The revenue from operations during the year is low mainly on account of low volumes in Dairy segment and no revenue in Real Estate segment due to sluggish market conditions;

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

1. ECONOMIC & BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

The Indian economy has performed creditably compared to most developed and emerging economies of the world during the last year. The macro-economic condition is stable, consumer price inflation is well under control and the wholesale price inflation is in negative territory and owing to historically low prices of crude oil, minerals and metals, input costs have reduced with the balance of payment situation being better than it has been in the last five years.

Last year, Government realigned its methodology for compiling the country's GDP, using value-added data that makes it closure to accepted international practice. Based on this, India's economic growth is estimated to be 7.6%, which is not only higher than the previous year but also the best among the world's fastest growing economies.

Even as the economy has made progress, this has yet to show a positive impact on significant demand revival and improved corporate earnings. Two consecutive weak monsoon seasons and unseasonal rains along with slow reforms due to political discord remain concerns. However, the current emphasis on 'Make-in-India', investments in accelerating development of transportation sector, efforts at fiscal rationalization and estimated good monsoon in the current year, are all positive indicators giving optimism that the economy will pick-up. This would drive overall growth, generate incomes and lower inflation rate.

2. BUSINESS SEGMENT-WISE ANALYSIS

2.1 SEGMENT - DAIRY

(a) Industry structure and development

Traditionally, dairy industry has been integral to Indian rural economy. The country is the World's largest producer of dairy milk and milk products and also the largest consumer. Almost its entire produce is consumed in the domestic market. Despite being the World's largest producer, the dairy sector is by and large in the primitive stages of development and modernization. Though India has over 200 million cattle population, the average output of an Indian cow is only one-seventh of its American counterpart. Moreover, the sector is plagued with various other impediments like shortage of fodder, its poor quality, dismal transportation facilities and a poorly developed cold chain infrastructure.

On the supply side, however, the situation is buoyant. With sustained growth of the Indian economy and consequent rise in the purchasing power during the last two decades, more and more people are able to afford hygienically packed milk and various other processed dairy products. This trend is expected to continue with the sector experiencing a robust growth in demand in the short and medium run. The demand side constraints are being addressed and the efforts to increase milk production have intensified. Dairy farming is now evolving from just an agrarian way of life to a professionally managed industry. With these positive signals, there is hope that the supply side constraints will be addressed and the sector may eventually march towards another white revolution.

(b) Opportunities and threats

India's Dairy Sector is expected to triple its production in next 10 years in view of increasing domestic consumption and expanding potential for export. Consumer preference and buying habits are witnessing a tremendous change. Consumers are now craving for fresh, natural, healthy, shelf-stable, convenience food articles. With the enforcement of Food Safety and Standards Act (FSSA), quality assurance has become more stringent and this has compelled the industry to innovate the processing strategies to abide by the recent laws. UHT processing and the use of probiotic culture in dairy products has made a revolution and now the consumers are becoming conversant with health promoting food items. With increased awareness of hygiene/nutrition, packaged UHT/micro-pasteurized milk will progressively replace the loose milk in the time to come. The value-added processed dairy products are also expected to grow at a healthy pace.

(c) Segmental Review

The production of dairy milk & milk products during the year was 5,782 KL as against 6,494 KL in the previous year, a decline of 10.96%. The production is low in all product categories, except liquid ice-cream, dessert mixes, fresh cream and cooking creamer. The lower production is also on account of discontinuation of Mother Dairy business, which put-up its own UHT milk processing facility. The Dairy Division earned revenue from operations of Rs.4,206.66 lacs as against Rs.4,612.05 lacs in the previous year and operating profit (EBIDTA) of Rs. 590.18 lacs as against Rs. 637.98 lacs in the previous year.

(d) Risks and concerns

Organized dairy industry handles only around 30% of the milk products. Cost effective technologies and quality control measures are seldom exercised in un-organized sector and remain as key issues to be addressed. Milk, which is perishable, needs efficient cold chain management that can be provided by organized players as the same involves more capital investment. Continuous availability of good quality feed and scientifically tested and properly managed animal husbandry practices play a vital role in improving milk yields.

Your Company is continuously developing and applying scientific methods to improve the quality of milk processed and extend its shelf life.

(e) Outlook

The Indian Dairy Industry is growing on a fast track. The investor interest in the dairy industry is also quite high. Many overseas Dairy players have either put up own facilities to manufacture value added products in India or taken over local companies. Organized retail is also growing on a fast track. Dairy products have found a place in most of these outlets. The dairy industry holds enormous potential for investment in India and promises higher returns to the investors.

The Dairy Division of the Company has segmentized its business into retail, institutions and food services with a view to increase market penetration, open new upcoming markets, special thrust on organized retail and constant liaison with institutional clients, like McDonald's, Burger King etc. The packaging capacity was augmented with the addition of one imported packaging machine last year and in-house assembling of one another packaging machine. The modernization of UHT Plant is being undertaken this year. Solar power system of the capacity of 110 KW has been installed to meet a part of the power requirement. Dairy Division is now focussing on high value specialty products which are being developed for various FMCG companies

2.2 SEGMENT – REAL ESTATE

(a) Industry structure and development

The Real Estate sector is one of the most critical sectors in the Indian economy. It is a significant driver of economic growth as it has a multiplier effect on the economy. The Indian Real Estate sector has been a major beneficiary of the strong economic growth witnessed in India in the last two decades. Growth in the sector, supported by use of reforms as not only resulted in significant residential and commercial real estate but also complimented the demand of physical and social infrastructure of the country.

The real estate sector comprises of four sub sectors – housing, retail, hospitality and commercial. The growth of this sector is well complimented by the growth of the corporate environment and the demand for office space as well as urban and semi-urban accommodations. In the last few years, the off-take in all the real estate sub-sectors has been slow as a result of general economic slow-down.

In the recent past, the Govt. has taken many steps to create an environment of growth for the sector. The policies have been two-pronged which include providing greater access to funding on the one hand and extending liquidity to the end-users to strengthen affordability. Both steps would lead to a balance of demand and supply in the near future. The Govt. has allowed foreign direct investment of upto 100% under the automatic route in real estate projects. To ensure that there is a genuine effort to increase affordability, the Government announced some key reductions in the direct tax structure in the last two budgets. Taxation on Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) has been streamlined. All these measures have led to a rise in general confidence among investors, developers and end users and will create a better milieu for growth of real estate, backed by a strong economy and consumer/end-user confidence.

The Real Estate (Regulations and Development) Act, 2016 has been notified to regulate the real estate sector, bring in transparency and help to protect consumer interests.

(b) Opportunities and threats

Residential demand is the mainstay of the Indian real estate sector. There is a fresh lease of life in the residential sector which has remained dormant during the last three years. The market is expected to enter a phase of active sale velocity. This will be the most prominent in the key metropolis of NCR, Mumbai and Bangalore due to available inventory and stable pricing. However, the real beneficiary of this positive sentiment will be the outer peripheral locations of the key metro markets.

As against the residential market, the commercial market has already positively reacted to the changes in the Indian economic condition and the initiatives taken at the Govt. level. The growth momentum is expected to continue in almost all major cities.

(c) Segmental Review

During the year, there was no real estate activity in the Company. In the Gagan Enclave and Gagan Enclave Extension projects, the Company has some inventory of only commercial space, which could not be liquidated due to slow off-take of commercial space in Ghaziabad where these projects are located.

(d) Risks and concerns

Global economic uncertainties may affect India's economy, including the real estate market. Your Company is most resilient to global economic factors, as it is focussing on providing reasonably priced plots/flats and is avoiding expensive land acquisitions.

(e) Outlook

The Indian real estate industry is expected to be the world's third largest by FY 2020. The real estate contributes about 6.30% to India's gross domestic product (GDP). The market size of the sector is expected to increase at the compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.20% upto FY 2020. Emergence of nuclear families and growing urbanization has given rise to several townships that are developed to take care of the elderly persons. A number of senior citizen housing projects are being planned. This segment is expected to grow significantly in future. Growth in the number of tourists has resulted in demands for service apartments.

2.3 SEGMENT – SERVICES

Your Company's treasury operations continue to focus on deployment of surplus funds within a well-defined risk management frame-work. All investment decisions for deployment of treasury funds continued to be guided by the tenets of Safety, Liquidity and Return. Your Company's risk management processes ensured that all deployments are made with proper evaluation of the underlying risk while remaining focused on capturing market opportunities.

3. COMPANY'S FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE & ANALYSIS

During the year under review, the revenue from operations declined by 15.12% to Rs.4,206.66 lacs as against Rs.4,956.11 lacs in the previous year. The revenue from operations during the year is low mainly on account of low volumes in Dairy segment and no revenue in Real Estate segment due to sluggish market conditions. The operating profit (EBIDTA) recorded during the year was lower by 12.48% at Rs.1,479.47 lacs as against Rs.1,690.51 lacs in the previous year. The net profit after tax for the year was Rs. 1,069.95 lacs as against Rs.1,091.25 lacs in the previous year;

4. INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS

Your Company has evolved a system of internal controls to ensure that the assets are safeguarded and transactions are authorised, recorded and correctly reported. The internal control system is supplemented by management reviews and independent periodical reviews by the outside chartered accountancy firms which evaluate the functioning and quality of internal controls and provides assurance of its adequacy and effectiveness. The scope of internal audit covers a wide variety of operational methods and, as a minimum, ensures compliance with specified standards with regard to availability and suitability of policies and procedures, extent of adherence, reliability of management information system and authorization procedures including steps for safeguarding of assets. The reports of internal audit are placed before Audit Committee of the Directors. Audit Committee reviews such audit findings and the adequacy of internal control systems. The Statutory Auditors and the Internal Auditors of the Company also interact with the Audit Committee to share their findings and the status of corrective actions under implementation.

5. HUMAN RESOURCES

The Company lays great emphasis on proper management of human resources and believes that this is the most important ingredient for achieving excellence in performance and sustainable growth. The management constantly reviews the skill mix and takes appropriate steps to achieve desired skill mix. For upgrading the skill, special emphasis is laid on training. Selective and intensive training is being imparted to employees at various levels.

6. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Statements in the Board's Report and the Management Discussion & Analysis describing the Company's objectives, expectations or forecasts may be forward-looking within the meaning of applicable securities laws and regulations. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed in the statement. Important factors that could influence the Company's operations include global and domestic demand and supply conditions affecting selling prices, changes in government regulations, tax laws, economic development regulations, tax laws, economic developments within the country and other factors such as litigation and industrial relations.

Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2016, based on the Company's internal policies & procedures and accounting records and implementation of essential components on the internal controls over financial reporting.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis. GAAP comprises mandatory accounting standards as prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 and the provisions of the Act (to the extent notified). Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

(b) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the management of the company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent liabilities and reported amount of income and expenses during the year. Examples of such estimates include provisions for doubtful debts, employee benefits and provision for income tax. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Any revision in accounting estimates is recognized prospectively in the year of revision.

(c) Fixed Assets

(i) Tangible Assets

Fixed assets are stated at their original cost of acquisition inclusive of inward freight, duties, taxes and incidental expenses relating to acquisition and installation net of grants received, if any.

The cost of assets under installation or under construction plus direct expenses as at the Balance Sheet date is shown as capital work-in-progress.

(ii) Intangible Assets

The cost of brands acquired comprises its purchase price, including any duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the taxing authorities) and any directly attributable expenditure on their acquisition.

In the case of computer software, the cost of software purchased for internal use or main software comprises its purchase price, including any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the taxing authorities) and any directly attributable expenditure on making the software ready for its use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the cost.

(d) Depreciation/Amortization

- (i) Depreciation is provided on the straight line method, as per the useful life of the assets specified in Schedule II of the Act.
- (ii) In respect of assets added, sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed during the year depreciation on such assets is calculated on a pro-rata basis from the date of such additions or as the case may be, up to the date on which such asset has been sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed.
- (iii) Intangible assets i.e. computer software is amortized over a period of 36 months subsequent to its purchase on straight line basis.

(e) Impairment

The carrying amount of assets is reviewed at each Balance Sheet date to ascertain if there is any indication of impairment based on internal/external factors. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the asset's net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value at the weighted cost of capital.

(f) Inventories

(i) Finished Good:

- (a) Stock of manufactured finished goods is valued at cost or at market value, whichever is lower. In the case of finished goods, cost is determined by taking material, labour and related factory overheads including depreciation and fixed production overheads, which are apportioned on the basis of normal capacity.
- (b) Unsold real estate inventory is valued at lower of cost or market value.

(ii) Work-in-process:

- (a) Work in process is valued at raw material cost or estimated net realizable value, whichever is lower.
- (b) Property development and construction-related work-in-progress is valued at cost till such time the outcome of the work cannot be ascertained and thereafter at lower of cost or net realizable value.
- (iii) Raw material, stores, spares and loose tools are valued at cost or estimated net realizable value, whichever is lower. Cost is determined by using the yearly weighted average method.
- (iv) Stock in trades are valued at cost or at market value, whichever is lower. The cost in such cases is valued at the purchase cost using FIFO method.

(g) Foreign Exchange Transactions

Foreign exchange transactions are recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates of the respective transactions. Exchange differences are recorded in the profit & loss accounts when the amount actually is paid on import of goods are converted into Indian Rupees. Accordingly, exchange differences arising on foreign exchange differences settled during the period are recognized in the profit and loss account of the period.

Monetary current assets and monetary current liabilities that are denominated in foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of the balance sheet. The resulting difference is also recorded in the profit & loss account.

Exchange differences arising on foreign currency monetary items related to acquisition of a fixed asset are capitalized and depreciated over the remaining useful life of the asset.

(h) Investment

Investments are classified into current and long term investments. Investments that are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long term investments. Current investments are stated at the lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual basis. Long term investments, including interests in joint-venture companies, are carried at cost. A provision for diminution in value is made to recognize a decline other than temporary in the value of long term investments.

Profit or loss is recognized in the Statement of Profit & Loss on disposal of an investment, the difference between the carrying amount and the disposal proceeds, net of expenses. When disposing of a part of the holding of an individual investment, the carrying amount to be allocated to that part is determined on the basis of the average carrying amount of the total holding of the investment.

(i) Revenue Recognition

- (i) Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods are transferred to the customers. Revenue from the sale of goods is stated at net of trade discount & value added tax (VAT). Consignment sales are booked to the extent of consignment sales notes received from consignees. The revenue on sale of residential/commercial plots and constructed units are recognized on completion and execution of sale/conveyance deeds and on reasonable expectation of collection of the sale consideration from the customer. The estimates relating to sale value, estimated cost etc., are revised and updated periodically by the management and necessary adjustments are made in the current year's account.
- (ii) Interest revenue is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.
- (iii) Dividend income is recognized if the right to receive the payment is established by the Balance Sheet date.

(j) Retirement and Other Employee Benefits

(a) Short Term Employee Benefits

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering service are classified as short term employee benefits. Benefits like salaries, wages, short term compensated absences etc. and the expected cost of bonus, ex-gratia are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

(b) Post-Employment Benefits

- (i) Defined Contribution Plans: The State governed provident fund scheme, employee state insurance scheme, employee pension scheme and the company's approved superannuation scheme are defined contribution plans. The contribution paid/payable under the schemes is recognized during the period in which the employee renders the related service.
- (ii) Defined Benefit Plans: Defined benefit plans of the company comprise employee's gratuity fund schemes managed by a Trust/SBI Life and Employees Provident Fund managed by the Trust. The Provident Fund Trust set up by the company is treated as defined benefit plan since the minimum interest payable by the Provident Fund Trust to the beneficiaries is notified every year by the Government and the company has an obligation to make good the shortfall, if any, between the return on respective investments of the Trust and the notified interest rate. Accordingly, the contribution paid or payable and the interest shortfall, if any, is recognized as an expense in the period in which the services are rendered by the employee.

Wherever applicable, the present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plans is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method, which recognizes each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans, are based on the market yields on Government securities as at the Balance Sheet date, having maturity periods approximating to the terms of related obligations.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognized immediately in the Statement of Profit & Loss.

In case of funded plans, the fair value of the plan assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans to recognize the obligation on net basis.

Gains or losses on the curtailment or settlement of any defined benefit plan are recognized when the curtailment or settlement occurs. Past service cost is recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested.

(c) Long Term Employee Benefits

Entitlements to annual leave, casual leave and sick leave are recognized when they accrue to employees. Sick leave and casual leave can only be availed while earned leave can either be availed or encashed subject to restriction on the maximum number of accumulation of leave. The company determines the liability for such accumulated leave using the projected unit credit method with actuarial valuation being carried out at each Balance Sheet date in the similar manner as in the case of defined benefit plans as mentioned in (b) (ii) above.

- (d) The company does not encash leave which has been accumulated up to specified period. Such leaves have been classified as long term employee benefits. Such leaves accumulated at each accounting period are carried forward to the next accounting period. Leave other than specified leave is encashable. There are no other encashable short term benefits. The other staff benefit schemes will be provided according to respective laws in respect of employees as and when these schemes will become applicable to the company.

(k) Research and Development Expenditure

Revenue expenditure whenever incurred on research is expensed as incurred and such expenditure incurred during the research phase is directly charged to the Statement of Profit & Loss. The expenditure incurred during development stage (if any) is capitalized.

(l) Taxes on Income

The current charge for income tax is ascertained on the basis of assessable profits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Minimum Alternate Tax ("MAT") paid in accordance with tax laws, which gives rise to future economic benefits in the form of adjustment of future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal tax in future. MAT credit entitlement can be carried forward and utilized for a period of ten years from the year in which it is availed. Accordingly, it is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the company and the asset can be measured reliably.

Deferred tax is recognized subject to the consideration of prudence, on timing differences, being the difference between taxable incomes and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to timing differences that result between taxable profits and accounting profits. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the Balance Sheet date. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the period that includes the enactment date. Deferred tax assets on timing difference are recognized only if there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. However, deferred tax assets on the timing differences when unabsorbed depreciation and losses carried forward exist, are recognized only to the extent that there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax can be realized. Deferred tax assets are reassessed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each Balance Sheet date.

(m) Provisions and Contingencies

Provisions are recognized when the company has a present obligation as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle and are reviewed regularly and adjusted wherever necessary to reflect the current best estimates of the obligation. Where the company expects a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset, only when such reimbursement is virtually certain. Contingent liabilities are disclosed after an evaluation of the facts and legal aspects of the matters involved. Contingent assets are neither recognized, nor disclosed. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date.

(n) Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalized as part of cost of such asset till the asset is ready for its intended use or sale. A qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily requires a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are recognized as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

(o) Earnings Per Share

In determining earnings per share, the company considers the net profit after tax and includes the post-tax effect of any extraordinary / exceptional item. The number of shares used in computing basic earnings per share is the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. The number of shares used in computing diluted earnings per share comprises the weighted average number of shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share, and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

(p) Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby net profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from regular revenue generating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated. The cash flow statement is separately attached with the financial statements of the company.

(q) Leases

- (i) Assets acquired under leases where the company has substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Such assets are capitalized at the inception of the lease at the lower of the fair value or the present value of minimum lease payments and a liability is created for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost, so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each period.
- (ii) Assets taken on lease under which lessor effectively retains all significant risks & rewards of ownership have been classified as operating lease. Lease payments made under operating lease are recognized as expense in the profit & loss account on straight line basis over the primary term of the lease as mentioned in the lease agreement on accrual basis.
- (iii) Assets given under a finance lease are recognized as receivable at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease. Lease income is recognized over the period of the lease so as to yield a constant rate of return on the net investment in the lease.

(iv) Assets leased out under operating leases are capitalized. Rental income is recognized on accrual basis over the lease term.

(iv) Initial direct costs relating to assets given on finance leases are charged to Profit and Loss Account.

(r) Segment Accounting

The Company has three primary segments namely Food & Real Estate and Services.

(a) Segment accounting policies

Segment accounting policies are in line with the accounting policies of the Company. In addition, the following specific accounting policies have been followed for segment reporting:

(i) Segment revenue includes sales and other income directly identifiable with/allocable to the segment including inter-segment revenue.

(ii) Expenses that are directly identifiable with/allocable to segments are considered for determining the Segment Result. Expenses which relate to the Company as a whole and not allocable to segments are included under "Un-allocable Expenditure".

(iii) Income which relates to the Company as a whole and not allocable to segments is included in "Un-allocable Income".

(iv) Segment result includes margins on inter-segment capital jobs, which are reduced in arriving at the profit before tax of the Company.

(v) Segment assets and liabilities include those directly identifiable with the respective segments. Un-allocable assets and liabilities represent the assets and liabilities that relate to the Company as a whole and not allocable to any segment. Un-allocable assets mainly comprise Deposits with Banks, Margin Money, Bank Balances and Investments & Deferred Tax Assets to the portfolio of the Company's core/thrust areas of business such as infrastructure development. Un-allocable liabilities include mainly Interest bearing Share Capital, Reserves & Surplus, Public Deposits, Provision for tax & Interest payable on loans.

(b) Segment Transactions

Segment transactions with other business segments are accounted on the basis of cost to the segment concerned.

(s) Accounting for interest in Joint Venture

Interest in Joint venture companies is accounted as follows:

(i) Income on investments is recognized when the right to receive the same is established.

(ii) Investment in such Joint Ventures is carried at cost after providing for any permanent diminution value.
