COMPANY PERFORMANCE AND OPERATIONS:

Financial Year 2016-2017 witnessed challenges in capacity utilization, majorly on account of competition from Chinese Suppliers, weak global demand and volatile exchange rates in Indian Economy. Your Company supplies products to Refractory and Abrasive industry wherein it was observed that refractory industry has faced various challenges due to major impact on steel industry.

This has impacted, the gross turnover which stood at ₹ 24,185.27 Lakhs for the year ended 31st March, 2017 i.e., approx. 23% down as compared to the previous financial year majorly on account of reduction in Raw Bauxite sales.

Further the Company reported substantial drop in Profit Before Tax (PBT) which came down to ₹ 929.90 Lakhs for the FY 2016-2017 as against ₹ 3,707.64 Lakhs for the previous financial year. The main reasons for low profitability, primarily reasons being increased prices of Raw materials and consumables especially Coal.

Your Company also runs wind power plants of 11.1 M.W. in Rajasthan & Karnataka. The plant in Karnataka is operating satisfactorily, however the wind power plant in Rajasthan faced several problems like theft of cables etc. Therefore, the generation of power was lower compared to the previous year. During the year the gross revenue from sale of power to respective state power distribution companies stood at ₹ 808.72 Lakhs as compare to ₹ 666.53 Lakhs in previous year meaning thereby that there was improvement in performance on Power count. Your Company is taking control of situation and deliberating on measures required to be taken for improvement on this count as well. Your Company has a power plant capacity of 18 Mega Watt M.W. out of which 9.6 M.W. is coal based whereas - 9 M.W. on furnace oil. Due to unaffordable price of furnace oil, the furnace oil based power plant is used as and when required.

The management is getting accustomed to state of affairs of your Company, hence in time to come the performance of your company shall improve.

Your Company envisages better performance for the Financial Year 2017-18, considering the positive changes in the economy at the domestic and Global levels. Considering the increase in potential demand, your Company has invested in expansion for increased capacity and modernisation of the Plant resulting better operational efficiency in order to reduce the cost at various levels.

Important factors that could make a difference to the Company operations include, among others, economic conditions affecting demand/supply and price conditions in the domestic and overseas markets in which the Company operates, changes in government regulations, tax laws and other statutes and incidental factors.

Although the expectations are based on reasonable assumptions, the actual results might differ.

GENERAL AND ECONOMIC REVIEW:

India has registered almost consistent steady pace of economic growth in Fiscal 2017 as it did in Fiscal 2016. Signs of improvement was mainly due to additional focus on parameters namely inflation, current account balancing and fiscal deficit. India's exports has suffered as setback on account of weak growth in advanced and emerging economies. Though the Global situation seems not promising, India is estimated to endeavor to remain the fastest growing major economy in the world. Nevertheless, trade and current account deficits have improved due to relatively lower prices for crude oil which is imported by India.

Key projects such as 'Make in India', 'Start up India', 'Digital India' and 'Skill India' seek to encourage investments and improve the ecosystem at various levels of business activity which is mainly due to several positive and strategic initiatives taken by the existing Government in order to eliminate the obstacles and ensure smooth business operations by relaxing various Policies namely Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) & Tax Rules. Aggressive roll-out of the Financial inclusion program has made banking services accessible to millions of previously unbanked people.

The Government has envisaged better economic conditions at domestic and Global level which will attribute beacon of hope for sustained growth momentum that could potentially bring vast improvements in the lives of hundreds of millions of people in our country.

The manufacturing industry and the demand thereof are influenced by general economic conditions, including, among other things, rates of economic growth, credit availability, Infrastructure spending, interest rates, environmental and tax policies, safety regulations, freight rates and fuel and commodity prices. Negative trends in any of these factors impacting the regions where the Company operates could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Orient recognizes that every business have its inherent risks and what is required is a proactive approach to identify and mitigate them in time, so that they do not impact the business negatively. #### ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH & SAFETY (EHS):

Safety and Health:

The Health and Safety of employees and associates continues to be deeply embedded in the Human Resources Policy, Corporate Social Responsibility and Environment Health and Safety (EHS) policies. The Group's Environment Health and Safety ("EHS") Charter, communicated to all employees, sets out the objectives which include zero loss-time accidents and zero occupational illness. Your Company has drawn up standards and recommendations with regard to specific EHS concerns. The standards are mandatory and apply to all sites of the Group, even if the country or local legislation is less stringent. Orient EHS policy states that as a responsible corporate citizen and employer, we have an obligation to the public, in general, and our employees, in particular, to operate our facilities and to conduct our business in such a way as to: (1) ensure the health and safety of all our employees and (2) to protect the environment. Your Company, at every level from the top to the shop-floor, monitors and reports accidents (loss-time and non-loss-time), first aid cases and near misses. Orient also continuously identifies and reduces risks and offers itself for periodic audits. The health and safety policies apply to everyone (employees, service providers, participants of onsite initiatives viz. student interns, apprentices, visitors) at all the departments of your Company. ##### Environment Footprint and Climate change:

Environment sustainability is one of the key elements in our Corporate Sustainability Model. Conservation of energy, greening of product and environment, reduction and reuse of industrial waste are key focus areas under environment initiatives. Climate change has been identified as one of the greatest challenges facing nations, governments, businesses and citizens in the coming decades. Your Company has laid out systems going beyond regulations, by continuously working on different technologies in effluent management to upgrade waste water treatment in its Units.

CONCERNS AND FUTURE OUTLOOK:

While the long term outlook for the Indian economy remains very positive, the short term outlook is uncertain. The order inflow, across businesses, remains muted and there is no pull from the channel. While the implementation of the Goods and Services Tax Act will have a positive impact in the medium term, it will accentuate short term uncertainty. With capacity utilization increasing, inflation expected to remain low, the Rupee expected to depreciate gradually and the cumulative impact of the economic reforms initiated by the Government being positive, there are hopes of higher industrial growth in the new fiscal. Under the circumstances, your Company's management will continue to focus on new products, new markets and exports to sustain growth. The Company is optimistic about increasing profitability on the back of increasing revenue and margins in the near term.

The global economic climate continues to be volatile, uncertain and prone to risks. Weak consumer sentiment and low commodity prices are expected to affect global growth adversely. For India, despite challenging global headwinds, a stable macro performance will help to remain an attractive investment destination. However, execution of the reforms agenda and commencing the investment cycle will be key determinants of India's economic performance on a long term basis.

To conclude, the strategic location of manufacturing facility, captive mineral resources and in-house thermal based power generation facility continue to keep us in a leadership position and we expect our renewed innovative focus and efficiency improvement initiatives will contribute to achieve and exceed our objectives. Your Company is able to maintain/grow market share due to superior product quality and strong brand image. Our focus on innovation ensures that we stay ahead of competition.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and under the historical cost convention.

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of financial statements are consistent with those of previous year, except for the change in accounting policy explained below.

2.1 Summary of significant accounting policies

a. Change in accounting policy

Accounting for Proposed Dividend

As per the requirements of pre-revised AS 4, the Company used to create a liability for dividend proposed/ declared after the balance sheet date if dividend related to periods covered by the financial statements. Going forward, as per AS 4(R), the company cannot create provision for dividend proposed/ declared after the balance sheet date unless a statute requires otherwise. Rather, company will need to disclose the same in notes to the financial statements. Accordingly, the company has disclosed dividend proposed by board of directors after the balance sheet date in the notes.

Had the company continued with creation of provision for proposed dividend, its surplus in the statement of profit and loss account would have been lower by ₹ 359.99 lakhs and current provision would have been higher by ₹ 359.99 lakhs ( including dividend distribution tax of ₹ 60.89 lakhs ).

b. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

c. Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment, capital work in progress are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria are met, directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use and initial estimate of decommissioning, restoring and similar liabilities. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price. Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of the plant and equipment. When significant parts of plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

Items of stores and spares that meet the definition of property, plant and equipment are capitalized at cost and depreciated over their useful life. Otherwise, such items are classified as inventories.

Gains or losses arising from derecognition of property, plant and equipment are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

The company identifies and determines cost of each component/ part of the asset separately, if the component/ part has a cost which is significant to the total cost of the asset and has useful life that is materially different from that of the remaining asset.

Significant accounting policies and notes to accounts to the financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2017*d. Depreciation on property, plant and equipment

Leasehold land is amortized on a straight line basis over the period of lease.

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is calculated on a straight-line basis using the rates arrived at, based on the useful lives as prescribed under part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, Which coincides with management's estimate of useful life, on all assets except for certain categories of plant & machinery such as Thermal Power Plant and Windmills, which are depreciated based on management estimate of the useful life of 25 years.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

e. Intangible Asset

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Intangible assets comprise of computer software which is amortized over a period of 6 years.

Intangible assets are amortized on a straight line basis over the estimated useful economic life. The amortization period and the amortization method are reviewed at least at each financial year end. If the expected useful life of the asset is significantly different from previous estimates, the amortization period is changed accordingly.

Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

f. Impairment

The company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, the company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

After impairment depreciation is provided on the reviewed carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

g. Leases*Where the Company is lessee

Leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

h. Government grants and subsidies

Grants and subsidies from the government are recognized when there is reasonable assurance that (i) the company will comply with the conditions attached to them, and (ii) the grant/subsidy will be received.

When the grant or subsidy relates to revenue, it is recognized as income on a systematic basis in the statement of profit and loss over the periods necessary to match them with the related costs, which they are intended to compensate. Where the grant relates to an asset, it is recognized as deferred income and released to income in equal amounts over the expected useful life of the related asset. Where the company receives non-monetary grants, the asset is accounted for on the basis of its acquisition cost. In case a non-monetary asset is given free of cost, it is recognized at a nominal value. Government grants of the nature of promoters' contribution are credited to capital reserve and treated as a part of the shareholders' funds

i. Inventories

Inventories are valued as follows:

|-------------------------------------|--|
| Raw materials, Stores and spares    | Lower of cost and net realizable value. Materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost. Cost is determined on weighted average basis |
| Work-in-progress and finished goods | Lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost includes direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on normal operating capacity. Cost of finished goods includes excise duty, wherever applicable. Cost is determined on a weighted average basis.                |
| Bauxite Ores                        | Lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost includes excavation cost and other direct costs to bring the inventory to present location and condition. Cost is determined on a weighted average basis.   |
| Waste                               | Net realizable value   |

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

j. Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized.

(i) Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods / bauxite ore is recognized when all the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods / bauxite ore have been passed to the buyer, usually on delivery of the good / bauxite ore. The Company collects sales taxes and value added taxes (VAT) on behalf of the government and, therefore, these are not economic benefits flowing to the Company. Hence, they are excluded from revenue. Excise duty deducted from revenue (gross) is the amount that is included in the revenue (gross) and not the entire amount of liability arising during the year.

(ii) Power generation income

Revenue from sale of power is recognized on accrual basis in accordance with the provisions of the agreements with the respective state governments/organization.

(iii) Interest

Revenue is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable. Interest income is included under the head 'other income' in the statement of profit & loss.

k. Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs include interest, amortization of ancillary costs incurred in connection with the arrangement of borrowings.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of the respective asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur.

l. Foreign currency transactions

(i) Initial Recognition

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

(ii) Conversion

Foreign currency monetary items are retranslated using the exchange rate prevailing at the reporting date. Non-monetary items which are measured in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

(iii) Exchange Differences

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reporting Company's monetary items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the year, or reported in previous financial statements, are recognized as income or as expenses in the year in which they arise.

(iv) Forward exchange contracts entered into to hedge foreign currency risk of an asset / liability

The premium or discount arising at the inception of forward exchange contracts is amortized and recognised as expense or income over the life of the contract. Exchange differences on such contracts are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the exchange rates change. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of forward exchange contract is recognized as income or as expense for that year.

m. Derivative instruments

The Company uses derivative contracts such as Option Contracts to hedge foreign currency borrowings. The outstanding derivative contracts at the balance sheet date are valued by marking them to market and losses, if any, are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

The option premium payable is recognised on an accrual basis during the tenure of the borrowing.

n. Retirement and other employee benefits

(i) Retirement benefits in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The company recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as an expenditure, when an employee renders the related service. If the contribution payable to the scheme for service received before the balance sheet date exceeds the contribution already paid, the deficit payable to the scheme is recognized as a liability after deducting the contribution already paid. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognized as an asset to the extent that the pre payment will lead to, for example, a reduction in future payment or a cash refund.

(ii) Gratuity liability is defined benefit obligation and is provided for on the basis of an actuarial valuation on projected unit credit (PUC) method made at the end of each financial year. The Company has taken an insurance policy under the Group Gratuity Scheme with the Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) to cover the gratuity liability of the employees and amount paid/payable in respect of the present value of liability for the past services is charged to statement of profit and loss account every year. The difference, if any, between the actuarial valuation of the gratuity of the employee at the year end and the balances of the fund of LIC is provided for as liability in the books. Actuarial Gain/losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss and are not deferred.

(iii) Accumulated leave, which is expected to be utilized within the next twelve months, is treated as short term employee benefits. The Company measures the expected cost of such absence as the additional amount that is expected to pay as a result of the unused estimate that has accumulated at the reporting date. The company treats accumulated leave expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months as long term compensated absences which are provided for based on actuarial valuation as at the end of the period. The actuarial valuation is done as per projected unit credit method.

(iv) The company treats accumulated leave expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. Such long-term compensated absences are provided for based on the actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method at the year-end. The company presents the leave as a current liability in the balance sheet, to the extent it does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for 12 months after the reporting date. Where company has the unconditional legal and contractual right to defer the settlement for a period beyond 12 months, the same is presented as non-current liability.

- (v) Actuarial gains/losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss and are not deferred.

o. Income taxes

Tax expense comprises of current and deferred taxes. Current income tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the income tax authorities in accordance with Income Tax Act, 1961 enacted in India. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Deferred income taxes reflect the impact of timing differences between taxable income and accounting income originating during the current year and reversal of timing differences of earlier years.

Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. If the Company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, entire deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that such deferred tax assets can be realized against future taxable profits.

The Company is entitled to a tax holiday under the Income-tax Act, 1961 in respect of certain income, no deferred tax (asset or liability) is recognized in respect of timing differences which reverse during the tax holiday period, to the extent the Company's gross total income is subject to the deduction during the tax holiday period. Deferred tax in respect of timing differences which reverse after the tax holiday period is recognized in the year in which the timing differences originate. For recognition of deferred taxes, the timing differences which originate first are considered to reverse first.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date. The Company writes-down the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax asset can be realized. Any such write-down is reversed to the extent that it becomes reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid during a year is charged to the statement of profit and loss as current tax. MAT credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period i.e. for the period for which MAT credit is allowed to be carried forward. In the year in which the company recognizes MAT credit as an asset in accordance with the Guidance Note on Accounting for Credit Available in respect of Minimum Alternative Tax under the Income-tax Act, 1961, the said asset is created by way of credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as "MAT Credit Entitlement." The company reviews the "MAT credit entitlement" asset at each reporting date and writes down the asset to the extent the company does not have convincing evidence that it will pay normal tax during the specified period.
