TRANSFORMING BUSINESSES TO SUCCEED IN THE DIGITAL FUTURE

The digital future is already on the business horizons of today. IT is redefining the way people shop and consume products and services in an ever connected world. The traditional boundaries between channels, time periods, spaces and devices through which consumers access service providers at various stages of the consumption cycle is disappearing.

The rising expectations of a seamless, personalized and social consumption experience is redefining the way in which both incumbent and upcoming new businesses can compete to win with the new age consumer. While new entrants can define their approach grounds up and scale with growth - incumbent business leaders face a tougher challenge of transforming existing large businesses to be digital ready, at speed and scale, while optimizing investments and costs of IT systems.

Achieving business readiness for the digital age demands innovation, speed and reliability. Sonata's integrated offerings of best in class digital engagement solutions coupled with robust managed application lifecycle solutions and committed partnership approach has enabled customers leverage the transformational impact of IT in keeping business ready for the digital economy. We have been scripting such digital successes for world leading customers across the Software Product, Travel, Retail and Consumer Goods industries and this in turn has been a driver of our own successful business performance. In this Annual Report 2014-15, we share with you glimpses of how our customers and our people are working together to seize the opportunity in these powerful changes sweeping the business and IT landscape.

THE NEW AGE CONSUMER.

The rising expectations of a seamless, personalized and social consumption experience is redefining the way in which businesses can compete to win with the new age consumer.

ENABLING A BETTER BRICK-N-CLICK LED OMNI-CHANNEL RETAIL FOOTPRINT

A global retail leader wanted to replace its legacy customer engagement systems with a new package capable of supporting its omni channel strategy across e-commerce, store and mobile touch points

Sonata delivered a range of solutions as part of the program including:

- A complex mobile solution integrated with ERP that enabled store staff to view, pick and pack customers' orders. For their retail customers, the experience of just driving into the parking lot to collect the pre-ordered (online or on mobile) parcel turned hassle-free and time efficient.
- A large loyalty system that accurately manages multiple loyalty cards and transactions of millions of customers across stores in one of the largest countries. This scalable solution is envisaged to be rolled out to several countries in the future.

- A solution to help the retailer to have a single view of its customers. With growth, the retailer diversified into multiple business lines. This has led to multiple customer systems. The solution helps unravel the data and then relate the information to create a singular customer system which every retail channel can refer into.
- Designing and developing the solution for one country with an architecture that will be scalable and rolled out to other countries, demonstrating scalable efficient use of IT investments.

The deep technology specialization in value added engineering on the chosen package and expertise in solutions for retail systems of engagement enabled Sonata make a significant contribution. The case illustrates Sonata's focus on helping enterprises succeed with their digital transformation agendas.

Enterprise Software products are also facing the same high expectations of superior user experience driven by new technology. GETTING SOFTWARE PRODUCTS CLOUD & MOBILE READY; FOSTERING FURTHER INNOVATION

A world leading Software Vendor in SMB ERP segment realized a need to upgrade their products and services to meet the demands of new age digitally driven businesses and business owners. The client wanted to extend its accounting solutions to mobile users by developing an app which could work on different platforms and devices while supporting local country-specific rules and API services. Additionally, the solution was also to be extended in cloud as a SaaS.

Sonata developed a range of solutions for the customer including:

- Native app for iOS and Android phones in C# using a cross platform mobile development solution. The app is localized to support different countries – UK, USA and Germany to name a few. The cross platform design allows supporting multiple OS with minimal effort. It helped the ISV retain leadership in online accounting software for small businesses globally.

- SaaS based multi-tenant distributed web solution using managed cloud services thus retaining the Cloud ERP market leadership in its segment.

The engagement with the customer has also evolved to Sonata being a strategic innovation partner who can extend these solutions to global markets, multiple product lines and in defining a roadmap for further innovation with emerging technologies such as Big Data and wearables for the SMB segment.

Sonata's deep Cloud and Mobile engineering skills, SaaS and PaaS enablement skills and understanding of ERP applications enabled successful delivery of the program. The case illustrates Sonata's commitment to help Software Vendors develop, modernize and deliver products that are ready for the digital future to their customers.

THE FUTURE OF THE BUSINESS - IT INTERFACE

THE OPPORTUNITY

As technology becomes more central and strategic to business in the digital economy, the way in which IT services meet these needs are also changing. Deeper understanding of industry-specific business processes, ability to innovate with IT, quick and scalable deployment of IT systems all gain prominence. Industry specific end-to-end technology platforms that are mobile and social ready, with continuously evolving feature sets and cloud hosted scalable delivery models would be the new norm.

Sonata's solution encompassed

- Rail segment specific customization of proprietary Rezopia Travel SaaS solution
- The solution enabled distribution and booking across multiple channels such as web, mobile, reservation kiosk and call center

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

Economic Overview:

The global economy in the year 2014 continued to move along its growth trajectory but at a moderate rate of 3.4%. The growth however remained uneven with the developed economies gradually reviving and the emerging & developing economies growth marginally slowing down. The US economy remained steady on its growth path with GDP growth of 1.8% in 2014 as against 1.4% in 2013. The Euro area also moved out of the negative territory with a growth of 0.9% backed by a steady growth in Germany and revival in Spain. The UK economy further gained strength with GDP growth of 2.6% in 2014 as against 1.7% in 2013. However, the prevailing geo-political uncertainty remains a key concern for Europe. On the flipside, the prevailing slowdown in China and Brazil had an adverse impact on the overall growth of the emerging and developing economies which witnessed a growth of 4.6% in 2014 as against 5.0% in 2013. IMF has projected that going forward, the world economy would continue to move along its growth path with GDP growth of 3.5% in 2015 and 3.8% in 2016.

The Indian economy in the year FY15 witnessed a marginal increase in growth and GDP growth stood at 7.3% in FY15 as against 6.9% in FY14 (as per CSO, revised base 2011-12). The year also witnessed a stable rupee backed by continuous foreign inflows and steps taken by RBI. The continuous inflows has also led to sizable reserves which stood at an all time high of USD 352 Billion for the week ended 1st May, 2015. The current account deficit has also further contracted from 1.7% of GDP in FY14 to an estimated 1.3% in FY15. With the fall in global crude prices and RBI's measures the inflation during the year has come down significantly and WPI has entered negative territory at the end of FY15. The year has also been the first year of working for the new government at the centre which has kick-started a number of policy level reforms to accelerate the growth in the economy. The government is also very focused towards the growth in the digital platform and has planned a very ambitious project of "100 Smart Cities" which will take the digitalization drive to the next level.

Industry overview:

Global IT Industry

Global IT services grew moderately at 3.5% to reach US$ 657 billion in 2014. A significant percentage of this growth was led by the USA and APAC market that grew by 5% and 4% respectively. Emerging technology like Social, Mobility, Analytics and Cloud (SMAC), Internet of Things (IOT), Wearable devices all has been vowed by technology providers. Emerging technologies are bringing major transformation to the traditional IT needs. Infrastructure Service (IS) outsourcing and Custom Application development driven by SMAC grew substantially. The impact of disruptive trend such as cloud computing and mobility / analytics have transformed the IT services Industry. The earlier focus on providing delivery and process capabilities has been shifting towards changing methodology of software application by converging with the traditional IT services markets.

Global Engineering Research & Development (ER&D) and Product development segment has been growing substantially and is estimated to have reached US$ 1.44 trillion in 2014. The top 200 corporates accounted for nearly 50% of this spent. Over one-fourth spend is done by automotive and consumer electronics segment, driven by increasing consumer demand for new products and interfaces, and for safety and emission efficiencies in automotive sectors.

The global ecommerce mobile apps industry continues to evolve rapidly, with revenue of US$ 1.5 trillion in 2014, the worldwide eCommerce industry is growing annually at 20%. Within eCommerce the most popular categories remain tours & hotel reservations, airline tickets & reservation, clothing and non-consumable durables and entertainment related product. Mobile app industry is the key driver for eCommerce globally.

Mobile apps universe is another fast growing segment with revenue of US$ 86 billion in 2014, growing at an annual rate of 27%. Growth in mobile apps is driven by increasing sales of smart phones globally. Due to this huge demand there has also been an increased demand for mobile websites and innovative apps in response.

India IT Industry

The IT Industry in India continues to grow in double digit and as per NASSCOM is estimated to have reached USD 146 billion in FY15, a growth of around 13% over FY14. Of the total industry the IT Services segment which is the largest contributor to the industry is estimated to have reach USD 68.6 billion in FY15, a growth of 12.1% over FY14. The IT services segment in India has fast evolved from being an application development and management to now a full service provider. The IT outsourcing market prospects in India are very strong and are driven by increased spends in Infrastructure Service Outsourcing (ISO), Software Testing, Custom Application Development and Management (CADM) and SPA / web service segments. With increased digitalization the CADM segment is fast growing driven by mobility, social, cloud and analytics.

E: estimate;

- 1 Offshore Software product development (OPSD) which was earlier clubbed with IT services, has now been re-classified under Engineering and Research & Development (ER&D) and product development;
- 2 Software & others includes software products, OPSPD, Engineering R&D and product development, domestic market now includes eCommerce numbers. Source: NASSCOM

As per the NASSCOM-strategy & 2014 survey there is a rising trend of openness amongst customers to offshore both low-to-medium complexity work as well as very high complexity work. As a result, there is steady growth in global sourcing of ER&D services. India currently holds around 22-25% share of the global spend in sourcing of ER&D services. The ER&D segment is 90% export based in India and is estimated to have witnessed faster than industry growth.

The software product segment in India is rapidly growing with the rising demand of products globally. The segment is estimated to have reached to USD 6.1 billion in FY15, a growth of approximately 12% over FY14. The key growth drivers for the segment are increasing penetration of smart phones and tablets, technologies advancement, easy access at affordable price to software over cloud and ability to reach wide consumer base. The domestic market is having a major share and is estimated to be USD 4.2 billion in FY15.

E-Commerce in India has been experiencing a remarkable growth and has been driven by availability and access to internet services at affordable rates and rapid penetration of mobile devices. It has changed the consumer way of purchasing its needs. Consumers today expect and are able to get anything and everything via the internet. The 2014 annual Great Online Shopping festival saw 7 million unique visitors vis-à-vis 2 million in 2013. Connectivity has also enabled consumer centric services being offered viz. train/hotel bookings, taxi services, movie tickets booking etc.

Key Industry Verticals review

Travel & Tourism

The outbound travel worldwide increased by 4.5% over the first eight months of FY15, outpacing domestic travel which grew by an estimated 3%. World Travel Monitor* figures showed. This means global outbound travel has grown by a steady 4-5% every year since 2011. The number of nights increased by 3% and average spending per trip rose by 2% to USD 1,750 between January and August 2014. This combination of more trips and higher average spending per trip generated a 6% rise in global outbound travel turnover to USD 1,750 billion. Global outbound travel growth this year was once again driven by Asia (+8%) and South America (+5%) as well as North America (+5%). European outbound travel grew by 3% despite low economic growth. Africa grew by 4% but the Middle East region was down by 4%. In terms of individual source markets, Germany maintained its position as the world's largest outbound travel market this year ahead of USA and China.

There is a rising trend for use of mobile devices for travel booking and as much as 25 % of the travel bookings in the US were done on a mobile device. Going ahead, offering the right product to the right customer at the right time and at the right price would be the key. Massification of services will not work as a discerning customer would look for personalization. With the advent of big data every travel company can reach out to every customer with a personalized product.

Travel continues to be an involved and efficiency led business with IT systems playing a critical role in day-to-day operations. Sonata's vast experience in working with complex global travel content, inventory and distribution management systems makes it a specialist partner of choice for travel companies. By integrating technologies such as Mobility and Analytics to improve yield management, perform sentiment analysis and enhance efficiencies, the Company helps companies unlock the hidden value in their travel business.

Retail Industry

Retail sales worldwide—including both in-store and internet purchases—will reach USD 22.5 trillion in 2014, according to figures from eMarketer. The global retail market will see steady growth over the next few years, and in 2018, worldwide retail sale is expected to reach USD 28.300 trillion.

Of the total retail purchase on the internet, ecommerce is estimated to account for 5.9% of the total retail market worldwide in 2014, or $1.32 trillion. By 2018, that share is estimated to increase to 8.8%.

China and the US are by far the world's leading ecommerce markets, combining for more than 55% of global internet retail sales in 2014. China's growth over the next five years will widen the gap between the two countries, and China will exceed $1 trillion in retail ecommerce sales by 2018, accounting for more than 40% of the total worldwide. The US will maintain its position as the second-largest retail ecommerce market in 2018, totaling nearly $500 billion that year, while the UK will account for about one-quarter of that figure, landing in a distant third place.

As the business in the retail sector continues to see an upswing, the industry's reputation as a technology laggard is beginning to change. With the continuing evolution of mobile and other technologies, the shift to omni-channel strategies and continuing evolution of fraud, retailers are looking to technology advancements in 2015 to help them transform their businesses.

Risk Management:

- (a) Economic Risk:
Risk: The economic slowdown and adverse movement of key macroeconomic indicators can impact Company's business operations.

Mitigation: Geographic diversity, in terms of two distinct markets namely developed and developing regions coupled with diversity in business lines namely IT Services and Software Products helps protect Sonata from economic slowdown. The Company's account management strategy spans for a period of 3 years at the start of the project itself. The strategy is based on an extensive review of clients' IT environment and its business strategy. This facilitates in company becoming a partner in both growth and challenging scenario for its clients and creating value for the clients irrespective of overall environment scenario. A longstanding relationship with key clients together with long term contracts helps abate the impact to a greater extent.

(b) Foreign Currency Risk:

Risk: With a significant portion of Company's revenues coming from exports, volatility in exchange rates may impact Company's business adversely. The Company transacts its revenue in more than one currency; this exposes it towards a risk of making losses as a result of currency price fluctuation.

Mitigation:

The Company uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuation.

(c) Concentration risk

Risk: Regional concentration as well as vertical concentration can adversely impact Company's business in case of a slowdown. As like for all mid-tier IT services companies client concentration is a significant risk. The Company's top 10 clients' contribution has declined to nearly 72 percent of revenues in IT services. The Company monitors this risk and mitigation efforts through diversification of its client base are worked on continually. Geographical spread, competition and financial stability of our customers are other customer centric risks that the Company faces.

Mitigation: Diversity, both in terms of region and verticals, is intrinsically woven into the DNA of Sonata. The Company continues to further diversify its business in terms of regional and vertical exposure on ongoing basis.

(d) Competition risk

Risk: The ever-increasing competition poses a key risk in terms of acquiring client business as well as human talent.

Mitigation: Company stays invested in enhancing the value proposition for its customers by way of deepening its domain expertise, technological capabilities and customer engagement. On the human capital front, Sonata's brand equity and best-in-class HR principles and practices makes it a preferred employer.

(e) Regulatory risk

Risk: Legislation in various countries in which we operate including the US and UK may place restrictions on companies in those countries from outsourcing work to us, or may implement stricter immigration laws, or may limit our ability to send our employees to certain client sites. The Company has faced significant challenges in the areas of Income-tax related issues in India.

Mitigation: A team of professionals within and outside the Company work on mitigating this on a continuous basis and during the year they have seen quite a bit of success. Issues of tax relate to litigations with Income Tax authorities in India on deduction/ exemption of profits derived from export of software under Section 10A of the Income-Tax Act, treatment of payments for purchase of software as 'royalty' and consequent denial of deductions for such payments on the basis that taxes have not been deducted at source, etc. Management is taking an active role in highlighting these issues and those faced by the Industry with Government Authorities through active representation. These initiatives outside of pure litigation have also helped in resolving long standing disputes. In our endeavor to provide uninterrupted world class services to our customers, we are planning to set up Delivery centers or operations in these countries to ensure local compliance and customer satisfaction.

Human Resource Department:

At Sonata, employees are the Company's biggest asset and the Company continuously focuses towards innovative initiatives to attract, train, retain and motivate its employees. The Company's endeavors are driven by a strong set of values imbibed in it and policies that it abide by and empower Sonatians to "Go Deeper" in pursuit of excellence and to succeed in a dynamic business environment. All the Company's policies are focused towards a healthy, happy and prosperous work environment for its employees and thereby also fulfill the aspirations of the people at work.

Sustained investments in better defining and nurturing an organizational culture and people helped the Company to continue to attract best-in-class talent across levels who primarily value the impact they can create on customers and themselves by being part of Sonata.

The Company has well defined employee management and skill management process through career planning, training & development and rewards and recognition systems, thereby strengthening its core HR systems.

The Company ended the year with a headcount of 3,018 which was an increase by 18% compared to the previous year's headcount of 2,565. During the year, we have attracted talent from leading Business schools for managerial, marketing and technical roles.

Internal Control System

Sonata has deployed adequate Internal Control Systems (ICS) in place to ensure a smooth functioning of its business. The processes and the systems are reviewed constantly and changed to address the changing regulatory and business environment. The Control Systems provide a reasonable assurance of recording the transactions of its operations in all material aspects and of providing protection against misuse or loss of Company's assets. The ERP system which the Company had implemented has helped in further strengthening the internal control systems that are in place. The existing internal control systems and their adequacy are frequently reviewed and improved upon to meet the changing business environment. The external auditors as well as the internal auditors periodically review the internal control systems, policies and procedures for their adequacy, effectiveness and continuous operation for addressing risk management and mitigation strategies.

a. Basis of accounting and preparation of financial statements

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (Indian GAAP) to comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the 2013 Act") / Companies Act, 1956 ("the 1956 Act"), as applicable. The financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those followed in the previous year.

b. Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets and liabilities (including contingent liabilities) and the reported income and expenses during the year. The Management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognized in the periods in which the results are known / materialize.

c. Depreciation / Amortisation

Depreciable amount for assets is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its estimated residual value.

Depreciation has been provided on buildings and plant and equipments on the straight-line method and on furniture and fixtures, vehicles and office equipments on the written down method, as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the 2013 Act.

Leasehold land and leasehold improvements are amortised over primary lease period.

Intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful life on straightline method as follows:

- Computer software- 3 years
- Goodwill acquired on purchase of business- 5 years

The estimated useful life of the intangible assets and the amortisation period are reviewed at the end of each financial year and the amortisation period is revised to reflect the changes, if any.

d. Revenue recognition

Revenues from contracts priced on a time and material basis are recognised when services are rendered and related costs are incurred.

Revenues from fixed price contracts are recognised over the life of the contract using the proportionate completion method, with contract costs determining the degree of completion. Foreseeable losses on such contracts are recognised when probable.

Revenues from sale of product and licenses are recognised on transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyers, which generally coincides with delivery where there is no customisation required. In case of customisation the same is recognised over the life of the contract using the proportionate completion method with contract costs determining the degree of completion. Foreseeable losses on such contracts are recognised when probable.

Revenues from maintenance contracts are recognised pro-rata over the period of the contract.

Revenues are reported net of discounts.

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive it is established. Interest income is accounted on accrual basis.

e. Fixed Assets (Tangible/Intangible)

Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation / amortization and impairment losses, if any. The cost of fixed assets comprises its purchase price net of any trade discounts and rebates, any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the tax authorities), any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use. Subsequent expenditure, if any, on fixed assets after its purchase / completion is capitalized only if such expenditure results in an increase in the future benefits from such asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance.

Capital work-in-progress

Projects under which tangible fixed assets are not yet ready for their intended use are carried at cost, comprising direct cost, related incidental expenses and attributable interest.

f. Foreign currency transactions and translations

Initial recognition

Company: Transactions in foreign currencies entered into by the Company are accounted at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction or at rates that closely approximate the rate at the date of the transaction.

Integral foreign operations: Transactions in foreign currencies entered into by the Company's integral foreign operations are accounted at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction or at rates that closely approximate the rate at the date of the transaction.

Measurement at the balance sheet date

Company: Foreign currency monetary items (other than derivative contracts) of the Company, outstanding at the balance sheet date are restated at the year-end rates. Non-monetary items of the Company are carried at historical cost.

Integral foreign operations: Foreign currency monetary items (other than derivative contracts) of the Company's integral foreign operations outstanding at the balance sheet date are restated at the year-end rates. Non-monetary items of the Company's integral foreign operations are carried at historical cost.

Treatment of exchange differences

Company: Exchange differences arising on settlement / restatement of foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities of the Company are recognised as income or expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Integral foreign operations: Exchange differences arising on settlement / restatement of foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities of the Company's integral foreign operations are recognised as income or expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Accounting for forward contracts

Premium / discount on forward exchange contracts, which are not intended for trading or speculation purposes, are amortised over the period of the contracts if such contracts relate to monetary items as at the balance sheet date. Exchange difference on such contracts are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss of the reporting period in which the exchange rate changes. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of such a forward exchange contract is recognised as income or as expense in the period in which such cancellation or renewal is made.

g. Investments

Long-term investments are carried individually at cost less provision for diminution, other than temporary, in the value of such investments. Current investments are carried individually, at the lower of cost and fair value. Cost of investments includes acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties.

h. Employee benefits

Employee benefits include provident fund, superannuation fund, employee state insurance scheme, gratuity and compensated absences.

Defined contribution plans

The Company's contribution to provident fund, superannuation fund and employee state insurance are considered as defined contribution plans and are charged as an expense based on the amount of contribution required to be made and when services are rendered by the employees.

Defined benefit plan

For defined benefit plan in the form of gratuity, the cost of providing benefit is determined using the Projected Unit Credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each Balance Sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they occur. Past service cost is recognized immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested and otherwise is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The retirement benefit obligation recognized in the Balance Sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation as adjusted for unrecognized past service cost, as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to past service cost, plus the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the schemes.

Long-term employee benefits

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service are recognised as a liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligation as at the balance sheet date.

Short-term employee benefits

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognised during the year when the employees render the service. These benefits include performance incentive and compensated absences which are expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The cost of short-term compensated absences is accounted as under:

- (a) in case of accumulated compensated absences, when employees render the services that increase their entitlement of future compensated absences; and
- (b) in case of non-accumulating compensated absences, when the absences occur.

i. Leases

Lease arrangements where the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset substantially vest with the lessor are recognized as operating leases. Lease rentals under operating leases are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

j. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of computing diluted earnings per share, profit / (loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

k. Taxes on income

Current tax is the amount of tax payable on the taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income tax Act, 1961 and other applicable tax laws.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company.

Deferred tax is recognized on timing differences, being the differences between the taxable income and the accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted as at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for timing differences of items other than unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward losses only to the extent that reasonable certainty exists that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which these can be realized. However, if there is unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses and items relating to capital losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that there will be sufficient future taxable income available to realize the assets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date for their realisability.

Current and deferred tax relating to items directly recognized in reserves are recognized in reserves and not in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

i. Impairment of assets

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units at each Balance Sheet date are reviewed for impairment. If any indication of impairment exists, the recoverable amount of such assets is estimated and impairment is recognized, if the carrying amount of these assets exceeds their recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. When there is indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

m. Provisions and contingencies

A provision is recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are disclosed in the Notes. Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements.

n. Hedge accounting

The Company uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations relating to firm commitments/ highly probable forecast transactions. The Company designates such forward contracts in a cash flow hedging relationship by applying the hedge accounting principles set out in "Accounting Standard 30 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These forward contracts are stated at fair value at each reporting date. Changes in the fair value of these forward contracts that are designated and effective as hedges of future cash flows are recognized directly in "Hedging reserve" under Reserves and surplus, net of applicable deferred income taxes and the ineffective portion is recognized immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Amounts accumulated in the "Hedging reserve" are reclassified to the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same periods during which the committed/ forecasted transaction affects profit or loss. Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated, or exercised, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. For committed/ forecasted transaction, any cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognized in "Hedging reserve" is retained until the committed/ forecasted transaction occurs. If the committed/ forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the net cumulative gain or loss recognized in "Hedging reserve" is immediately transferred to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

o. Operating cycle

Based on the nature of products/activities of the Company and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

d) Disputed demands of Income-tax	1,285,298,864	1,410,577,388

Details of disputed demands of Income-tax by issue and by year are as below:

(i) Disallowance of claims made under Section 10A of the Income-tax Act, 1961

The Company does its business of software exports through multiple operating units or undertakings registered under the Software Technology Park Scheme of India. In computing taxable profit from the export of software, the Company claims exemptions provided to registered software technology parks undertakings and units as provided under Section 10A of the Income-tax Act, 1961 ("Act").

The Income-tax department in its assessments has been denying or limiting the benefits of Section 10A of the Act to the multiple undertakings of the Company on the ground that they were in fact one single unit and thus the benefits claimed were in excess of permissible limits, and had raised a demand of ₹720,298,198 (As at 31.03.14 - ₹720,298,198) for financial year 2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10.

₹Nil (As at 31.03.2014-₹236,805,408) for the financial year 2005-06. The Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) had given a favorable order against which the department had filed an appeal before Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT). Income Tax Appellate Tribunal has dismissed the appeal during the current year.

For the financial year 2006-07, the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) had given a favorable order against which the department had filed an appeal before Income Tax Appellate Tribunal. For the financial year 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10, the Company has challenged the decision of Assessing Officer and has preferred appeals to the Commissioner of Income-Tax (Appeals).

For the financial year 2001-02, Income Tax Appellate Tribunal had given a favorable order on the ground of income accrued under Section 10A of the Act against which the department had filed an appeal before the High Court of Mumbai ₹ 14,863,703 (As at 31.04.14 - ₹14,863,703).

(ii) Inter-unit set-off of losses

As discussed in point (i) above, the Company operates multiple operating units and undertakings under the Software Technology Park Scheme of India. While computing its taxable profits, losses from one undertaking were set off against profits of another or carried forward to the subsequent years. The Income-tax department had disallowed such carry forward of losses. The Company received favorable orders from ITAT and the department had preferred an appeal before the Mumbai High Court which is yet to be admitted for financial years 2004-05 and hence there is no contingent liability.

₹ 12,321,813 (As at 31.03.14 ₹ 7,770,960) for the financial year 2002-03 and 2003-04. The Company has preferred appeals before ITAT.

(iii) Disallowance of Inter-Company Service Charges

The Company charges Sonata Information Technology Limited, its wholly owned subsidiary, for certain support services rendered. During assessments, the Income-tax department denied Section 10A of the Act benefits on such support services and assessed the same as normal business income and raised demand of ₹233,708,329 (As at 31.03.14 - ₹138,367,875) for financial years 2001-02, 2002-03, 2003-04 and 2004-05. The Company had received favorable orders from Income Tax Appellate Tribunal. However, the department preferred an appeal on the said orders before the Honorable High Court of Mumbai.

₹11,635,577 (As at 31.03.14- ₹Nil) for the financial year 2010-11. The Company has filed an appeal before the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) during the current year.

(iv) Withholding tax demand

The Income-Tax department has been contending that amounts paid by the Company for buying the software products is in the nature of 'Royalty' and hence had to withhold Income-tax on the same as per the Act and had raised demand of ₹284,187,956 (As at 31.03.14 - ₹ 284,187,956) for the financial years 1999-00, 2000-01 and 2001-02. The Company's contention has been that the payments were made for purchase of 'Goods' and hence was under no obligation to withhold Income tax on the same. The Company had received favorable orders from the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal which were reversed by the Honorable High Court of Karnataka. The Company had preferred a Special Leave Petition Appeal on the said order to the Honorable Supreme Court of India, which had been admitted. However, for these years one of the principal suppliers of software to the Company had paid taxes of ₹ 87,904,913 out of the above demand. The amount included as disputed demand is excluding the amount paid by the supplier.

(v) Deductions claimed under section 80 O

Prior to the enactment of Section 10A of the Act, the Company claimed deduction for exports made, under Section 80 O of the Act. The department had re-opened the assessments and disallowed certain aspects of the claims made on the contention that cost allocation principles followed for the claim are erroneous and raised a demand of ₹ 8,283,288 (As at 31.03.14 - ₹ 8,283,288) for the financial year 1994-95. The Company had received favorable orders from Income-Tax Appellate Tribunal. The department had preferred an appeal on the said order before the Honorable High Court of Mumbai.

e) In addition, the Company in the ordinary course of business receives various claims from its customers and other business partners. Based on review of such matters and the information available at this time, the Company does not anticipate that any of these will result in a settlement that will have a material impact on its financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements are prepared by applying uniform accounting policies in use at the Group.

The financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary companies have been combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book value of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses after eliminating intra-group balances, intragroup transactions and unrealized profits or losses. The Management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the consolidated financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognized in the periods in which the results are known / materialize.

e. Depreciation / Amortisation

Depreciable amount for assets is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its estimated residual value.

Depreciation has been provided on buildings and plant and equipments on the straight-line method and on furniture and fixtures, vehicles and office equipments on the written down method, as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the 2013 Act.

Leasehold land and leasehold improvements are amortised over primary lease period.

Intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful life on straight-line method as follows:

The estimated useful life of the intangible assets and the amortisation period are reviewed at the end of each financial year and the amortisation period is revised to reflect the changed pattern, if any.

Foreign Subsidiaries

Depreciation has been provided on all the assets on the straight line method considering 5 years as useful life.

f. Revenue recognition

Revenues from contracts priced on a time and material basis are recognised when services are rendered and related costs are incurred.

Revenues from fixed price contracts are recognised over the life of the contract using the proportionate completion method, with contract costs determining the degree of completion. Foreseeable losses on such contracts are recognised when probable.

Revenues from sale of software licenses are recognised on transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyers, which generally coincides with delivery where there is no customisation required. In case of customisation, the same is recognised over the life of the contract using the proportionate completion method, with contract cost determining the degree of completion. Foreseeable losses on such contracts are recognised when probable.

Revenues from maintenance contracts are recognised pro-rata over the period of the contract.

Revenues are reported net of discounts.

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive it is established. Interest income is accounted on accrual basis.

g. Fixed Assets (Tangible/Intangible)

Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation / amortization and impairment losses, if any. The cost of fixed assets comprises its purchase price net of any trade discounts and rebates, any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the tax authorities), any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use. Subsequent expenditure if any on fixed assets after its purchase / completion is capitalized only if such expenditure results in an increase in the future benefits from such asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance.

Capital work-in-progress

Projects under which tangible fixed assets are not yet ready for their intended use are carried at cost, comprising direct cost, related incidental expenses and attributable interest.

Integral foreign operations: Transactions in foreign currencies entered into by the Company's integral foreign operations are accounted at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction or at rates that closely approximate the rate at the date of the transaction.

Integral foreign operations: Exchange differences arising on settlement / restatement of foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities of the Company's integral foreign operations are recognised as income or expense in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Accounting for forward contracts

Premium / discount on forward exchange contracts, which are not intended for trading or speculation purposes, are amortised over the period of the contracts if such contracts relate to monetary items as at the balance sheet date. Exchange difference on such contracts are recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss of the reporting period in which the exchange rate changes. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of such a forward exchange contract is recognised as income or as expense in the period in which such cancellation or renewal is made.

On consolidation, in case of integral operations, assets and liabilities (other than non-monetary items) are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the balance sheet date. Non-monetary items are carried at historical cost. In case of non-integral operations, assets and liabilities (both monetary and non-monetary items) are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the Balance Sheet date. Revenue and expenses are translated at yearly average exchange rates prevailing during the year in case the holding subsidiary relationship was in existence on the first day of the fiscal year. In case of subsidiaries formed or acquired during the year, the average exchange rate prevailing during the period since the holding subsidiary relationship came into existence is taken. Exchange differences arising out of these transactions are included under Exchange Loss/ Gain and charged to the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss in case of "Integral operations".

i. Investments

Long-term investments are carried individually at cost less provision for diminution, other than temporary, in the value of such investments. Current investments are carried individually, at the lower of cost and fair value. Cost of investments includes acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties.

j. Employee benefits

Employee benefits include provident fund, superannuation fund, employee state insurance scheme, gratuity and compensated absences.

Defined contribution plans

The Group's contribution to provident fund, superannuation fund and employee state insurance are considered as defined contribution plans and are charged as an expense based on the amount of contribution required to be made as and when services are rendered by the employees.

Defined benefit plan

For defined benefit plan in the form of gratuity, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognized in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they occur. Past service cost is recognized immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested and otherwise is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The retirement benefit obligation recognized in the Balance Sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation as adjusted for unrecognized past service cost, as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to past service cost, plus the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the schemes.

Long-term employee benefits

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service are recognised as a liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligation as at the balance sheet date.

Short-term employee benefits

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognised during the year when the employees render the service. These benefits include performance incentive and compensated absences which are expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The cost of short-term compensated absences is accounted as under:

- (a) In case of accumulated compensated absences, when employees render the services that increase their entitlement of future compensated absences; and
- (b) In case of non-accumulating compensated absences, when the absences occur.

k. Segment

The Group identifies primary segments based on the dominant source, nature of risks and returns and the internal organization and management structure. The operating segments are the segments for which separate financial information is available and for which operating profit / loss amounts are evaluated regularly by the executive Management in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance.

Revenue, expense, assets and liabilities which relate to the group as a whole and are not allocable to segment on reasonable basis have been included under unallocated revenue/expenses/assets/liabilities.

l. Leases

Lease arrangements where the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset substantially vest with the lessor are recognized as operating leases. Lease rentals under operating leases are recognized in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

m. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of computing diluted earnings per share, profit / (loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

n. Taxes on income

Current tax is the amount of tax payable on the taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income tax Act, 1961 and other applicable tax laws.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company.

Deferred tax is recognized on timing differences, being the differences between the taxable income and the accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted as at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for timing differences of items other than unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward losses only to the extent that reasonable certainty exists that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which these can be realized. However, if there is unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses, deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainty that there will be sufficient future taxable income available to realize the assets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date for their realizability.

Current and deferred tax relating to items directly recognized in reserves are recognised in reserves and not in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

o. Impairment of assets

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units at each Balance Sheet date are reviewed for impairment. If any indication of impairment exists, the recoverable amount of such assets is estimated and impairment is recognized, if the carrying amount of these assets exceeds their recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. When there is indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognized in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

p. Provisions and contingencies

A provision is recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are disclosed in the Notes. Contingent assets are not recognized in the Consolidated financial statements.

q. Hedge accounting

The Group uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations relating to firm commitments / highly probable forecast transactions. The Group designates such forward contracts in a cash flow hedging relationship by applying the hedge accounting principles set out in "Accounting Standard 30 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These forward contracts are stated at fair value at each reporting date. Changes in the fair value of these forward contracts that are designated and effective as hedges of future cash flows are recognized directly in "Hedging reserve" under Reserves and surplus, net of applicable deferred income taxes and the ineffective portion is recognized immediately in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. Amounts accumulated in the "Hedging reserve" are reclassified to the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss in the same periods during which the committed/ forecasted transaction affects profit or loss. Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated, or exercised, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. For committed/ forecasted transaction, any cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognized in "Hedging reserve" is retained until the committed/ forecasted transaction occurs. If the committed/ forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the net cumulative gain or loss recognized in "Hedging reserve" is immediately transferred to the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

r. Operating Cycle

Based on nature of product/ activities of the Company and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

Premium / discount on forward exchange contracts, which are not intended for trading or speculation purposes, are amortized over the period of the contracts if such contracts relate to monetary items as at the balance sheet date. Exchange difference on such contracts are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss of the reporting period in which the exchange rate changes. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of such a forward exchange contract is recognised as income or as expense in the period in which such cancellation or renewal is made.

h. Employee benefits

Employee benefits include provident fund, superannuation fund, employee state insurance scheme, gratuity and compensated absences.

Defined contribution plans

The Company's contribution to provident fund, superannuation fund and employee state insurance are considered as defined contribution plans and are charged as an expense based on the amount of contribution required to be made and when services are rendered by the employees.

Defined benefit plan

For defined benefit plan in the form of gratuity, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected unit credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each Balance Sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they occur. Past service cost is recognized immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested and otherwise is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The retirement benefit obligation recognized in the Balance Sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation as adjusted for unrecognized past service cost, as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to past service cost, plus the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the schemes.

Long-term employee benefits

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service are recognised as a liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligation as at the balance sheet date.

Short-term employee benefits

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognised during the year when the employees render the service. These benefits include performance incentive and compensated absences which are expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The cost of short-term compensated absences is accounted as under:

- (a) in case of accumulated compensated absences, when employees render the services that increase their entitlement of future compensated absences; and
- (b) in case of non-accumulating compensated absences, when the absences occur.

i. Leases

Lease arrangements where the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset substantially vest with the lessor are recognized as operating leases. Lease rentals under operating leases are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

j. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of computing diluted earnings per share, profit / (loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

k. Taxes on income

Current tax is the amount of tax payable on the taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income tax Act, 1961 and other applicable tax laws.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company.

Deferred tax is recognized on timing differences, being the differences between the taxable income and the accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted as at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for timing differences of items other than unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward losses only to the extent that reasonable certainty exists that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which these can be realized. However, if there is unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses and items relating to capital losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that there will be sufficient future taxable income available to realize the assets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date for their realisability.

Current and deferred tax relating to items directly recognized in reserves and not in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

l. Impairment of assets

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units at each balance sheet date are reviewed for impairment. If any indication of impairment exists, the recoverable amount of such assets is estimated and impairment is recognized, if the carrying amount of these assets exceeds their recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. When there is indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

m. Provisions and contingencies

A provision is recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are disclosed in the Notes. Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements.

n. Hedge Accounting

The Company uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations relating to firm commitments/ highly probable forecast transactions. The Company designates such forward contracts in a cash flow hedging relationship by applying the hedge accounting principles set out in "Accounting Standard 30 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These forward contracts are stated at fair value at each reporting date. Changes in the fair value of these forward contracts that are designated and effective as hedges of future cash flows are recognized directly in "Hedging reserve" under Reserves and surplus, net of applicable deferred income taxes and the ineffective portion is recognized immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Amounts accumulated in the "Hedging reserve" are reclassified to the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same periods during which the committed/ forecasted transaction affects profit or loss. Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated, or exercised, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. For committed/ forecasted transaction, any cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognized in "Hedging reserve" is retained until the committed/ forecasted transaction occurs. If the committed/ forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the net cumulative gain or loss recognized in "Hedging reserve" is immediately transferred to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

o. Operating Cycle

Based on the nature of products/ activities of the Company and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

10 (iv) During the year, pursuant to the notification of Schedule II to the 2013 Act with effect from 01.04.2014, the Company revised the estimated useful life of its assets to align the useful life with those specified in Schedule II. Further, assets individually costing ₹ 5,000/- or less that were depreciated fully in the year of purchase are now depreciated based on the useful life considered by the Company for the respective category of assets.

Pursuant to the transition provisions prescribed in Schedule II to the 2013 Act, the Company has fully depreciated the carrying value of assets, net of residual value, where the remaining useful life of the asset was determined to be nil as on 01.04.2014, and has adjusted an amount of ₹ 98,719/- (net of tax) against the opening balance in Surplus in Statement of Profit & Loss under Reserves and surplus.

The depreciation expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss for the year is higher by ₹ 3,129/- consequent to the change in the useful life of the assets.

a) Disputed demand of Karnataka Sales Tax	294,017	294,017
b) Disputed demand of Service Tax	21,352,990	21,352,990
The demand for payment of service tax on repair service relating to software is based on Board circular of the department issued with retrospective effect. The Company had filed appeal before Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT) and had got stay on recovery until disposal of appeal. It is confident of getting favorable outcome based on legal precedents which supports its stand.
c) Disputed demands of Income-tax	3,335,057,176	2,500,916,769

Details of disputed demands of Income-tax by issue and by year are as below:

(i) Disallowance of Inter-Company service charges and costs for deputation of personnel.

Sonata Software Limited, the holding company charges the Company for certain support services rendered and for the cost of project personnel deputed. These support services and costs for deputation are being disallowed by the Income-tax department while computing taxable profits of the Company. The Company has challenged these disallowances and consequent demands at appellate levels and is confident of a favorable outcome.

Details of Demands and Forums where they are pending are:

- i. ₹402,964,082 (As at 31.03.2014 - ₹319,683,404) for the financial years 2001-02, 2003-04, 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08. The Company has received favorable orders from the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal. The Income-tax department has preferred an appeal to the Honorable High Court of Mumbai.
- ii. ₹ 212,999,547 (As at 31.03.2014 - ₹ 111,904,892) for the financial year 2010-11 and 2011-12. The Company has preferred an appeal to the Commissioner of Income-tax (Appeals).
- iii. ₹ Nil (As at 31.03.2014 - ₹ 98,468,823) for the financial year 2008-09. During the year, the Company has received favorable orders from the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal.

- iv. ₹91,884,882 (As at 31.03.2014 - ₹ Nil) for the financial year 2009-10. The Company had received favourable order from the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals). During the year, the Income-tax department has preferred an appeal to the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal.
- v. ₹44,659,336 (As at 31.03.2014 - ₹ 44,659,336) for the financial year 2002-03. The Income-tax department's appeal to the Honorable High Court of Mumbai was time barred and hence dismissed. The Income-tax department had preferred a Special Leave Petition on the said dismissal to the Honorable Supreme Court of India which had referred the petition back to the Honorable High Court of Mumbai to reconsider its decision. During the year, the Honorable High Court of Mumbai admitted the appeal.

(ii) Withholding tax demand

The Company is engaged in the business of buying and selling packaged software in India. The Income-tax department has been contending that amounts paid by the Company for buying the software products is in the nature of 'Royalty' and hence had to withhold income-tax on the same as per the Income-tax Act, 1961, and had raised demands of ₹218,239,587 (As at 31.03.2014 - ₹218,239,587) for the financial years 2000-01 and 2001-02. The Company's contention has been that the payments were made for purchase of 'Goods' and hence was under no obligation to withhold income-tax on the same. The Company had received favorable orders from the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal which were reversed by the Honorable High Court of Karnataka. The Company had preferred a Special Leave Petition Appeal on the said order to the Honorable Supreme Court of India, which had been admitted. However, for these years one of the principal suppliers of software to the Company had paid taxes of ₹128,598,266 out of the above demand. The amount included as disputed demand is excluding the amount paid by the supplier.

(iii) Disallowance of payments made for purchase of software on which income-tax was not withheld.

Payment in the nature of Royalty on which Income-tax have not been deducted at source are subject to disallowance as an 'expense' as per Sections 40(a)(i) and 40(a)(ia) while computing taxable profits of the Company. Consequent to issue described in (ii) above, the Income-tax department, holding payments for purchase of software as "Royalty" disallowed the same while computing taxable profits of the Company.

The Honorable High Court of Karnataka had given an unfavorable decision on the issue covered in (ii) above.

However, the said demands which are consequential and penal in nature do not arise automatically and there are multiple legal precedents in favor of the Company. Based on legal opinions and feedback from its legal counsels, the Company is confident of a favorable outcome on these consequential demands.

Details of demands raised and the forum where these are pending are:

₹ 2,364,309,742 (As at 31.03.2014 - ₹ 1,707,960,727) of tax demand for the financial year 2001-02, 2002-2003, 2006-07 and 2007-08. The Company had received a favorable order from the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal. The Income-tax department has preferred an appeal to the Honorable High Court of Mumbai.
