SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE FIRST 3D SEISMIC SURVEY ASSIGNMENT IN INDIA

SETTING THE INDUSTRY STANDARDS FOR...

IN OUR 25 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

IN OUR 25 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

Alphageo has been more than just another seismic survey player in India's hydrocarbons sector.

The Company has been a pioneer, introducing a number of practices for the very first time in the country.

The most important national contribution by Alphageo has been in its being the first company in India's private sector to extend into the business of geo-physical mapping, widening and accelerating India's hydrocarbons sector.

Besides, Alphageo was partly instrumental in helping time-bound contracts evolve into delivery-based contracts, strengthening deliverables and accountability. For instance, Alphageo's first operational contract comprised 2D seismic survey of 600 line km across two years with Oil India Limited in 1990. Alphageo completed 1,400 line km within the stipulated time. Even as the renewed contract stipulated 1,200 line km of 2D seismic survey across two years, Alphageo completed 2200 line km, following which time-specific contracts were altered to fixed quantum projects.

To Alphageo's credit is also the successful completion of the first 3D seismic survey assignment in India by a private sector company in 2005, helping the country graduate to a higher technology.

The result is that Alphageo is among the most respected Indian geophysical service companies today.

Alphageo was one of India's first venture-funded companies. Technical Development & Investment Corporation of India acquired a 40% stake in the Company in 1990.

Alphageo is respected for being a challenge-embracing company.

The result is that whenever clients have needed to engage in seismic surveys in hilly, remote or inhospitable regions, they have inevitably turned first to Alphageo.

Over the years, Alphageo has distinguished itself through its ability to mobilise adequate crew members possessing the requisite experience. It has leveraged its rich experience in conducting seismic surveys with minimal environment impact. It has demonstrated a capability in working collaboratively with rural citizens, accelerating project progress.

Alphageo was the first company to complete a seismic survey campaign in the hilly and inaccessible Mizoram for Oil and Natural Gas Corporation Limited in 2004-05, a project marked by thick vegetation, remote jungles, uneven roads, steep terrain and water shortage. The Company delivered the project on schedule.

Alphageo conducted two speculative surveys in Ganga and Vindhyan Basins through joint ventures with the Directorate General of Hydrocarbons in potential hydrocarbon-bearing basins – where no prior seismic data was at all available.

Alphageo Undertook the 1st 3D seismic project in hilly and forested terrains of Arunachal Pradesh for Geo Petrol. The area to be surveyed was on a hill with a river at its base and no vehicular access. Alphageo responded innovatively through the use of elephants, completing the project on schedule.

The result is that when clients select to work with Alphageo, they are assured of timely project completion and a consequent peace of mind.

Alphageo was the first seismic service provider in India to conduct night operations in urban Thiruvavur to minimise public inconvenience.

HOW ALPHAGEO INTRODUCED CUTTING-EDGE TECHNOLOGIES.

IN OUR 25 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

IN OUR 25 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

SETTING THE INDUSTRY STANDARDS FOR...
25 YEARS

Alphageo is the only Indian seismic survey provider present in all three service segments (data acquisition, data processing, data interpretation) of the 2D segment.

Alphageo has established a reputation – ‘If it is the best standard, Alphageo will use it for the client’s benefit’ over the last 25 years.

This is a result of the fact that Alphageo works with cutting-edge technologies that enhance project efficiency and safety.

For instance, Alphageo undertook a seismic survey project in the Himalayan foothills in 2001 where the challenging terrain made it impossible to use normal rigs. The Company was the first to deploy small portable drilling rigs ideal for hard earth formations.

Besides, Alphageo was the first in the private Indian geophysical space to introduce 3D acquisition technology in 2005 (following extensive live on-the-job US training for six key members of the Alphageo team).

Alphageo invested in state-of-the-art equipment: 24-bit Delta Sigma technology with cable telemetry ION Scorpion systems and Sercel 428 XL for 3D survey, SM 24 sensors with a full set of auxiliary equipment capable (for distortion-free 2D and 3D seismic acquisition data), data processing centre with widely used software (for data processing and analysis) and advanced interactive workstations and software for 2D/3D seismic data interpretation.

Alphageo was the first seismic survey player to provide the new ‘3D-seis loop’ service in a project for Oil India Limited, marked by enhanced data collection at only a fraction of the usual 3D service cost.

The result is that Alphageo has facilitated access and implementation of some of the best global technologies in India, taking the country’s hydrocarbons exploration agenda ahead.

THE ONLY INDIAN SEISMIC SERVICES PROVIDER TO BE AWARDED CONTRACTS IN THREE OF SEVEN MYANMAR BLOCKS IN THE FIRST ROUND

Alphageo focused on the growth coming out of India for the major part of its 25-year journey.

In June 2010, Alphageo made a decisive extension in its business strategy. The Company extended to international geographies, starting with the Republic of Georgia before moving on to Myanmar.

Alphageo was the only Indian seismic service provider to be awarded contracts in three of seven Myanmar blocks in the first round. These contracts were awarded by global brands, namely Petronas and Istech. The Company leveraged its rich experience of having worked in North-East India while embarking on Myanmar projects, which were delivered before schedule.

The result is that Alphageo now enjoys a favourable pre-qualification reputation of having worked in a challenging international geography for a large global client, validating what its reputation always stood for – timely and pre-scheduled project delivery.

Alphageo's first international project in the Republic of Georgia was implemented in November 2010 under sub-zero conditions. And yet, the project was delivered on schedule.

“Alphageo has cemented its recall as a reliable service provider of quality data in the seismic survey space.”

Dear friends,

It is a happy time to be addressing you following the completion of 25 years of field operations.

If there is one thing that we are proud to have achieved in two-and-a-half decades, it is our respect as a reliable provider of quality data in the seismic survey space among large global and Indian oil exploration companies.

It is this recall that has enabled the Company to succeed in a space marked by revenue and project uncertainty.

In 2014-15, we reinforced this confidence by completing five projects, all of which were delivered on or before schedule. Our revenue and net profit grew by 44% and 32% respectively over the previous fiscal. What was relevant is that we strengthened organisational liquidity on the one hand, while reducing the debt on our Balance Sheet on the other, strengthening business sustainability.

Promise of tomorrow

Oil is one of the most critical energy sources in a developing economy. As economies grow, energy consumption will only increase. This is more pertinent for a country like India, which is not only a net oil importer but expected to possibly emerge as the fastest growing global economy.

A 2014 McKinsey study indicates that India's energy demand could grow from 691 million tonnes of oil equivalent (mtoe) in 2010 to 1,500 mtoe in 2030 based on GDP growth estimates, economy composition and demand growth from industry, buildings and transport sectors in a business-as-usual scenario.

What is of growing relevance is that India imports close to 80% of its oil requirements, significantly linking its economic progress to global oil price movements. Consider this:

Every USD10 per barrel fall in oil price can enhance India's GDP growth by around 0.1 percentage points.

Every USD10 per barrel fall in crude oil price lowers WPI by around 0.5% and CPI by about 0.2%.

Every USD10 per barrel fall in crude oil price improves India's current account balance by around USD 9 billion – 0.5% of GDP.

Evidently, India's oil sector plays a pivotal role in her economic progress.

India's new government announced its decision to strengthen the country's oil self-sufficiency with the objective to moderate the impact of oil price volatility on her economic progress. The Prime Minister set a goal of reducing India's dependence on imports from 77% of its 'energy' requirement by 10% by 2022, and by 50% by 2030. In keeping with this ambitious goal, India's hunt for oil is expected to accelerate.

There are some interesting points to consider. For two decades, no fresh assessment was conducted to gauge the hydrocarbon potential of all 26 Indian basins. Recently, the Ministry of Hydrocarbons set in motion a large exercise by ONGC and OIL to obtain fresh data of unappraised national areas, estimated at around 50% of India's identified sedimentary basins.

Initiatives have been now taken to cover all onshore areas with a preliminary 2D seismic survey. To cover offshore areas, another policy has been implemented under the 'multi-client non-exclusive' survey, through which global companies can analyse and collect seismic data at their cost, which can then be marketed to potential investors.

Relevance for Alphageo

What does this mean for Alphageo?

It means large seismic survey business opportunities in India. It means more projects for a vertically-integrated seismic service provider like us. It means a preference for a service provider like us possessing an experience of working across most Indian terrains for more than two decades. It means a headstart for a company like ours with a proven record of delivering projects on/before schedule. It means the start of another phase in the Company's existence.

International business

Even as Indian prospects appear attractive across the medium-term, Myanmar continues to offer attractive prospects. Myanmar Oil and Gas Enterprise and the Ministry of Energy had offered 18 onshore blocks for bidding at the beginning of 2013 and 16 oil blocks were awarded in 2014.

The Myanmar government is now opening up to international business by signing deals with foreign energy companies. With our Company having successfully completed multiple projects in Myanmar, we hope to carve out a good share of the emerging opportunity.

Message to shareholders

At Alphageo, we are optimistic of our prospects as domestic seismic survey opportunities are expected to increase over the medium-term. Besides, Myanmar also promises attractive opportunities in 12-24 months.

These realities inspire the optimism of robust business growth over the medium-term, translating into superior value for our shareholders.

With optimism,
Z P Marshall
Chairperson

1,500^{mtoe}

India's energy demand estimate in 2030.

Were you pleased with the Company's performance in 2014-15?

It was a good year as our performance rebound of 2013-14 gained momentum in 2014-15. We delivered five projects on schedule. In doing so, our revenue and net profit jumped 44% and 32% respectively over the previous year even as we pruned the size of our Balance Sheet. The result is that even as the external business climate turned challenging, Alphageo strengthened its Balance Sheet.

Every rupee invested in the business generated better returns.

Absolutely. Accelerated project execution generated stronger cash flows. We prudently utilised our cash flow in deleveraging the Balance Sheet. As a result, our debt to equity declined from 9.24% as on March 31, 2014 to 2.11% as on March 31, 2015. Our sum of Equity and Liabilities in the business declined from ₹7,192.75 lakh as on March 31, 2014 to ₹6,904.57 lakh as on March 31, 2015. The result is that our return on employed capital increased from 23% in 2013-14 to 27% in 2014-15.

What were some of the important highlights reported by the Company during the year?

The diversity of projects was clearly a highlight during the year under review. One of the projects addressed by the Company comprised a seismic survey for a coal methane block; the other was a partnership with a service provider in a transition zone (Alphageo implemented the onland survey while the partner undertook off-land survey)

2018-19. This is possibly the largest opportunity expected to emerge in 25 years of our business operations.

In addition, NELP-X is expected to happen sometime in the current year wherein the Government will offer 42 oil blocks to successful bidders, creating business opportunities across 18-24 months.

What is going to be Alphageo's strategy?

For the next two years, India is likely to be the geography to be in. We will focus on carving out a reasonable share of the emerging opportunity. In addition, we will also monitor the oil block tendering process in Myanmar to capitalise on emerging opportunities. In view of these realities, we expect an optimistic year ahead.

Lesser-known opportunities

The Indian Government intends to auction 69 small and marginal oil fields of state-owned ONGC and Oil India to private firms on a new revenue-sharing model. ONGC holds about 165 marginal fields (79 offshore and 86 onshore). Of this, 63 are being surrendered for auction. Of the 165 marginal fields, with total reserves of 340 mn tonnes, operations are going on in 139 fields while work is yet to commence in 26.

with Alphageo responsible project synchronisation. A third project involved leveraging our expertise in the 3D-Seis Loop methodology.

How did the Company take its Myanmar success ahead?

Myanmar Ministry of Energy allotted 16 of the 18 onshore blocks tendered in the second bidding round in 2013-14. Having established our credentials as a reliable service provider, we hope to secure attractive volumes from this opportunity.

How do you expect the seismic survey space to pan out in the current year?

India's growing dependence on imported oil makes its economic progress vulnerable to global oil price volatility. In view of this, the Indian government envisioned the goal to reduce import dependence in a phased manner through an additional thrust on exploration and seismic survey activities. Through a project titled seismic data acquisition in unappraised onland areas of Indian Sedimentary Basins, the Government is expected to invite bids for seismic survey activities in 26 sedimentary basins in India, covering about 48,000 line km (2D survey) to be conducted between 2015-16 and

North-East India.

Seemingly harsh. Operationally comfortable.

Emerging opportunities

The Indian Petroleum Ministry and Directorate General of Hydrocarbons (DGH) are working on a comprehensive package to increase exploration and production (E&P) activities in North-East India. The government is contemplating concessions to exploit more hydrocarbon resources in the region. In view of logistical and technical challenges as well as a limited weather window in these areas, it may introduce a total exploration period for 10 years (first phase of six years and second phase of four years).

North-East India's relevance

More than 100 oil and gas fields have been discovered by Oil India and ONGC in Assam, Nagaland and Tripura. Currently, ONGC produces about 1 million tonne of hydrocarbons 2014; most of Oil India's crude oil production of 3.466 million tonne is drawn from nominated fields in North-East India.

Management discussion and analysis

Economic overview

Global: Global growth in 2014 was a modest 3.4% compared with 3% in 2013, primarily due to a growth revival in advanced economies.

Developing countries were once an engine of global growth but following the financial crisis, faced a difficult economic environment. As a result, growth in emerging and developing economies slowed. Despite the slowdown, emerging market and developing economies accounted for three-fourths of global growth in 2014.

Headline inflation declined in advanced economies, reflecting a decline in oil prices, softer commodity prices and weaker demand in a number of countries already experiencing below-target inflation (Euro area and Japan).

With regard to emerging markets, lower prices for oil and other commodities contributed to lower inflation through 2014, with the notable exception of countries suffering sizable exchange rate depreciation like Russia.

Overall, global growth is projected to reach 3.5% in 2015 and 3.8% in 2016.

India: The full-year GDP growth for the fiscal ending March 2015 settled at 7.3%, up from 6.9% in 2013-14 (figures calculated as per the new series of national accounts with base year of 2011-12). This growth was due to improved performance of the services and manufacturing sectors. The Gross Value Added (GVA), a new concept introduced by Central Statistical Office (CSO) to measure the economic activity, rose by 7.2% in 2014-15 compared to 6.6% in the previous fiscal. The economy remained relatively unshackled of factors generally associated with an economic slowdown.

Average Wholesale Price Index (WPI) inflation declined in 2014-15 to 3.4% (April-December) vis-à-vis 8.9% in 2013-14, as fuel witnessed a sharp decline in prices. Food price inflation also moderated to 4.8% during April-December 2014 compared to 9.4% in 2013-14. Average retail inflation, measured by Consumer Price Index (CPI), moderated to 6.3% in 2014-15 (April-December) from 9.5% in 2013-14. The country's current account deficit narrowed to 1.3% of GDP in 2014-15, primarily on account of a lower trade gap.

The Reserve Bank of India projected India's GDP growth for 2015-16 at 7.6%. The International Monetary Fund forecast India's growth to strengthen from 7.3% in 2014 to 7.5% (2015 and 2016).

Oil and the Indian economy

If crude prices fall by 15% on average for FY2015 (-2.5% y-o-y for April-October 2014), net savings on oil trade account would be US$5.4 billion.

Wholesale price index inflation could decline 70-80 bps for every 10% fall in global crude prices accompanied by a weakening rupee.

A decline in crude price could reduce oil subsidy (0.7% of GDP) and moderate tax collections. The contribution of the petroleum sector to the exchequer of both Government of India (GOI) and state governments is ₹3 trillion or ~3% of GDP. The government's earning from this sector is higher than the oil subsidy. Adverse fiscal implications of loss of tax revenue and dividend payouts by public sector oil companies can outweigh a reduction in oil subsidy due to lower crude prices.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

GLOBAL OIL SECTOR

Global energy scenario

Consumption increased for all fuels, reaching record levels for every fuel type except nuclear power; production increased for all fuels except coal.

Consumption: Global primary energy consumption increased by just 0.9% in 2014, a marked deceleration over 2013 (+2.0%) and well below the 10-year average of 2.1%. This was the slowest rate of growth since the late 1990s, other than immediately after the financial crisis. The growth in 2014 slowed for every fuel other than nuclear power.

This slowing was driven in part by the rebalancing of the Chinese economy away from energy-intensive sectors, causing the growth of energy consumption in China to slow down to its lowest rate since 1998. Even so, China remained the world's largest growth market for energy.

Although emerging economies continued to dominate the growth in global energy consumption, growth in these countries (+2.4%) was well below the 10-year average of 4.2%. China (+2.6%) and India (+7.1%) recorded the largest national increments to global energy consumption.

Oil remained the world's leading fuel, accounting for 32.6% of the global energy consumption. But its proportion in the global energy basket reduced for the fifteenth consecutive year.

Global oil scenario

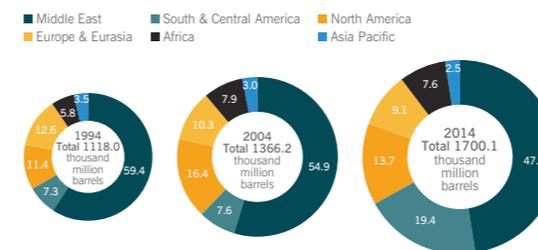

Man's energy consumption has been trending upward, the average power use tipping over 18 terawatts. As progress continues and developing countries industrialise, this voracious energy appetite is likely to grow.

Reserves: Total world proved oil reserves reached 1700.1 billion barrels at the end of 2014, sufficient to meet 52.5 years of global production. The largest addition to reserves came from Saudi Arabia, adding 1.1 billion barrels. The largest decline came from Russia, where reserves fell by 1.9 billion barrels. OPEC countries continue to hold the majority of the world's reserves, accounting for 71.6% of the global total. South and Central America continue to hold the highest R/P ratio, estimated at more than 100 years. Over the past decade, global proved reserves have increased by 24%, or more than 330 billion barrels.

Based on data from OPEC, the highest proved oil reserves, including non-conventional oil deposits, are in Venezuela (20% of global reserves), Saudi Arabia (18% of global reserves), Canada (13% of global reserves) and Iran (9%).

Production: Global oil production growth was more than double that of global consumption, rising by 2.1 million b/d or 2.3%. Production outside OPEC grew by 2.1 million b/d. The US (+1.6 million b/d) recorded the largest growth in the world, becoming the first country ever to increase production by at least 1 million b/d for three consecutive years, and taking over from Saudi Arabia as the world's largest oil producer. Non-OPEC production grew by a record amount; the OPEC output was flat, and the group's share of global production fell to 41%, its lowest since 2003.

Consumption: Global oil consumption grew by 0.8 million barrels per day (b/d), or 0.8% – a little below its recent historical average and significantly weaker than the increase of 1.4 million b/d seen in 2013. Countries outside the OECD once again accounted for all of the net growth in global consumption. OECD consumption declined by 1.2%, the eighth decrease in nine years. Chinese consumption growth was below average but still recorded the largest increment to global oil consumption.

Prices: Crude oil prices remained firm in early 2014 in the face of continued large supply disruptions, but fell sharply later in the year due to strong non-OPEC production growth combined with weaker consumption growth (relative to 2013) and OPEC's November decision to defend market share. The WTI-Brent differential narrowed to $5.66 per barrel despite continued robust US production growth.

Outlook: Population growth and increase in income per person are the key drivers behind growing demand for energy.

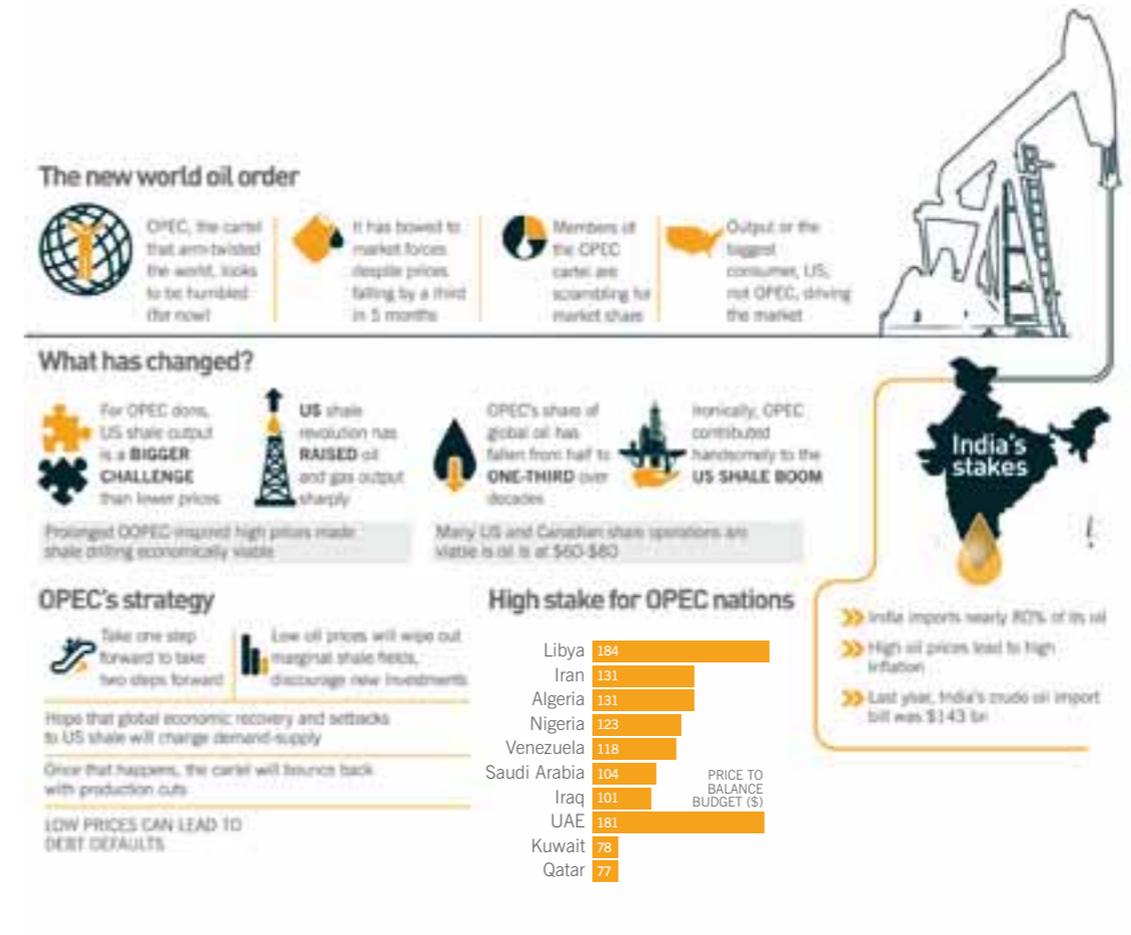

By 2035, the world's population is projected to reach 8.7 billion, which means an additional 1.6 billion people will need energy.

By 2035, global GDP is expected to more than double, with non-OECD Asia contributing nearly 60% of that growth. Globally, GDP per person in 2035 is expected to be 75% higher than today, an increase in productivity, which accounts for three-quarters of global GDP growth.

Primary energy consumption is expected to increase by 37% between 2013 and 2035, with growth averaging 1.4% p.a. The projected growth rate of global energy consumption could be significantly slower than the recent trend (2.4% p.a. for 2000-13).

OPEC vs Big Shale

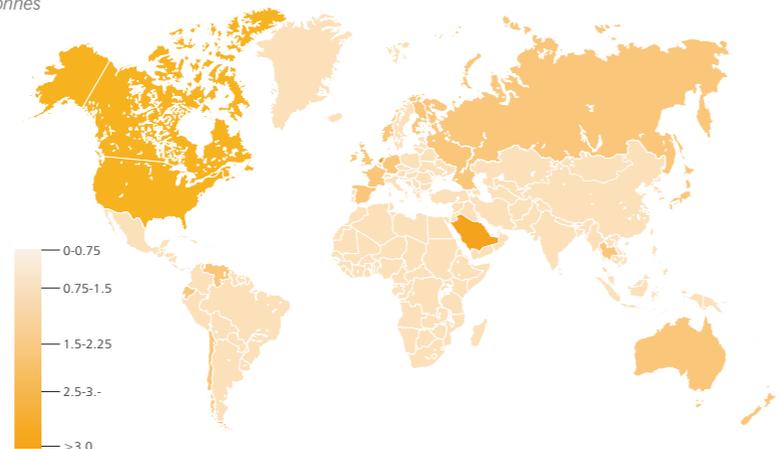

The growing output of oil in US — specifically shale oil — has rattled OPEC. The global oil equation is changing, and for countries like India that are big importers, things could not be better.

INDIAN OIL AND GAS SECTOR

The oil and gas industry ranks among India's six core industries. India is the fourth largest petroleum consumer. According to the International Energy Agency's World Energy Outlook 2014, India's oil demand is likely to increase at a compounded annual growth rate of 3.5% between 2013 and 2040, among the highest in the world. India's domestic production of oil and gas falls far short of its burgeoning energy requirement, prompting imports.

Reserves

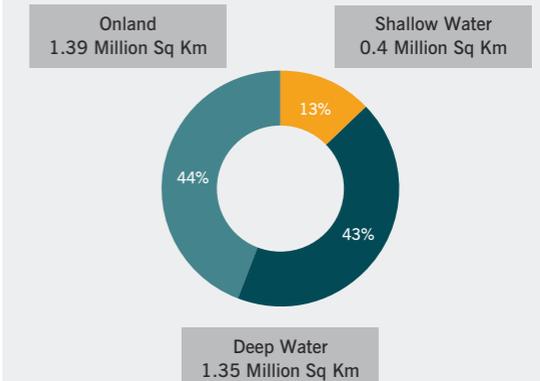

India has an estimated sedimentary area of 3.14 million sq km comprising 26 sedimentary basins, out of which, 1.35 million sq km area is in deepwater and 1.79 million sq km area is onland and shallow offshore pockets. Of this, about 48% has been appraised.

Crude oil

Oil accounts for about 30% of India's primary consumption; more than 80% of India's oil consumption is imported.

26 Sedimentary Basins

Total area: 3.14 million Sq Km

Production and imports: India produced 37.46 million tonnes of crude oil, a decline of 0.85% over the previous year's production. This stagnancy was due to ageing fields of the national oil companies. The production shortfall was compensated by imports. India imported 189.43 million tonnes of crude oil, accounting for 83.5% of the total crude oil supply. During the last five years, India's crude oil import registered an increase of over 3.7%.

Consumption: Demand for petroleum products has increased consistently. As of 2014-15, the demand for petroleum products stood at about 165 million tonnes – a 4.15% growth over the previous year.

Government initiatives: The Government reduced the regulation on the oil and gas industry through the following initiatives:

Diesel prices were deregulated, linking the same to market-determined levels.

It approved a subsidy formula that exempts upstream companies from bearing the under-recovery burden during the first quarter of 2015-16 if crude oil prices remain below US$60 per barrel.

Natural gas

India had 47 trillion cubic feet of proven natural gas reserves at the beginning of 2014. Approximately 34% of total reserves were located onshore, while 66% were offshore.

Natural gas production in India stood at about 33.66 bn cubic metres (bcm) a decline of 4.9% over the previous year. ONGC and OIL account for more than 70% of India's natural gas production. The decline in production was due to a number of factors:

Production in ONGC's offshore unit was delayed

Production in ONGC's onshore Gujarat units declined due to an unplanned shutdown

Production in other blocks in Rajasthan, Tripura, Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, and Assam was affected due to lower offtake by consumers and closure of wells due to the GAIL pipeline incident

The import dependence of natural gas is lower than that of crude oil. Despite the reduction in production the imports have not risen commensurately. Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) imports stood around 13 MT during the three years from 2011-12 to 2013-14.

Government initiative:

There were some important policy initiatives in 2014. The Government approved a new gas pricing formula with effect from November 1, 2014 in a bid to provide incentives to players to enhance upstream investments.

Exploration potential

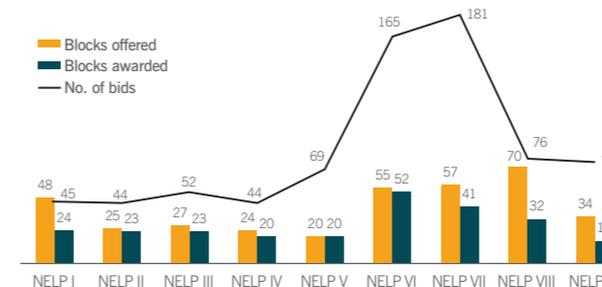

Since the introduction of NELP 16 years ago, exploration companies invested US$23.92 billion in blocks awarded to them (as of April 2014).

Overall, a total of 135 hydrocarbon discoveries (46 crude oil and 89 natural gas) were reported under the NELP as of April 2014. In addition, 22 NELP discoveries were reported to be under development.

Despite these achievements, India's dependence on imports increased for an important reality. As many as 116 exploration blocks under the NELP were reported to be affected due to delays in the grant of necessary approvals.

Recent discoveries: India made important headway in reducing its dependence on crude oil imports. In March 2015, Reliance Industries (along with its partner BP) reported eight oil discoveries in the Cambay basin block.

Government initiatives

NELP-X will offer a uniform licensing model — which means the drilling of all forms of hydrocarbons, from oil and gas to shale under a single contract — and also usher in the revenue-share model. Till now, nearly 42 blocks have been shortlisted to be offered under NELP-X.

Post NELP-X, the government intends to shift to the Open Acreage Licensing Policy (OALP). The OALP will enable upstream companies to bid for any oil and gas block throughout the year without the government having to hold an auction.

Outlook

According to a report by BP (formerly British Petroleum), the growth in energy demand in India would be the highest among all countries by 2030-35. India's energy production would rise by 112%, while consumption would grow by 132%. Oil imports would rise by 169% and account for over 60% of the net increase in imports, followed by increasing imports of gas (+573%) and coal (+85%).

India's energy mix will evolve over the next 20 years, with fossil fuels accounting for 87% of demand in 2035 (92% currently), compared to a global average of 81%. India's energy production as a share of consumption would drop from 61% to just 56% by 2035.

According to the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (DIPP), the petroleum and natural gas sector attracted foreign direct investment (FDI) worth US$ 6,519.53 million between April 2000 and January 2015.

India holds about 0.7% of the world's proven oil reserves while accounting for 3.9% of the global oil consumption.

Analysis of financial statements

In 2014-15, the Company posted another strong performance – a healthy growth in the topline, an even stronger jump in profits and profitability and more importantly a stronger Balance Sheet – resulting in superior value creation for its shareholders.

Statement of Profit and Loss

Revenue: Seismic survey and related service income jumped by 44% from ₹4,441.35 lakh in 2013-14 to ₹6,396.73 lakh in 2014-15. The increase was owing to an increase in field operations as the team worked relentlessly to complete the order book at the year-start and the new business received during the year under review. This year, the Company ventured into carrying out seismic survey for a client across a coal bed methane block and a transitional zone project.

Survey and related expenses:

With the increase in orders, the survey and related expenses grew by 62% from ₹2,235.64 lakh in 2013-14 to ₹3622.46 lakh in 2014-15. The increase was partly optimised by proper deployment of resources and timely project completion.

Employee expenses: The 26% increase in people expense – from ₹410.88 lakh in 2013-14 to ₹520.15 lakh in 2014-15 – was owing to an increase in the field force to manage growing business operations and full year incremental payout compared to part period of previous year.

Finance cost: The deleveraged Balance Sheet facilitated a reduction in the interest expense from ₹58.89 lakh in 2013-14 to ₹47.12 lakh in 2014-15. Interest cover (indicating interest repaying ability) improved from 2.67% in 2013-14 to 1.22% in 2014-15.

Depreciation and amortisation:

With the implementation of the useful life concept with downward revision of useful lives compared to the earlier Schedule-II of Companies Act, 2013, there was an additional provision of ₹56.96 lakh, representing the carrying of a depreciable amount of assets whose useful life is exhausted due to a mandatory revision of useful lives as on 01.04.2014, charged to statement of profit and loss.

Provision for Taxation:

The Company's current tax provision represents MAT payable following set-off losses incurred in the earlier years for regular taxation. Out of MAT provision of ₹310.00 lakh, the Company is entitled to a credit of ₹222.00 lakhs available for a period of 10 years.

Profit and profitability:

Increased business operations resulted in an increase in EBITDA by 24% - from ₹1643.51 lakh in 2013-14 to ₹2045.65 lakh in 2014-15. But inflationary headwinds and increased costs due to dispersed operations impacted EBITDA margins – it stood at 31.49% in 2014-15 against 35.76% in 2013-14. The net profit increased by 32% from ₹1,125.78 lakh in 2013-14 to ₹1,489.64 lakh in 2014-15.

Dividend: Dividend was proposed to be at ₹2 per equity share of ₹10 each (20%) as in previous year. However, following an increase in the incidence of Corporate Dividend Distribution Tax Rate, the total payout stands at ₹135.64 lakh compared to ₹131.84 lakh in the previous year.

The Company's ROCE improved 500 bps from 22% in 2013-14 to 27% in 2014-15.

Balance Sheet

Capital employed: The sum of equities and liabilities in the business declined from ₹7,192.75 lakh as on March 31, 2014 to ₹6,904.57 lakh as on March 31, 2015. This decline was primarily due to the deleveraging of the Balance Sheet. Interestingly, despite a decline in the capital employed in the business, the Company reported a significant improvement in revenue and profitability – showcasing a better utilisation of every rupee invested in business.

Shareholders' funds: The balance under this head increased by 28% from ₹4,795.04 lakh as on March 31, 2014 to ₹6,149.04 lakh as on March 31, 2015. This increase was due to the growth in the reserves and surplus balance as the majority of the profits earned during the year were ploughed into the business to fund growth aspirations. The share capital remained unchanged at ₹564.84 lakh as on March 31, 2015.

Debt: The Company's debt portfolio (non-current and current) declined sharply from ₹443.26 lakh as on March 31, 2014 to ₹130.21 lakh as on March 31, 2015. This decline was primarily due to the prudent deployment of cash flows in debt reduction. As a result, the short-term debt balance declined from ₹393.26 lakh as on March 31, 2014 to ₹130.21 lakh as on March 31, 2015. The Company's debt to equity declined from 9.24% as on March 31, 2014 to 2.11% as on March 31, 2015.

Fixed Assets: Having ₹1663.36 lakh of investment in plant and equipment during 2013-14, no major additional investment in plant and equipment was made during 2014-15. The adoption of new technologies will depend on forthcoming projects.

Working capital: The Company streamlined its working capital management through a disciplined management of receivables and payables with an improved current ratio from 1.14 for 2013-14 to 2.54 for 2014-15. In doing so:

The balance under trade receivables declined from ₹2,249.55 lakh as on March 31, 2014 to ₹930.33 lakh as on March 31, 2015.

The balance under trade payables declined from ₹807.26 lakh as on March 31, 2014 to ₹272.18 lakh as on March 31, 2015.

Cash flow statement

The Company generated ₹2460.69 lakh from operations after effecting working capital changes during the year compared to ₹235.81 lakh in 2013-14. Cash flows were utilised for making payments against commitments and acquisition of equipment in the earlier years.

Risk management

Risk Management at Alphageo is an integral part of the business model, focusing to mitigate adverse impact of risks on the business objectives. The Company leverages its two-decade rich experience to allay shareholder apprehension about growth prospects.

Risk management framework: Alphageo's integrated risk management approach comprises a compliance with prudential norms, structured reporting and effective controls. A combination of centrally issued policies and divisionally evolved procedures has helped enhance process robustness, ensuring that business risks are effectively addressed. The senior management periodically reviews the risk management framework to maintain contemporariness and address emerging challenges.

INDUSTRY RISK

Subdued oil prices may dampen prospects for oil exploration and seismic survey programmes.

Impact on Alphageo: Lack of orders could adversely impact business growth.

Risk mitigation: Currently, more than 70% of India's oil consumption is imported – a sizeable drain on the nation's exchequer. The Central Government is focused on reducing the nation's reliance on imports by 10% by 2022 – providing a thrust on better survey and exploration of the existing oil field. This is expected to increase the demand for seismic survey services in the coming years. Alphageo's efforts in venturing into seismic survey in CBM blocks and transitional zone survey helped mitigate industry risks.

BUSINESS RISK

Competition in the seismic survey space is increasing as India is fast inviting global players.

Impact on Alphageo: It could impact the Company's ability in securing orders.

Risk mitigation: Alphageo pioneered this service in India and is the business leader in this space. Having worked with all oil majors in India and oil-focused MNCs operating in India, in challenges and diverse terrains, for 25 years, the Company has earned preferred partner status, which enables it to secure a large share of opportunities emerging in the seismic survey space.

EXECUTION RISK

Timely project completion against all odds is critical for business growth.

Impact on Alphageo:

The Company may not be able to manage the terrain-technology combine, impacting timely delivery.

Risk mitigation: In its 25-year journey, Alphageo worked on multiple on-land sedimentary basins (having successfully worked across varied topographies) and developed in utilising globally-benchmarked technologies (2D, 3D and Seisloop), which enabled it to deliver most projects on time, strengthening its sectoral positioning as a dependable partner.

PEOPLE RISK

Ironically, India, the second most populous nation is suffering from a shortage of skilled people.

Impact on Alphageo:

Being a knowledge-driven business, attracting and retaining talent is critical for efficient business operations.

Risk mitigation: The Company's leadership position, its challenging business environment and its people-friendly policies have enabled it to retain the best talent in the seismic survey space. Its record of delivering more than 90% of its projects on or before time in the last five years bears testimony to the knowledge capital resident within the organisation.

FINANCE RISK

Continuous investment in cutting-edge technology and sophisticated equipment is essential to stay in business.

Impact on Alphageo:

Inability to make timely investments could impact business execution.

Risk mitigation: During the last five years, the Company invested about ₹1750.00 lakh in upgrading technology and equipment. Besides, the Company's healthy financial statements – a debt-equity ratio of 2.11 (March 31, 2015) and a reserves and surplus balance of ₹5584.21 lakh (March 31, 2015) – provides it significant headroom to garner adequate low-cost funds for onward investments.

REPORT ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Transparency and accountability are the two basic tenets of Corporate Governance. Corporate Governance is a set policies, process and practices by which a Company conducts its affairs in pursuit of its business goal.

Responsible corporate conduct is integral to the way we do our business. In order to ensure sustainable returns to all stakeholders of the business, it is imperative, to adopt and follow certain policies, procedures and processes, which together constitute a 'Code of Corporate Governance'. It is important that such code is institutionalised, to ensure transparency, consistency and uniformity of decision making processes and actions.

In India, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) regulates corporate governance practices of listed companies and prescribed for this purpose the regulations in Clause 49 of the Listing Agreements of the Stock Exchanges. This clause specifies the standards that listed companies have to meet and the disclosures that they have to make as a part of their Annual Reports. Notes to Financial Statements

Note No. 27 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND OTHER EXPLANATORY INFORMATION

I. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in India under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis in compliance with all material aspects of the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"), read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, other pronouncements of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the relevant provisions of the Act and also the guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI).

The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Company and are consistent with those used in the previous year. The financial statements are presented in Indian rupees rounded off to the nearest rupee.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Act. Being service provider, the company has assumed its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current/non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

B. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the year. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates. Difference between actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialised and the difference is classified in statement of Profit and Loss using the same classification as was used previously for the estimate.

C. Tangible assets and depreciation

- Tangible fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation thereon and impairment losses, if any. Historical cost is inclusive of freight, duties and taxes and incidental expenses related to acquisition.
- Depreciation is charged on straight line basis so as to write off the depreciable amount of the asset over the useful lives specified in Schedule II to the Act. The useful life of the assets are periodically reviewed and re-determined based on a technical evaluation and expected use and the unamortised depreciable amount is charged over the remaining useful life of such assets. In certain cases, the useful life of assets so determined being different from the useful life as specified under Part C of Schedule II of the Act, are as given below:

Nature of Asset	Useful Life
Machinery in the nature of Geophone strings and cables	5 Years
Machinery in the nature of equipment used for Seismic Survey	5 Years

D. Intangible assets and amortisation

Cost relating to an acquired Intangible asset is being capitalised and being amortised over the period of its estimated useful life.

E. Impairment of assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of amortised historical cost.

F. Foreign exchange transactions

Transactions in Foreign Exchange, other than those covered by forward contracts are accounted for at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transactions. Exchange differences arising on foreign currency transactions settled during the year

Notes to Financial Statements

are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies as at the balance sheet date other than those covered by forward contracts are translated at the year end rates. The resultant exchange differences are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities are recorded at the rates prevailing on the date of the transaction.

G. Investments

- i. Investments that are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long term investments.
- ii. Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value determined on individual investment basis.
- iii. Long-term investments are carried at cost of acquisition. Provision is made for diminution, other than temporary, in the value of investments.
- iv. On disposal of an investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged or credited to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

H. Inventories

Stock of Stores and spares is valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined considering the cost of purchase and other costs incurred for acquisition and on the basis of first in first out method (FIFO).

I. Employee stock option scheme

In accordance with the Securities and Exchange Board of India guidelines, the excess of the market price of the shares, at the date of grant of option under the employee stock option scheme, over the exercise price is treated as employee compensation and the same is being amortised over the vesting period of the stock options.

J. Taxes on income

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

We report that the consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company's Management in accordance with the requirements of Accounting Standard (AS) 21 – Consolidated Financial Statements, specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors on the financial statements of the subsidiaries as noted below, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- in the case of the consolidated Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2015;
- in the case of the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, of the profit for the year ended on that date; and
- in the case of the consolidated Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note No. 25 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND OTHER EXPLANATORY INFORMATION

I. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. Basis of preparation

The Consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in India under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis in compliance with all material aspects of the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"), read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, other pronouncements of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the relevant provisions of the Act and also the guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI).

The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Group and are consistent with those used in the previous year. The consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian rupees rounded off to the nearest rupee.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current based on the Group normal operating cycle and other criteria. Being service provider, the Group has assumed its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current/non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

B. Principles of consolidation

- The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of Alphageo (India) Limited, the parent company and its subsidiary companies in which Alphageo (India) Limited Group, directly or indirectly, has an interest of more than one half voting power or otherwise has the power to control the composition of Board of Directors.
- The Consolidated financial statements have been prepared combining the financial statements of the parent company and the subsidiary companies on a line by line basis by adding together the book value of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses after eliminating intra-group balances and transactions and resulting unrealised profits in full. Unrealised losses resulting from intra group transactions have also been eliminated except to the extent that recoverable value of related assets is lower than their cost.
- The consolidated financial statements have been presented to the extent possible, in the same format as that adopted by the parent company for its separate financial statements.
- The consolidated statements have been prepared using uniform accounting principles for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances.

C. Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the year. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates. Difference between actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialised and the difference is classified in statement of Profit and Loss using the same classification as was used previously for the estimate.

D. Tangible assets and depreciation

- Tangible fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation thereon and impairment losses, if any. Historical cost is inclusive of freight, duties and taxes and incidental expenses related to acquisition.
- Depreciation is charged on straight line basis so as to write off the depreciable amount of the asset over the useful lives specified in Schedule II to the Act. The useful life of the assets are periodically reviewed and re-determined based on a technical evaluation and expected use and the unamortised depreciable amount is charged over the remaining useful life of such assets. In certain cases, the useful life of assets so determined being different from the useful life as specified under Part C of Schedule II of the Act, are as given below:

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Machinery in the nature of Vibrators used for Seismic Survey	20 Years

E. Intangible assets and amortisation

Cost relating to an acquired Intangible asset is being capitalised and being amortised over the period of its estimated useful life.

F. Foreign exchange transactions

Transactions in Foreign Exchange, other than those covered by forward contracts are accounted for at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transactions. Exchange differences arising on foreign currency transactions settled during the year are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies as at the balance sheet date other than those covered by forward contracts are translated at the year end rates. The resultant exchange differences are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities are recorded at the rates prevailing on the date of the transaction.

In translating the financial statements of a non-integral foreign operation for incorporation in financial statements, the assets and liabilities, both monetary and non-monetary, of the non-integral foreign operation are translated at the closing rate, income and expense items of the non-integral foreign operation are translated at average rate prevailing during the year and all resulting exchange differences are being accumulated in a foreign currency translation reserve until the disposal of the net investment.

On the disposal of the foreign non-integral foreign operation, the cumulative amount of the exchange differences which have been differed and which relate that operation are recognised as income or expenses in the same period in which the gain or loss on disposal is recognised.

When there is a change in the classification of a foreign operation, the translation procedures applicable to the revised classification are applied from the date of the change in the classification.

G. Investments

- Investments that are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long term investments.
- Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value determined on individual investment basis.
- Long-term investments are carried at cost of acquisition. Provision is made for diminution, other than temporary, in the value of investments.
- On disposal of an investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged or credited to the statement of profit and loss.

H. Inventories
