MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

Economic Overview

In the face of multiple challenges, global recovery of the economy is progressing at a measured pace. The picture emerging around the world is one of uncertainty and financial turmoil. Among developed economies, the US showed resilience in FY 2015 and growth in the country is projected to continue at a reasonable pace. The recovery in Euro Area during 2015-16 was restrained and is projected to continue in the backdrop of low energy prices, a reticent fiscal expansion and encouraging financial conditions. However, potential growth is expected to remain weak, resulting from high private and public debt, low investment and diminishing skills due to increasing unemployment and an ageing population.

The scenario for emergent economies and developing markets is also not consistent. China's rebalancing act and fall in prices have severely compromised the commodity exports of Brazil and Russia. This had a cascading effect on the overall global trade. The economic performance of several African countries was also disappointing. Tighter global financing conditions and a decline in commodity prices had a negative effect on resource-intensive African countries.

In FY 2015-16, India's GDP grew by 7.6%, making it one of the fastest growing major economies in the world. During the fourth quarter, a 7.9% GDP growth was recorded. Low interest rates, policy initiatives undertaken by the government, declining fiscal deficit and moderate inflation helped the Indian economy stay on a viable growth path. Depending on a favourable monsoon, in FY 2016-17 the growth rate is expected to touch 8%.

Make in India campaign of the Government is helping India emerge as a production hub for global manufacturing giants, encouraging domestic entrepreneurship and boosting employment through skill development, thereby attracting more FDI into the country.

Long-term growth potential of the country continues to be healthy focusing on increasing urbanization, faster infrastructure creation, expanding the services sector and stronger regulatory framework for banking and financial services and improving manufacturing and farm output.

Industry Structure and Developments

The metal packaging market is buyer-oriented. It has shown substantial growth due to the resurgence of the goods and beverage industry. The urge of convenient packaging in developed and developing economies is the driving force for the global metal packaging market. Emerging economies like India, China, and Brazil have changed their buying pattern by purchasing more packaged food to preserve food. Rising food market enables the global players to introduce new products, expand to new regions, and develop new technologies. Asia-Pacific with emerging nations is the most attractive market because of its inclination towards improvement in quality of food.

The global metal packaging market is projected to reach USD135.69 Billion by 2020, with a CAGR of 3.0% from 2015 to 2020. This is because strong growth of end-use industries in developing countries including India, China, and Brazil is further anticipated to propel the market growth over the projected period. The North American region accounted for around 34.4% of the total market share in terms of value, followed by the European and Asia-Pacific regions. However, as the urbanization is rising in developing countries such as China and India, are estimated to grow at a higher rate from 2015 to 2020.

The metal packaging market is primarily driven by increasing urbanization, rise in packaged food sales, increasing demand for aerosol products, rising demand for metal packaging in alcohol industry, and increasing consumption of canned vegetables and foods. Pharmaceuticals and cosmetics industry is propelling the growth of the metal packaging market. The drivers of the metal packaging market include increasing beverage and food market improved standard of living. However, the market needs to handle critical challenges such as environmental issues related to steel manufacturing and flexible packaging. Middle East, Asia Pacific, Eastern Europe, and Africa have witnessed high growth on account of consumer preference towards lightweight and easy-to-dispose packaging.

The global metal packaging market is marked with intense competition due to the presence of a large number of both big and small firms. New product launches and innovations are the key strategies adopted by market players to ensure their growth in the market.

I) Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared to comply with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of India (Indian GAAP), including the Accounting Standards notified under the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

II) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements relate to Manaksia Industries Limited ('the Company') and its subsidiary companies. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the following basis:

- a) The financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary companies are combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, after fully eliminating intra-group balances and intra group transactions in accordance with Accounting Standard (AS) 21 – "Consolidated Financial Statement".
- b) In case of foreign subsidiaries, being non-integral foreign operations, revenue items are consolidated at the average rate prevailing during the year. All assets and liabilities are converted at rates prevailing at the end of the year. Any exchange difference arising on consolidation (except on Fixed Assets) is recognized in the Exchange Fluctuation Reserve.
- c) The difference between the costs of investment in the subsidiaries, over the net assets at the time of acquisition of shares in the subsidiaries is recognised in the financial statements as Goodwill or Capital Reserve, as the case may be.
- d) Minority interest's share of net profit / loss of consolidated subsidiaries for the year is identified and adjusted against the income of the group in order to arrive at the net income attributable to shareholders of the Company.
- e) Minority interest's share of net assets of consolidated subsidiaries is identified and presented in the consolidated balance sheet separate from liabilities and the equity of the Company's shareholders.
- f) As far as possible, the consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances and are presented in the same manner as the Company's separate financial statements.

IV) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires judgements, estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual results and estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known/materialized.
