AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS

We have audited the attached balance sheet of Superb Papers Limited as at 31st March, 2010 and the profit and loss account for the year ended on that date (all together referred to as 'financial statements'). These financial statements are the responsibility of the management of the Company. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

1. As required by the Companies (Auditors' Report) Order, 2003 (hereafter referred to as CARO) issued by the Central Government in terms of Section 227 (4A) of the Companies Act, 1956 (hereafter referred to as the Act) and on the basis of such verification of the books and records as we considered appropriate and according to the information and explanations given to us, we give in the annexure, a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order.

2. Further to our comments in the annexure referred to in paragraph (2) above, we report that

- a. we have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
- b. in our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of such books maintained at the registered office at Surat. Besides the registered office, there are no branches;
- c. the balance sheet and profit and loss account referred to in this report are in agreement with the books of account;
- d. in our opinion, the balance sheet and the profit and loss account comply with the accounting standards referred to in section 211 (3C) of the Act;
- e. Based on the written representation and information available on record, all the directors are disqualified from being a director of the Company as on 31st March, 2010 in terms of section 274 (1)(g) of the Act;

3. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said financial statements read together with the notes thereon, give the information required under the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India

- in the case of the balance sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2010;
- in the case of the profit and loss account, of the profit for the year ended on that date.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. Method of Accounting The accounts have been prepared to comply in all material aspects with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, the accounting standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and relevant provisions of the Income Tax and Companies Laws. The accounts are drawn up on the basis of the historical cost convention.

The accounts of the Company pertaining to prior years were not prepared on a going concern assumption as there was no business activity nor any machinery or any other assets. But during the current year under review the Company has revived its operational status and has managed to achieve modest business activity. Hence the accounts pertaining to the current financial year are drawn on the basis of the going concern concept. However there is no significant impact on the profit or loss of the Company by virtue of this change in accounting method.

B. Revenue Recognition

- a. Sale of goods is accounted on dispatches to customers and includes sales tax and duties.
- b. Receipts from training & consultancy activity are recorded on issue of invoice.
- c. Revenue is otherwise generally recognised on accrual basis.

C. Fixed Assets There were no fixed assets owned by the company.

D. Investments The investment comprises of equity shares of The Bardoli Nagrik Sahakari Bank Ltd. which are unquoted. These investments were physically verified by the management during the year and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.

E. Inventories The Company has not acquired any inventories during the year.

F. Prior Period Items The Company follows the accrual system of accounting, but provision for expenses is made on the basis of the materially concept and where ever ascertainable.

G. Foreign Currency Transactions The Company has not entered into any foreign currency transactions during the year.

H. Retirement Benefits The management is of the opinion that no provisions for employees retirement benefits are required to be made.

I. Borrowing Costs Generally the borrowing costs attributable to acquisition and construction of assets are capitalised as a part of the cost of such asset upto the date when such asset is ready for its intended use. Other borrowing costs are charged to the profit and loss account. During the year no fixed assets were acquired by the company.

J. Segmental Information Pursuant to Accounting Standard 17 - “Segmental Reporting” issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the management is of the opinion that, since there is no significant revenue from the principle operating segment, reporting under the said accounting standard is not necessary.

K. Related Party Transactions Pursuant to Accounting Standard 18 - “Related Party Disclosures” issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the details are

SN.	NAME OF RELATED PARTY	RELATION-SHIP	NATURE OF TRANSACTION	AMOUNT (₹)
