Management Discussion and Analysis Report

Management Discussion and Analysis Report for the financial year under review as stipulated in Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement

ECONOMY OVERVIEW

The global economy grew by 3.4% in 2014 as per the world economic outlook report by IMF released in April, 2015. Economies at global level are being challenged by both temporary weather-induced setbacks, and the dampening of confidence related to the fallout from Greece's latest debt struggle, and the renewed decline in global stock market valuations, especially in China. The World Economic Situation and Prospects 2014 had projected a higher growth in January 2014, but due to a number of factors, the current projection stands at 3.2% for 2015. Although there has been a gradual recovery in the economies of both developing and developed countries, the effects of the financial crisis of 2007-08 are still having an impact on the prospects of these economies.

Among the world's other large economies, the U.K. will lead its European counterparts by a substantial margin. India should post the strongest growth rate internationally this year and next. Both nations are being supported by stronger domestic demand conditions. Euro zone activity is slowly gaining momentum, led by Spain and Ireland, which are benefiting from their respective competitive revivals, and Germany, which continues to witness relatively balanced growth. After another slow start this year, the U.S. economy appears to be regaining some momentum. Consumers have been progressively loosening their purse strings.

According to UNCTAD's World Investment Report 2015, India ranks third among most prospective host economy for 2015-17 (after China and the US) in the world, as per a survey among Multi National Enterprises. India's rank also improved to ninth among the top countries ranked by FDI inflows in 2014, compared to 15 in 2013. The Government of India and Asian Development Bank (ADB) have signed a US$ 300 million loan to support the National Urban Health Mission (NUHM), the Central government's flagship program to improve the health of country's urban population. Along with the loan, the two parties also signed the accompanying capacity building technical assistance of US$ 2 million, financed by the Japan Fund for Poverty Reduction.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW AND OUTLOOK

There have been positive signals with the new BJP led government coming to power in 2014, the macroeconomic recovery is still very gradual. Admittedly, there have been moves in right directions. Home furnishings witnessed current value growth of 11% in 2014. The growing popularity of purchasing indoor furniture through internet retailing also enticed consumers with a wider choice and hassle-free delivery, thus helping drive growth in this category within India. The textile sector contributes about 14% to India's industrial production and 13% to the country's export earnings. The textile sector is one of the largest providers of employment along with agriculture. With a bumper cotton production the world-over exceeding the projected consumption and China deciding to use up its stocks with slowing down its imports, current cotton year 14-15 is a cotton surplus year. Prices have declined since last year.

An Expert Committee was constituted under the chairpersonship of Shri Ajay Shankar, Member Secretary, National Manufacturing Competiveness Council (NMCC) to formulate a new National Textile Policy. The Expert Committee submitted its draft report. The draft policy has been discussed further with concerned stakeholders. The revised draft New Textile Policy is under process for approval by the Government.

A 'Make in India' campaign covering 25 sectors, including textile and garment industry, has been unveiled by Prime Minister in the presence of big names from the corporate world of India and abroad at a ceremony in New Delhi. Under 'Make in India' initiative, investment opportunities for foreign companies and entrepreneurs are available across the entire value chain of synthetics, value-added and speciality fabrics, fabric processing set-ups for all kinds of natural and synthetic textiles, technical textiles, garments and retail brands.

OPPORTUNITIES, CHALLENGES AND THREATS

The Cotton Textiles Exports Promotion Council (TEXPROCIL) has welcomed the inclusion of exports of cotton fabrics - both woven and knitted - to Bangladesh and Sri Lanka under the Merchandise Exports from India Scheme (MEIS). The Director General of Foreign Trade announced a new list of textile items eligible for export sops, last week. MEIS was introduced in the Foreign Trade Policy 2015-20 announced recently. The scheme allows duty credit scrips at the prescribed rates of 2 per cent, 3 per cent and 5 per cent on exports of products to notified countries classified under Group A, B and C.

According to The Cotton Textiles Exports Promotion Council (TEXPROCIL) the industry faces the challenges of high tariffs barriers on account of preferential tariff arrangements. Duty sops of 2% only were granted to the mainstream cotton textile products, while higher rates were given for handlooms, carpets, coir products under the merchandise exports from India scheme (MEIS).

The current labour laws have been a major reason behind the inability of the sector to expand and acquire global scale. The labour involvement is maximum compared to other steps of manufacturing value chain. In order to attract large-scale investments, acquire global scale and bring the Indian sector at par with other competing countries, there is an immediate need to review the labour laws to make them investor and labour friendly. Ideally the 44 labour laws, most of which drafted in the earlier part of the last century, need to be repealed and replaced by one, or at best a few user friendly law(s) suited to the conditions of the 21st century.

Global home furnishing market has witnessed ups and downs in the last few years due to 2009 euro crisis and its post economic crisis. The global market has been growing at a slower rate but with the rise in income of the consumers and changing lifestyle, the market is expected to grow at a higher rate in future. Europe accounts for the largest market for home furnishing followed by Unites States and Asia Pacific.

FTL continues to focus on exploring new emerging markets the world over in order to spread its presence across various markets and reap the benefits. A headstart in emerging markets, the Company is also exploring innovative raw materials for enhanced customer satisfaction and better margins.

1. Corporate Information

Faze Three Limited (the company) is a public company domiciled in India and incorporated under the provisions of Indian Companies Act, 1956. The company's equity shares are listed for trading on the Bombay Stock Exchange. The company is engaged in manufacturing of Home furnishing items.

2. Basis of Accounting

The Financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (Indian GAAP). The company has prepared these financial statements to comply with all material respects with the accounting standards notified under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read together with paragraph 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules 2014.

2.1 Summary of Significant Accounting policies:

a. Presentation and disclosure of financial statements

The revised schedule III notified under the Companies Act, 2013, is applicable to the Company, for preparation and presentation of its financial statements. The adoption of revised Schedule VI does not impact recognition and measurement principles followed in preparation of financial statements. However, it has significant impact on presentation and disclosures made in financial statements.

b. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Indian GAAP requires estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, as of the date of the reporting period. These estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions could result in outcomes different from the estimates. Difference between actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which results are known or materialized.

c. Tangible and Intangible Fixed Assets

Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises of purchase price, borrowing cost if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Intangible assets are considered as such only if amounts involved are significant.

d. Depreciation on Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation on original cost has been provided under the Straight Line Method in the manner and at the rates prescribed by Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956 except for Motor Vehicles, which is charged on Written down value method. In the case of re-valued assets, depreciation is charged on re-valued amount. While depreciation on original cost is charged to the Profit and Loss Account, on the re-valued amount it is adjusted against the Revaluation Reserve. Loom accessories, which are of replacement in nature, are expensed.

e. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include interest, amortisation of ancillary costs incurred in connection with arranging the borrowings and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest cost.

f. Impairment of tangible fixed assets

The Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

The company bases its impairment calculation on detailed budgets and forecast calculations which are prepared separately for each of the company's cash-generating units to which the individual assets are allocated. These budgets and forecast calculations are generally covering a period of five years. For longer periods, a long term growth rate is calculated and applied to project future cash flows after the fifth year.

Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognized in the statement of profit and loss, except for previously revalued tangible fixed assets, where the revaluation was taken to revaluation reserve. In this case, the impairment is also recognized in the revaluation reserve up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

After impairment depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

An assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognized impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the company estimates the asset's or cash-generating unit's recoverable amount. A previously recognized impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognized in the statement of profit and loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

g. Government grants, subsidies and Export Incentives

Grants and subsidies from the government are recognized when there is reasonable assurance that (i) the company will comply with the conditions attached to them, and (ii) the grant/ subsidy will be received.

When the grant or subsidy relates to revenue, it is recognized as income on a systematic basis in the statement of profit and loss over the periods necessary to match them with the related costs, which they are intended to compensate. Where the grant relates to an asset, it is recognized as deferred income and released to income in equal amounts over the useful life of the related asset.

Where the company receives non-monetary grants, the asset is accounted for on the basis of its acquisition cost. In case a non-monetary asset is given free of cost, it is recognized at a nominal value.

Government grants of the nature of promoter's contribution are credited to capital reserves and treated as a part of the shareholders' funds.

Export incentives are accounted for on accrual basis.

h. Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investment. All other investments are classified as long term investments.

On initial recognition, all investments are measured at cost. The cost comprises purchase price and directly attributable acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties.

Current Investments are carried in the financial statements at lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual investment basis. Long term investments are carried at cost. However, provision for diminution in value is made to recognise a decline other than temporary in the value of the investments.

On disposal of an investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged or credited to the statement of profit and loss.

i. Inventories

a) Raw materials are valued at cost or net realizable value whichever is lower, b) Work in process are valued at cost, c) Finished products are valued at cost or net realizable value whichever is lower. Cost is ascertained on a weighted average basis. Cost of work in process and finished products comprises expenditure incurred in the normal course of business in bringing such inventories to its present location and includes allowable overheads based on normal level of activity and excise duty where applicable.

j. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the company and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized.

Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods is recognized when all the significant risks and rewards of ownership of goods have been passed to the buyer, usually on delivery of the goods. Domestic sales are inclusive of excise duty.

Interest

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account outstanding and the applicable interest rate. Interest income is included under the head "other income" in the statement of profit and loss.

k. Foreign Currency Transaction

Initial recognition

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency on the date of the transaction.

Conversion

Foreign currency monetary items are retranslated using the exchange rate prevailing at the reporting date. Non-monetary items, which are measured in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency, are reported using the exchange rate at the date of transaction. Non-monetary items, which are measured at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency, are translated using the exchange rate at the date when such value was determined. The exchange differences arising on restatement of monetary items are recognized as income or as expenses in the period in which they arise in the statement of profit and loss.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. The management believes that it is appropriate to prepare these financial statements on 'going concern' basis, for the following reasons:

- The company has not made operating losses during the year. Besides, there are sufficient orders on hand pending execution. The management is fully seized of the matter and is of the view that going concern assumption holds true and that the company will be able to discharge / resolve its liabilities in the normal course of business.
- As the Net worth of the company was eroded in the previous years, it became mandatory under section 15(1) of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985 to file a reference to BIFR for revival and rehabilitation of the company. Accordingly, the company has filed reference with BIFR on 23-08-2012 which has been registered by BIFR on 04-09-2012.
