Management Discussion and Analysis(A) Industry Structure and Development:

The Company has sustained its growth in the pharma intermediates business by increasing sales of its existing products despite cost pressure from competition and developed new products which are expected to grow in the near future.

The Company has been able to expand its stable base of business in the speciality chemicals segment and has extended its reach into the international market. The Company is also working on developing new platform technologies for new applications.

Apart from the large volume product lines like chloroformates and isocyanates, the company is developing competencies in varied products areas which also have significant market potential.

(B) Opportunities, Threats, Risks, Concerns and Outlook:

There is an opportunity for the Company to grow further in the phosgene related speciality chemicals business as well to grow in the chloroformate and isocyanate business globally. The Company is working on products and processes that will help capture a larger market share in the future. We have improved our technical team to help develop innovative technology.

The Company's endeavour is to widen its presence in multiple segments continuously and to increase customer base to reduce the dependence on any specific customer / market.

With increasing utilization of its manufacturing capacities, the Company needs to increase its investments and efforts on Environment, Health & Safety requirements considering the hazardous nature of its operations. At the same time, the Company needs to ensure that despite increase in investments for EHS, it manufactures quality products at competitive prices. We have reduced waste as much as possible via increased yields and removal of solvents. The Company has also obtained ISO 14001 and OHSAS 18001 accreditation.

Another risk / concern area is the cost competition and pricing pressure experienced in various products. The company is addressing the issue through improvement of operating efficiencies and optimizing input costs.

A further concern area is the increasing stringency in the quality requirements / specifications in certain products. This is being addressed by adopting better technologies, closer control of production processes / parameters etc.

(C) Financial Performance:

The Gross Revenue of the Company was ₹ 8,373.34 Lacs for the year under review as compared to ₹ 7,411.21 Lacs for the previous year. The Company registered a Net Profit of ₹ 1,241.82 Lacs for the year under review as compared to Net Profit of ₹ 1,299.43 Lacs for the previous year.

(D) Internal Control Systems and Adequacy:

The Company maintains a system of well-established policies and procedures for its internal control of operations and activities. The Company has appointed M/s. K. C. Mehta & Co., Chartered Accountants, Vadodara, as the Internal Auditors to ensure proper system of Internal Control and its adequacy.

The reports of Internal Auditors are presented quarterly before the Audit Committee and their recommendations are implemented.

(E) Human Resource: Developing Human Capital:

Keeping in mind the overall corporate objectives and management vision, the Company has started hiring mid-level and senior-level personnel with domain expertise to move with times in the field of automation & newer engineering technologies. This will enable the company to grow and compete in the global market, by efficient utilization of increase in capacities, reducing costs & energy savings.

A very strong development team consisting of competent engineers & chemists has been put in place and are already yielding rich dividends for the company, in terms of high quality output.

The engineering team has also been re-organized for better efficiency and results are already visible.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To The Members of
Paushak Limited

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of PAUSHAK LIMITED, which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2016, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position and financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made there under.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2016, and its profit and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.
