings and re-financing of housing loans by National Housing Banks. (Source: Economic Times)

Demand drivers

Housing demand: Housing demand is driven by population growth. Between 2011 and 2021, India's population is projected to increase by ~12% to reach ~1.4 billion. This would translate into a housing demand of ~287 million units.

Growing urbanisation: As migration from rural areas to cities continues due to several reasons such as better job opportunities and education, the share of urban population in the urban-rural mix, which stood at about 31% in 2011, is expected to spike to ~ 37% in 2020.

Tax incentives: The Central Government has used tax regulations to promote the housing sector, including the provision of interest subsidy (6.5% for loans up to Rs.6 lac) for economically weaker sections and lower income groups; the provision of tax incentives for annual interest payments up to ₹2 lac (₹3 lac for senior citizens) on housing loans; the provision of deduction of principal repayment limit of up to Rs.1.5 lac on home loans under Section 80C of Income Tax Act, 1961 and exemption in capital gains accruing from transfer of residential property, if invested in acquiring a residential building within three years.

Governmental investments: Over the last decade, the economy has witnessed turbulent cycles including a major slowdown in 2008. While each subsequent Five Year Plan was based on the actual versus budgeted comparison (of the previous plan), the policy direction was linked to the local and global macro-economic scenarios. The budgetary outlay has quintupled between the 10th and 12th Five Year Plans. During the same period, the share of housing and urban development improved from 7% to 10%, clearly highlighting the Central Government's focus on the housing and urban development segment.

Sectoral development: Housing finance companies operating in the affordable housing space, with a total portfolio of ₹1.2 lac crore, continued to grow at a faster pace of 28%. The affordable housing growth is well supported by the increasing number of housing finance companies in the country.

Budgetary allocation: With a clear focus on affordable housing and homebuyers, the Union Budget 2017 proposed to assign infrastructure status to affordable housing projects and facilitate higher investments, in line with the Central Government's aim to provide 'Housing for All by 2022'. The National Housing Bank will refinance individual housing loans worth ₹20,000crore in FY2017-18. The allocation under the Pradhan Mantri Aawas Yojana-Gramin has also

Credit-linked subsidy scheme – a gamechanger

This scheme is applicable only for affordable housing loans availed by economically weaker sections and low income groups seeking housing loans from banks, housing finance companies and such other institutions. Under the scheme, the Central Government will give an interest subsidy of 4% on housing loans of up to ₹9 lac for those with an income of ₹12 lac per year. As the CLSS scheme came into an effect from January 1, 2017, those who were sanctioned home loans and whose applications are under consideration since beginning of the year will be eligible for interest subsidy of up to ₹2.35 lac. This scheme is likely to boost the demand for affordable housing.

increased to ₹23,000 crore from last year's ₹15,000 crore. (Source: Livemint)

Outlook

The Indian real estate market is expected to touch US$ 180 billion by 2020 growing at a CAGR of 11.2%. Growth will be backed by increased NRI investments over the medium-term. Bengaluru is expected to be the most favoured property investment destination for NRIs, followed by Ahmedabad, Pune, Chennai, Goa and Delhi. Retail, hospitality and commercial real estate will also grow significantly in line with the increased demand for infrastructure. Mumbai is considered to be the most attractive city in India for commercial real estate investment, with returns of 12-19% likely in the next five years, followed by Bengaluru and Delhi-NCR.

Governmental initiatives

The Government of India, along with several State Governments, has taken numerous initiatives to encourage developments in the sector. The Smart Cities initiative, which plans to build 100 'Smart Cities', has unleashed opportunities for real estate companies. Some of the other major initiatives undertaken by governmental bodies are mentioned below:

- The Ministry of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation sanctioned the construction of 84,460 affordable houses for the urban poor in West Bengal, Jharkhand, Punjab, Kerala and Manipur under the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban) with a total investment of ₹3,073 crore (US$ 460 million)
- The Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs approved various measures to revive the construction sector, putting in place a mechanism to release funds to revive stalled projects.

- Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) introduced a single-window clearance for construction, which will cut the time taken for getting approvals to build projects and lead to an upward correction in prices of residential property, thereby giving a fillip to Mumbai's realty.
- The Rajya Sabha passed the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Bill, 2013, which aims to protect consumer interests, ensure efficiency in all property-related transactions, improve the accountability of real estate developers, increase transparency and attract more investments into the realty sector in India.
- The Indian Government approved the launch of 'Housing for All by 2022' mission. Under this, 30 million houses will be built in India by 2022, mostly for the economically-weaker sections and low-income groups, by leveraging PPPs and interest subsidies.
- SEBI announced the final regulations that will govern real estate investment trusts and infrastructure investment trusts. This move will ease fund access to cash-strapped developers and create a new investment avenue for institutions and high net worth individuals, and eventually ordinary investors.

RERA and its implications

The Real Estate Regulation Act, 2016 (RERA) was passed by the Parliament and the Union of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation, which allocated time till May 1, 2017, to formulate and notify the rules for its functioning. It seeks to bring clarity and fair practices that would protect the interests of the buyers and also impose penalties on errant builders. Some of the key provisions of RERA are:

- The promoter of a real estate development firm needs to maintain a separate escrow account for each project. A minimum 70% of the money from investors and buyers will need to be deposited. This money can only be used for project construction and the cost borne towards the land.
- To provide clarity to buyers, developers will need to keep them informed of their other ongoing projects.
- RERA requires builders to submit the original approved plans for their ongoing projects and the alterations that they made later. They also have to furnish details of the revenue collected from the allotted, how the funds were utilised, and the timeline for construction, completion, and delivery. This will also need to be certified by an engineer/architect/practicing chartered accountant.
- It will be the responsibility of each state regulator to register real estate projects and real estate agents operating in their state under RERA. The details of all registered projects will be put up on a website for public access.
- The regulator will ensure protection to buyers in this matter for five years from the date of possession. If any issue is highlighted by the buyers in front of the regulator in this period such as the quality of construction and the provision of services, the developer will have to rectify the same in a matter of 30 days.

- ❑ Developers cannot invite, advertise, sell, offer, market or book any plot, apartment, house, building, investment in projects, without first registering it with the regulatory authority. Following registration, all the advertisement inviting investment will need to bear the unique RERA registration number.
- ❑ After registering the project, developers will need to furnish details of their financial statements, legal title deed and supporting documents.
- ❑ If the promoter defaults on delivery within the agreed deadline, they will be required to return the entire money invested by the buyers along with the pre agreed interest rate mentioned in the contract based on the RERA contract model.
- ❑ If the buyer chooses not to take the money back, the builder will need to pay monthly interest on each delayed month to the buyer till the date of delivery.

The Company is at an advantageous position since it has already absorbed and implemented RERA practices since it went into business in 2011. Some of the Company's practices that are in alignment with the Act are as follows:

- ❑ It does not advertise or promote projects until all approvals have been obtained
- ❑ Its working capital discipline enables it to reinvest in projects and sustain ongoing projects on schedule leading to timely completion and handover
- ❑ It deposits proceeds of each project in specified escrow accounts
- ❑ It prominently announces the carpet area and super built-up area as proportion of the floor space covered by the project, enhancing buyer confidence

Risks and concerns

The Company is exposed to a variety of risks as a part of its daily operations. These risks are regularly identified and analysed so as to mitigate them in an effective manner.

Economic risk:

Poddar Housing's presence in the largely untapped affordable residential space bodes well for the Company considering the spate of initiatives undertaken by the Central Government to promote it.

Competition risk:

Poddar Housing has prudently chosen to be present in geographic pockets, which are largely devoid of organised players.

Accessibility risk:

Poddar Housing believes in locating its projects in close proximity to railway stations, which form the arterial network of Mumbai, thereby ensuring easy access to the CBD at relative speed.

Liquidity risk:

Poddar Housing has largely insulated itself from the credit squeeze in the realty sector by maintaining adequate levels of cash on its books and taking care of all working capital-related needs following project completion and handover.

Cost risk:

Poddar Housing undertakes a disciplinary approach when it comes to purchasing large tracts of land at pocket-friendly rates. It holds properties in the form of MoUs (as opposed to conveyance), insulating the Company from having to purchase contiguous tracts of land even at reasonably higher costs.

Environmental risk:

Poddar Housing employs a time-tested procedure when it comes to converting tracts that lie in 'green zones' into permitted areas for residential housing.

Compliance risk:

Poddar Housing has made a name for itself by guaranteeing stringent compliance with established norms.

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of PODDAR HOUSING AND DEVELOPMENT LIMITD ("the Company") as of 31st March 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Note 1 Significant accounting policies

A. Method of Accounting and Basis of preparation of Financial Statements

- a) The Company follows the mercantile system of accounting and recognizes income and expenditure on an accrual basis except in case of overdue interest from the customers where the recovery thereof is uncertain.
- b) Financial statements are based on historical cost. These costs are not adjusted to reflect the impact of the changing value in the purchasing power of money.
- c) The financial statements have been prepared in compliance with all material aspects with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.
- d) Accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Company and are consistent with those used in the previous year.

B. Use of Estimates

Actual results could differ from these estimates.

C. Fixed Assets and Depreciation

- b) Previously recognized impairment loss is increased or reversed depending on changes in circumstances. However the carrying value after reversal is not increased beyond the carrying value that would have prevailed by charging usual depreciation if there was no impairment.

E. Investments

Long-term Investments are valued at cost of acquisition (including cost of purchase, brokerage, and other related expenses incurred thereon). However, provision is made for any diminution in value, other than temporary, in which case the carrying value is reduced to recognize the decline and the same is being reversed when value of those investments is improved. Moreover, the amounts lying in the debit to account of certain customers, due to the difference in surrender value of the flat and rate at which it was originally booked, are being netted off from the aggregate credit of the customer's account and finally reduced from the sale value whenever revenue of such flats is recognized.

These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimates.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when the company has a possible obligation and it is probable that a cash outflow will not be required to settle the obligation.

MANAGEMENT’S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding company, its subsidiary company, and its jointly controlled entity, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (‘ICAI’). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to respective company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

AUDITORS’ RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

OPINION

In our opinion, the Holding Company, its subsidiary company and its jointly controlled entity, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

OTHER MATTERS

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting in so far as it relates to a jointly controlled entity, which is a company incorporated in India, being unaudited, is based on the certificate obtained from the management of the Holding Company.

Note 34 Pending Litigations against the Company

- In Case of Bhivpuri project, certain occupants and four societies out of 12 societies of the said project have filed criminal complaint against the Company in the matter of occupation certificate issued by the Gram panchayat in 2014, erroneously, claiming it should have been issued by the Collector. The Company states that these litigants are residents and societies from a large group of residents which have not paid huge past dues for maintenance to the Company and hence this is an unwarranted complaint. However to maintain its image and put the matter finally to rest, the Company has made necessary applications for re approval of the OC as required and also contesting the matter suitably in the concerned court. Further the Company is voluntarily providing certain additional facilities to the residents to pacify them in the matter. The total cost of the same is estimated at ₹100 lacs.
- The Company had received demand for additional payments of stamp duty in respect of Goregaon Land against Registrar document No.10117 dated 21-Dec-2013 of ₹19.70 lacs (Prev. Yr. ₹19.70 lacs) which is disputed by the Company. The same will be accounted for as and when the matter is settled.
- The Company has received a fresh demand dt.10 -Mar - 2017 towards open land tax in respect of Tisgaon land raised by the Kalyan Dombivali Municipal Corporation of ₹138.56 lacs after adjusting the payment (under protest) made in the earlier years. The balance amount will be accounted for as and when the matter is settled.

In addition to above, and as per the information available with the Company, there are no litigations pending against the Company which could have significant financial impact on the Company, except in the normal course of business.
