MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Industry Structure and Developments

The Operations of Non Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) are entirely being regulated by Reserve Bank of India in terms of powers conferred up on it under Chapter III – B of Reserve Bank of India Act. 1934. The regulatory and supervisory framework for NBFCs have been continuously strengthened in order to ensure strong and healthy functioning of the financial services sector.

The NBFC sector has a significant presence in the financial services sector in India. Besides banking sector, they also function as a major catalyst in funding various big ticket projects and working capital requirement by the corporate sector for long term as well as short term basis.

Opportunities & Threats

Indian Financial Market is characterized by its maturity, growth potential and a large base of investors. In spite of existing poor business environment and crisis in the financial market, it has the inherent strength to withstand the pressure of ongoing crisis and tide over the bad phase efficiently. Once the major economic fundamentals start showing sign of improvement, there would be enough room for your company to capitalize the opportunities that might come in the way.

Risks and Concerns

The ongoing crisis in the financial services sector and stagnation in the capital market might have adverse effect on the financial performance of the company. However, a dedicated customer base and prudential business strategies would enable the company to tide over the recent turmoil in the financial market.

Adequacy of Internal Control System

Our Company follows an extensive internal control system to ensure that prudential business policies are followed regularly in managing existing clientele and developing new business contacts

The Company ensures adherence to all internal control policies and procedures as well as compliance with all regulatory guidelines.

The Audit Committee reviews the adequacy of internal control system on regular basis.

Fulfillment of RBI Norms and Standards

The company continues to fulfill all the norms and standards laid down by RBI as applicable to the Company.

Human Resource Development

The Company follows the system to take all investment strategies guided by a team of experienced professionals.

Cautionary Statement

Statements in the Management Discussion and Analysis regarding the Company's objectives, estimates and expectations are within the scope of applicable laws and regulations. Actual performance might differ from those either expressed or implied.
