- Successful implementation of cost effective initiatives undertaken by the management in all areas of operations.
- Significant improvement was made in the synergy optimization in cost/efforts and opportunities, and other areas of operations.

RETAIL EXPANSION PLAN

During the year under review, the efforts in retail expansion plan were further intensified and the company opened 3 more retail stores during the year. The company had launched a new chain of retail stores dealing in Fashion Jewellery, Silver items, accessories and gift items targeting at the medium-end customers. The company has virtually benefited by this expansion that helped to develop its brand name through customer satisfaction.

This business plan of exploiting the business potentials of tier 2 cities / town in the State of Tamilnadu on implementation, not only yielded results but also given reasonable confidence to the management to complete the branch expansion plan as scheduled in the remaining places as mentioned in the Public issue Prospectus document.

We are now operating from seven outlets and likely to improve our presence in eleven places by end of March 2011. We are suitably placed in a vantage position to fully exploit the Rural India Growth Story by penetrating deeper into Rural towns particularly in the southern districts of Tamilnadu where a significant gold jewellery business takes place .

Your directors are considering a proposal of opening up of customer care centers in smaller towns attached to our main branches and also are seriously considering a proposal of appointment of 'Franchise dealer' model in unrepresented areas in order to fully optimize the various synergies already established. All these 'Retail area expansion plans' evolved would bear fruits in the years to come and enable the company to maintain the leadership position in southern parts of the State of Tamilnadu.

FUTURE PROSPECTS

Going forward, the business model as demonstrated by your company can easily be replicated in various selected towns. With the consumer awareness improving year after year, for the quality parameters on the one hand, and the effective polarization taking place in the supply side on the other hand the future prospects of the company is ensured. Though operating in a competitive environment, the uniqueness of the model ensures a comfortable level of net margin availability to your company.

FINANCE

Your company's financial position is comfortable. As against the combined sanctioned working capital limit of Rs.120 crores, the company utilized only up to Rs.63.24 crores as at the end of financial year. With the available resource garnered out of IPO, together with internal accruals and with the undrawn limit from banks, the company should be in a position to comfortably complete the ongoing retail expansion plan and meet its working capital requirements fully.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT

Pursuant to the requirement under Section 217 (2AA) of the Companies Act, 1956, with respect to the Directors' Responsibility Statement, it is hereby confirmed:

- i) That in the preparation of the accounts for the financial year ended March 31, 2010, the applicable accounting standards have generally been followed except for small deviations as explained in the Notes on accounts;
- ii) That the Directors have selected such accounting policies and applied them consistently and made judgments and estimates that were reasonable and prudent so as to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company at the end of the financial year and of the profit of the Company for the year under review;
- iii) That the Directors have taken proper and sufficient care for the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities;
- iv) That the Directors have prepared the accounts for the financial year ended March 31, 2010 on a 'going concern' basis.

CHANGE IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The company is effecting changes in accounting policies as follows:

i) Advertisement and Publicity expenses

The company was following the accounting policy upto last year of deferring the cost incurred on advertisement/publicity to be amortised over a five-year period commencing from the succeeding financial year.

It is decided to change the accounting policy of Deferred Revenue expense to amortize the cost incurred on advertisement/publicity as 20% in both of the year in which it is incurred and in the ensuing year and the balance to be amortised equally in next two years. (i.e. in the ratio of 20:20:30:30). Consequent to this change, the selling expenses is overstated by Rs.278.45 Lakhs resulting in understatement of Net Profit (Net of DTL) by Rs.183.81 lakhs. In the opinion of the directors, after taking into consideration the enduring life span of unexploited Advertisement and Publicity expenses the residual Deferred Revenue Expenditure as reflected in the Balance sheet is fair and proper.

ii) Bonus and Gratuity

The company was following cash basis of accounting for certain employee costs such as Bonus and Gratuity. It is now decided to change the above accounting policy as; to account bonus on accrual basis and adopting actuarial valuation for accounting the liability for gratuity under projected unit credit method.

The above effect has understated the Net profit after Tax by Rs.14.20 lakhs for the year ended 31/3/2010.

The above changes in accounting policy were made in consonance with the applicability of Accounting Standard 15 on 'Accounting for Employee Benefits'.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INDUSTRY SCENRIO

INDIAN GEMS AND JEWELLERY INDUSTRY

According to World Gold Council (WGC), the Indian jewellery market currently is worth about Rs.700 bn (USD14.58 bn). Of this, the urban jewellery market is valued at Rs.280 bn (USD5.83 bn) and the rural & semi rural market is valued at Rs.420 bn (USD 8.75 bn). Gold jewellery forms around 80% of the Indian jewellery market (approx. Rs.560 bn (USD 11.67 bn)), with the balance comprising fabricated studded jewellery that includes diamond studded as well as gemstone studded jewellery. A predominant portion of gold jewellery manufactured in India is for domestic consumption.

The Indian gems and jewellery industry is competitive in the world market due to its low cost of production and availability of skilled labour. The industry employs over 1.40 mn people directly and indirectly.

The Indian gems and jewellery sector is largely unorganized at present. There are over 120,000 Jewellery manufacturing units throughout India.

Family jewellers, who constitute nearly 95% of the market, dominate the industry. Organised players have, however, been growing steadily carving a 5% market share. As India's jeweller' market matures, it is expected to get more organised and the share of family jewellers is expected to decline by the process of effective retail marketing and polarization factors.

Rural and Middle Class Population Demand

Data from National Council for Applied Economic Research (NCAER) indicates that India's income earning population will expand by 8% from 26% in FY06 to 34% in FY10. Even the upper-middle class population is expected to rise from 8% to 10% during the same period. These two segments are expected to fuel consumption growth of luxurious items and this bodes well for the jewellery industry. Disposable income in India increased at a CAGR of 11% since 1997. The median age of Indians is 25 years, one of the lowest in the world compared to 35 in US and 33.6 in China. The urban population which currently accounts for 30% of the total population is expected to increase to 40% by the year 2020. With rising young population, the jewellery industry has significant potential for growth. A well integrated rural India believes in gold more as securing by investment item and it will continue to be backbone of the Indian economy and particularly for influencing gold Jewellery demand.

Shift in buying patterns

Increasing urbanisation, higher percentage of younger population, more working women and easy availability of credit cards have all led to impulse buying and preference for a better lifestyle. As per the National Sample Survey data, in urban India the share of essential items like food, clothing, electricity & fuel and footwear in the total average annual per capita consumption expenditure has reduced whereas the share of durable goods has increased, which reflects the changing preferences of consumers. However, in spite of the increasing preference for luxury items, the per capital spending by an Indian is lowest in the world. It augers well for the continuous growth for the Company's products.

Branded Jewellery

Jewellery retailing in India is undergoing a slow transformation from a largely unorganised sector to a more organised one. While the family owned jewellery store remains the predominant retail format, new formats such as boutiques, supermarkets and gold souks are emerging for jewellery retail. Branded jewellery has been a relatively recent phenomenon in India.

RISK ANALYSIS

The Company is currently operating in outlets at Madurai, Rajapalayam, Karaikudi, Ramnad, Dindigul, Theni and Sivakasi and proposes to open outlets in four other locations in 2010-11. The company has a sound understanding of the tastes and preferences of the rural/semi-urban populace and is confident of catering to the requirements of the simplest locations. However, the project carries with it geography risk which includes the following factors:

1. Tastes and Preferences:

The tastes and preferences of the populace in each of the locations are likely to have differences. For instance, the higher level of urbanization of the populace in places like Madurai as compared to Tuticorin & Tirunelveli is likely to have an impact on the product profile that is likely to be sold in these markets.

The Jewellery offerings must reflect the tastes and preferences of a wide range of consumers whose preferences may change regularly. Our strategy has been to offer a wide variety of styles of fine jewellery, but there can be no assurance that these styles will continue to be popular with consumers in the future. If the styles we offer become less popular with consumers and we are not able to adjust our inventory in a timely manner, our sales may decline or fall to meet expected levels.

2. Impact of competition:

Jewellery retailing trade is a highly competitive industry. Each of the locations has well established players who already have a strong foot hold on the market. In addition to the 4-5 large organized players, the market is also fragmented with upto 80% of the market being executed by small, unorganized players. The company carries the risk of establishing volumes in a highly competitive industry.

Recently, Madurai has seen the entry of Alukkas Jewellers, Bhima Jewellers and Kalyan Jewellers are Kerala based retailers who has a presence in 10 other cities. Such new entrants come in with the financial muscle that comes out of managing 10 – 15 outlets and hence have the ability to spend heavily on advertising and on maintaining higher levels of inventory.

Similar entry by other players in Madurai as well as other locations targeted by Thangamayil could make business difficult and affect profitability in the long run.

3. Demand for gold jewellery

Luxury products, such as gold jewellery, diamonds and fine jewellery, form part of the discretionary purchases for consumers. The volume and value of such purchases may significantly decrease during economic downturns. The success of our business depends partly on macro economic factors such as economic growth, employment levels, income levels, tax rates and credit availability, all of which affect consumer spending and disposable income. Any reduction in consumer spending or disposable income may affect us more significantly than companies in other industries.

Our sales and results of operations are highly dependent on the demand for gold jewellery. Should prevailing consumer tastes for jewellery decline, demand for our products would decline and our business and results of operations would be adversely affected.

The retailing of gold jewellery is extremely fragmented and the small retailers do not always follow sound business practices. From time to time, attempts have been made to have discounts and promotions that involve the sale of inferior quality jewellery. We expect such efforts to continue in the future. If any such efforts are successful in creating widespread demand for lower quality products, demand and price levels for our products would decline and our business and results of operations would be substantially harmed.

4. Our Profitability may be affected by commodity price sensitivity

The jewellery industry in general is affected by fluctuations in the prices of precious metals and precious and semi –precious stones. The availability and prices of gold, diamonds and other precious metals and precious and semi – precious stones may be influenced by cartels, political instability in exporting countries and inflation. Shortages of these materials or sharp changes in their prices could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations or financial condition. Our future revenue and profitability will be dependent to a significant extent upon prevailing spot market prices for gold and diamonds. In the past, gold prices have been volatile. Prices are subject to wide fluctuations in response to changes in supply and demand for gold and diamonds, market uncertainty and variety of additional factors that are beyond our control.

In the past, the volume of sales has shown a high negative correlation with gold prices. The recent hike in gold prices has resulted in significant reduction in volume of gold sold. A fall in gold prices has likewise seen the opposite impact of resulting in a surge in demand for gold jewellery. Hence significant increases in the international prices of gold could adversely affect market demand for gold jewellery and hence have an adverse impact on operations.

5. Internal Control System

The Company has in place adequate system of internal control. It has documented procedures covering all financial and operating functions. These controls have been designed to provide a reasonable assurance with regard to maintaining of proper accounting controls, monitoring of operations, protecting assets from unauthorized use or losses, compliances with regulations and for ensuring reliability of financial reporting. The Company has continued its efforts to align all its processes and controls with global best practices in these areas as well.

Some significant features of the internal control systems are:

- Corporate policies on accounting and major processes;
- Well-defined processes for formulating and reviewing annual and long term business plans;
- Preparation and monitoring of annual budgets for all trading activities
- Having introduced state of the art Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) since August 2008, supplier Relations Management and Customer Relations Management, to connect its different locations, dealers and vendors.
- Monthly meeting of the top management committee to review operations and plans in key business areas;
- A well established multi disciplinary Internal Audit team, which reviews and reports to management and the Audit Committee about the compliance with internal controls and the efficiency and effectiveness of operations and the key process risks;
- Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, comprising independent directors, which is functional since October 2007, regularly reviews the audit plans, significant audit findings, adequacy of internal controls, compliance with Accounting Standards as well as reasons for changes in accounting policies and practices, if any;
- A comprehensive information security policy and continuous upgrades to IT system;
- Documenting Major Business Process including financial reporting, Computer Controlling, Security Checks and Top Committee level Plans.
- Anti-fraud programme.

The Board takes responsibility for the total process of risk management in the organisation. The Audit Committee reviews reports covering operational, financial and other business risk areas. Taking into Consideration the high risk associated with this business, the organisation and management have taken necessary measures towards achieving an environment, free of fraud. This is also facilitated by internal audit. The business risks are managed through cross functional involvement and intense communication across businesses. Results of the risk assessment and residual risks are presented to the senior management.

6. Quality of our products

Our strength lies in understanding the requirement of the customer and our execution capabilities. This has enabled us to get repeat orders from our existing customers and attract new customers ,we believe that the intricacies of our designs and quality of our products' finish enables us to get better margins on the products manufactured by us.

7. Inventory Management.

The Company closely monitors the movement of inventory and identifies fast moving designs for repeat orders and larger inventory holding.

TMJL's production and inventory are planned as per the delivery schedules. Finished goods are dispatched to customers as soon as the production is complete. The Company maintains small inventory of certain fast moving items to meet any repeat orders. The inventory normally consists of raw materials like gold, diamonds, consumables and work-in-progress. This inventory is maintained to meet the production requirements as per the production plan.

Substantially all of the fine jewellery TMJL sells is from its physical inventory. Changes in consumer tastes for these products subjects TMJL to significant Inventory risks.

8. Seasonal fluctuations in sales

We have experienced and expect to continue to experience seasonal fluctuations in our sales. In particular, we have historically experienced higher jewellery sales during the third and fourth quarters of our fiscal year, as a result of the Diwali and the Christmas holiday season and we expect this seasonality to continue in the future. In fiscal 2006, approximately 60% of our jewellery sales were generated during the third and fourth quarters of the year. We also experience considerable fluctuations in sales in the periods proceeding other special annual occasions such as Diwali, Akshaya Tritiya and New Year festivities.

In anticipation of increased sales activity during the second quarter of our fiscal year, we may incur significant additional expenses, including higher inventory of jewellery and additional staffing in our customer support operations. If we were to experience lower than expected sales during any future third quarter or during the above mentioned festivities, it would have a disproportionately large impact on our operating results and financial condition for that year.

In the future, our seasonal sales patterns may become more pronounced that may strain our personnel activities and may cause a shortfall in sales as compared to the expenses incurred in a given period, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

9. Successful Management of New Outlets.

The project proposes a growth of over 100% in revenue terms over the next 2 years through the setting up of 5 additional outlets. Each of these outlets needs to be effectively managed to ensure the successful scaling up of operations.

10. Enterprises Resources Program (ERP)

We have implemented our ERP programme under the name of “SAP Business 1” in August 2008. We have purchased the ERP program from Mahindra Logisoft Business Solutions. At present, all our retail counters are equipped with ERP oriented programs. In our ERP program, we have supply chain module and a financial module. All our stocks are generated through the system which is then bar coded by unique numbers with the details embossed on the barcodes. Thereafter, the products are transferred to various locations. Our retail system is maintained in the ERP program itself. All the accounting procedure is done through the same.

We intend to implement some other modules to minimize the workload at our offices and retail counters. We are also in the process of developing the system in a user-friendly system which may also be customized.

11. Health, Safety and Environment

We are committed to protecting the health and safety of our craftsmen and employees working in our factories, people who come in contact with our operations and the health and sustainability of the environment in which we operate.

12. Balanced level of leverage

Currently the company has low leverage, but the proposed expansion involves an investment of fixed assets and investments on Gold, Diamond, and Silver and for the initial marketing campaign to be financed by partly IPO proceeds and internal accruals.

Our indebtedness could have several important consequences, including but not limited to the following;

Fluctuations in market interest rates may affect the cost of our borrowings, as most of our indebtedness is at variable interest rates.

We may be more vulnerable to economic downturns, may be limited in our ability to withstand competitive pressures and may have reduced flexibility in responding to changing business, regulatory and economic conditions.

We believe that our relationships with lenders are good, and we have in the past obtained consents from them to undertake various actions and have informed them of our activities from time to time.

13. Brand Equity and Valuation

The Company has been conducting business under the house name “Thangamayil Jewellery”. The house name has been established and promoted in Madurai and the areas surrounding Madurai for over a decade. This brand value has accrued through consistent efforts that have included quality and price assurance, advertisement and promotion and the retail experience. Currently, the Company enjoys a market share in excess of 15% in the sale of Gold and Diamond Jewellery in the city of Madurai and surroundings.

While the customers are being drawn from areas including Theni, Dindigul, Sivakasi etc the Company expanded its business and established retail outlets at each of other locations in order to service these locations better.

The brand building efforts of the past have helped the Company establish comfort with the customers of Madurai and surrounding areas on certain factors such as price assurance, variety, quality etc., which until such time unique in the Madurai market. In order to facilitate the geographical expansion, to penetrate these competitive markets, and to take the Company’s brand image to the next level, the Company is in the process of finalizing its Advertising and Branding strategy as on ongoing policy.

In the next leg of the brand building exercise the Company's key objectives are as follows:

Build Thangamayil's image as one with the best in the trade nationwide rather than only in Tamilnadu;

Extend Thangamayil's footprint to other cities ;

Create an aura of exclusivity around the brand name while at the same time retaining Thangamayil's unique contact with the culture and tradition of the people in Madurai, Tirunelveli, Ramnad, Rajapalayam & Karaikudi;

Target the correct audience and maximize impact on this targeted segment and create a strong and long lasting bond between the customer and the Brand image created for Thangamayil.

The Company plans to leverage the existing popularity of the house name and sell Gold, Diamond and Platinum jewellery under the brand name "Thangamayil" at retail outlets in the cities mentioned above. The Company is in the process of getting the necessary trademarks in place with respect to the branding of their Jewellery.

The brand building has got a tremendous cost of requiring considerable funding. As more number of branches were opened and operating at satisfactory level, it is decided by the management to accumulate the write off in advertisement expenses by changing the accounting policies hitherto followed with a view to reflect the possible enduring value in the form of Deferred Revenue Expenditure.

14. Sales and Marketing

The efficiency of the marketing and sales network is a critical success factor for our Company. Our success lies in the strength of our relationship with our customers who have been associated with our Company for a long period. To retain our customers, our marketing team regularly interacts with them and focuses on gaining an insight into the additional needs of such customers. Quite often, we are conducting exhibition in smaller towns and also interacting with the customers to find out their preference and choices.

SWOT ANALYSIS

Strengths

- The longevity of the House name and the promoters' experience and the fact they bring with them a 60 year's history.
- Ability to obtain competitive terms of supply from suppliers given the volumes procured.
- High orientation towards quality which is evidenced by the efforts and expenditure incurred towards Hallmarking as well as the promotional efforts incurred in creating awareness amongst the public about the need for and benefits of Hallmarking.
- Availability of a wide range of products and ability to source from diverse regions – the Company is able to source from the states of Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat, Kerala, and West Bengal and from on account of strong relationships with suppliers.

Weakness

- The Company proposes an expansion of upto 200% in the inventory levels held. This could potentially lead to commodity risk. This is proposed to be mitigated to a certain extent through hedging mechanisms such as gold loans.
- The Jewellery retailing industry remains susceptible to slumps in demand caused by spikes in gold prices. The ability of the Company to spur increased spending and shift in purchasing from unorganized to organized retail outlets is key to its success in countering this risk. However, the low breakeven point of this project largely mitigates the risk associated from slump in demand.
- The Company currently operates in Madurai, Ramnad, Rajapalayam, Karaikudi, Dindigul, Theni and Sivakasi. While the Company has plans to establish a presence across the State, currently the geographical presence is limited. As it expands geographically, the Company's ability to keep a close pulse on the customers' tastes and preferences is extremely important.

Opportunities

- Sustained performance over the last few years in Madurai and surrounding towns provides platform for growth into other class B cities in Tamilnadu with similar customer profile.
- Growing acceptance and preference of customers for Hallmarked and high quality products presents an opportunity to distinguish oneself from unorganized companies.
- An analysis of retailing patterns in other Southeast Asian countries reveals that they too had similar retailing patterns where upto 80% of the trade was unorganized. But even in such countries there has been a large shift in retail sales from unorganized outlets. This affords a huge opportunity for retailers in India given that the growth of the Indian market has largely mirrored the Southeast Asian experience albeit with a lag of 5-10 years.

Threats

- The Jewellery business is a highly competitive industry. Off late, many large retailers have been setting up chains across metros and in class B cities as well. Competition from other retailers could drive down margins.
- Even in Madurai, the recent entry of other big and established players poses a threat to the House Name;
- The Company faces threat from unorganized players operating at the local level since the gems and Jewellery industry is largely dominated by unorganized sector
- The relatively small size of the Company means that there is a threat from larger players who have significantly higher capacity to incur advertising and promotional expenditure and to withstand extended periods of operating losses to fight competition.
