OPERATIONS AND PROSPECTS :

During the year your Company's Division N. G. Nursing Home further consolidated its operations and could achieve a wider base of both Doctors and Patients utilizing its services. Company also obtained necessary sanctions and developed the infrastructure on the ground floor of its premises, the benefit of which will accrue in the coming years. N.G.Nursing Home also secured approval under section 17(2) of the Income Tax Act 1961 for a period of 3 years.

N. G. Medicare & Calcutta Hope Infertility Clinic Our first Division continues to enjoy wide patronage of all sections of citizens of South Kolkata. However intense competition in this segment of healthcare compounded with pressure on purchasing capacity in hands of citizens due to high food inflation and economic slow down continue to come in the way of achieving growth. Investments were made to replace old CT Scan machine as well as Color Doppler during the year.

N. G. INDUSTRIES LIMITED

N. G. Pharmacy Our retail Pharmacy division could start its second retail outlet at the premises of N.G.Nursing Home at Southern Avenue, Kolkata towards the end of the year. The benefit of this startup will accrue in the coming year. Earlier retail outlet at Rash Behari Avenue continued to draw wider patronage.

Company's strong emphasis on cost controls, efficient management & operations, fiscal discipline and Quality adherence will enable it to face the competitive threats that it faces and reflect in performance in coming years.

DIVIDEND :

Your Directors recommend a Dividend of Rs. 3.00 per Equity Share (Previous Year Rs.2.90) for your consideration for the year ended 31st March, 2010. The Dividend will be paid after it is approved at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

DIRECTORS :

Shri Ashok Kumar Goenka and Shri Vinod Singhi, Directors of the Company, retire by rotation and being eligible offer themselves for re-appointment.

LISTING WITH STOCK EXCHANGES :

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

A) INDUSTRY STRUCTURE & DEVELOPMENT :

India's Economy continues to grow despite the global economic slow down and is expected to notch a GDP growth of over 6.5%. The services sector particularly is playing an important role in the Indian economy and currently has a share of over 60% in the GDP. This has significant relevance to your company since healthcare service industry is beginning to unfold and is expected to grow rapidly over the next decade.

Rising incomes in the hands of our citizens, increasing health awareness in society at large, increasing population of older citizens, new technologies in the sector, longer life expectancies, Health Insurance penetration, Medical Tourism on the rise are amongst factors which are contributing to the growth in our sector and will lead to major changes in the industry and its profile in the coming years.

B) OPPORTUNITIES, THREATS, RISKS AND CONCERNS :

Reputation Risk :

The business runs the risk of unfavorable publicity in case of unsuccessful treatment translating into reduction of patient flow.

Risk Mitigation :

The Company mitigates this risk through adopting a philosophy of ethical practices as well as transparent dealings with patients in all matters and explaining to the patients in plain layman language the pros and cons of the treatment as well as realistic assessments for recovery. Quality Audit and adherence to strict protocols also mitigates this risk.

Attrition Risk:

In the event of good professionals leaving the Company it stands to lose the years of on job training.

Risk Mitigation :

The Company provides professionals a very good and challenging environment with continuous growth. The Company is also always on its lookout to induct new and good professionals to keep strengthening its team. Ethical practices of the Company and its policy of transparent functioning also go a long way in good bonding with the best professionals who share similar philosophy.

Business Attrition :

Independent Consultants who refer their patients to us might begin to refer them elsewhere. With several Medical Centres coming up in the city, this is a threat no Company can afford to ignore.

Risk Mitigation :

To prevent this from happening the Company keeps close interaction with all leading Consultants and strives to keep services at levels meeting their standards. Company also on an ongoing basis carries out seminars and meetings to keep consultants well informed about the latest developments in the field. Company also strives to enlarge its referral base and not depend on few individuals for any of its services. Company is also continuously investing in newer Technologies and equipments to stay ahead in offering value added and superior quality of tests and at affordable tariffs. The Company's steps in investing in an Indoor New Facility has gone a long way in enhancing the Company's Image, range of services as well as depth of customer satisfaction.

C) OUTLOOK

Your Company operates in an industry that is increasingly getting even more competitive. However the outlook of your Company looks good on account of the following reasons.

- 1) The Medical & Healthcare needs of the city and the state continue to grow in terms of range of services. Increased health awareness of citizens as well as growing income in hands of citizens is leading to more services of better order.
- 2) The Company's policy of continuously enhancing its value of services is ongoing and has added to its name and reputation and it has emerged as a reliable and affordable place for all sections of the city. The Company is also enlarging its coverage by new sectors like CGHS, Corporates, Insurance etc.
- 3) The Company's New division's - "N.G.Nursing Home" as well as "N.G. Pharmacy" have produced fresh opportunities in the near future for growth.
- 4) The growth of Medical Insurance in the country will make healthcare more affordable and will spur growth for the Company. The Company has already registered itself with a large number of TPA's for this purpose.
- 5) Your Company has managed to operate as well as set up its new divisions without any induction of Capital or any major borrowing thereby, has prudently avoided any cost of funds as is so common for any competitive venture.

D) INTERNAL CONTROL :

Your Company has adequate internal control systems, commensurate with its size of operations and works in a highly-automated environment.

E) HUMAN RESOURCES/INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS :

The Company recognises the importance and contribution of its Human Resources for its growth and development and is committed to the development of its people. The Company has started introducing methods and practices for Human Resources Development. Your Company has during the previous year continued to have good industrial relations with its employees.

F) FINANCIAL AND OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE :

Please refer Directors' Report.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To
The Members of
N. G. Industries Limited

- 1) We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of N. G. INDUSTRIES LIMITED ("the Company"), as at 31st March, 2010, the Profit and Loss Account and also the Cash Flow Statement of the Company for the year ended on that date annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.
- 2) We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those Standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.
- 3) As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2003, as amended by the Companies (Auditor's Report)(Amendment) Order,2004, (together the "Order") issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (4A) of Section 227 of the Companies Act, 1956 of India (the Act) and on the basis of such checks of the books and records of the Company as we considered appropriate and according to the information and explanations given to us, we enclose in the Annexure, a Statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order, to the extent applicable.
- 4) Further to our comments in the Annexure referred to in paragraph 3 above, we report that :
 - (a) We have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
 - (b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company, so far as appears from our examination of those books;
 - (c) The Balance Sheet, Profit and Loss Account and Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account of the Company;
 - (d) In our opinion, the Balance Sheet, Profit and Loss Account and Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this report comply with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956;

- (e) On the basis of the written representations received from the directors of the Company, as on 31st March, 2010 and taken on record by the Board of Directors of the Company, we report that none of the Directors is disqualified as on 31st March, 2010 from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub section (1) of section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956.
- (f) Attention is drawn regarding non accounting of certain expenses on accrual basis, the impact of which on the Company's Profit & Loss Account Debit Balance is not ascertainable.
- g) In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts give the information required by the Companies Act, 1956 in the manner so required and subject to our observation vide para (f) above, the impact whereof is not ascertainable, give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:
- i. In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2010;
 - ii. in the case of the Profit and Loss Account, of the profit for the year ended on that date; and

SCHEDULES FORMING PART OF THE ACCOUNTS

SCHEDULE - 9

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

(A) Significant Accounting Policies

a. Basis of preparation of accounts

The financial statements have been prepared to comply in all material respects with the Accounting Standards notified by the Companies Accounting Standards Rules, 2006 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.

b. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities.

c. Fixed assets

i) Tangible assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition inclusive of duties (net of CENVAT and other credits, wherever applicable), taxes, incidental expenses, erection / commissioning expenses and borrowing costs etc. up to the date the assets are ready for their intended use.

Machinery spares which can be used only in connection with an item of fixed assets and whose use as per technical assessment is expected to be irregular, are capitalised and depreciated over the residual life of the respective assets.

Expenditure directly relating to construction activity are capitalised. Indirect expenditure incurred during construction period are capitalised as part of the indirect construction cost to the extent to which the expenditure are indirectly related to con.

Fixed Assets retired from active use are valued at net realisable value.

ii) Intangible assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation. Computer software is amortised on a straight line basis over a period of five years (except ERP software which is amortised over a period of three years.)

d. Depreciation

Depreciation on Fixed Assets is provided on written down value method at the rates prescribed in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956 or at rates determined based on the useful life of the assets, whichever is higher.

In case of impairment, if any, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the assets over their remaining useful life.

Assets created but not owned by the Company are amortised over a period of five years.

e. Impairment of assets

The carrying amount of assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date to determine if there is any indication of impairment thereof based on external / internal factors. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS (Contd.)

f. Investments

Investments that are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term. Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value.

g. Inventories

Items of inventories are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value, on the following basis:

Raw materials, components, stores and spares - on a first in first out basis.

Work-in-process and finished goods - on the basis of absorption costing comprising of direct costs and overheads other than financial charges.

h. Revenue recognition

Revenue (income) is recognised when no significant uncertainty as to determination/realisation exists.

Sale of goods

Revenue is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer.

Insurance and other claims / refunds

Revenue, due to uncertainty in realisation, are accounted for on acceptance / actual receipt basis.

Interest

Revenue is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Dividends

Dividend is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment is established by the balance sheet date. Dividend from subsidiaries is recognised even if same are declared after the balance sheet date but pertains to period on or before the date of Balance Sheet

Export benefits

Export entitlements in the form of Duty Drawback and Duty Entitlement Pass Book (DEPB) Scheme are recognised in the Profit and Loss Account when the right to receive credit as per the terms of the scheme is established in respect of exports made and when.

i. Retirement and other employee benefits

Retirement benefit in the form of Provident Fund is a defined contribution scheme and the contributions are charged to the Profit and Loss Account of the year when the contributions to the respective funds are accrued.

Gratuity liability is a defined benefit obligation and is provided for on the basis of actuarial valuation made at the end of each financial year.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS (Contd.)

Short term compensated absences are provided for based on estimates. Long term compensated absences are provided for based on actuarial valuation.

Actuarial gains/losses are immediately taken to profit and loss account and are not deferred.

j. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs relating to the acquisition / construction of qualifying assets are capitalised until the time all substantial activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for their intended use are complete.

k. Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded on the basis of exchange rates prevailing on the date of their occurrence. Foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rates and exchange difference arising thereon is charged to the Profit and Loss Account.

l. Taxation

Tax expense comprises of current, deferred and fringe benefits tax.

Current income-tax and fringe benefit tax are measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the Indian Income Tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax is recognized on a prudent basis for timing differences, being difference between taxable and accounting income/expenditure that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent period(s).

MAT credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period.

m. Earning per share

Earning per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders, by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earning per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of share outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all diluted potentia.

n. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the balance sheet comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

o. Contingent liabilities

Liabilities which are material and whose future outcome cannot be ascertained with reasonable certainty, are treated as contingent and disclosed by way of notes to the accounts.

p. Provisions

A provision is recognised when the company has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which reliable estimate can be made.
