AUDIT REPORT

To

The members of

Sea Gold Aqua Farms Limited

1. We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of Sea Gold Aqua Farms Limited ("the Company") as at 31 March 2012, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Cash Flow Statement for the year ended on that date, annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's Management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.
2. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by Management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.
3. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2003 ("the Order"), as amended, issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs in terms of sub-section (4A) of Section 227 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"), we enclose in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order.
4. Further to our comments in the Annexure referred to in paragraph 5 above, we report that:
 - (a) we have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
 - (b) in our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books;
 - (c) the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;
 - (d) in our opinion, the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this report comply with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of Section 211 of the Act to the extent applicable;
 - (e) on the basis of written representations received from the directors as at 31 March 2012, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, we report that none of the Director is disqualified as at 31 March 2012 from being appointed as a Director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of Section 274 of the Act, on the said date; and

- (f) in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts, give the information required by the Act, in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:
- a. in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2012;
 - b. in the case of the Statement of Profit and Loss, of the profit of the Company for the year ended on that date; and
 - c. in the case of the Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows of the Company for the year ended on that date.

ANNEXURE TO AUDITORS' REPORT

Referred to in paragraph 3 of our report of even date,

1. (a) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets
(b) All the assets have not been physically verified by the management during the year but there is a regular programme of verification which, in our opinion, is reasonable having regard to the size of the company and the nature of its business. No material discrepancies were noticed on such physical verification.
2. (a) The inventories have been physically verified by the management during the year at reasonable intervals.
(b) The procedures of physical verification of the inventories followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
(c) The company has maintained proper records of inventories and discrepancies noticed on physical verification of inventories as compared to book records were not material.
3. (a) In our opinion, the Company has neither granted nor taken any loans to/from companies, firms or other parties covered in the Register, maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956;
(b) In our opinion, the rate of interest and other terms and conditions in respect of unsecured loans given by the company to its employees and others, are in our opinion, prima facie not prejudicial to the interest of the Company;
(c) In respect of such loans given by the Company, where stipulations have been made, they have generally repaid the principal amounts as stipulated and have been regular in payment of interest, where applicable;
(d) In respect of such loans given by the Company, there are no overdue amounts more than Rs. 1,00,000/-.
4. In our opinion, there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business with regard to purchase of inventories, fixed assets and for the sale of goods.
5. (a) In our opinion, there are no transactions made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements, that need to be entered into the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956.
(b) In our opinion, there are no transactions of purchase and sale of goods, materials and services made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements entered in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 aggregating during the year to Rs.5,00,000- or more in respect of each party.

6. In our opinion and according to the information and explanation given to us, the Company has not accepted any Deposits as defined under Section 58A of the Companies Act, 1956 .
7. In our opinion, the Company has an adequate internal audit system commensurate with its size and nature of its business.
8. We have broadly reviewed the Books of Account maintained by the Company as prescribed by the Central Government for maintenance of cost records under section 209 (1) (d) of the Companies Act, 1956 and are of the opinion that prima facie the prescribed accounts and records have been made and maintained. However, we have not carried out a detailed examination of the accounts and records.
 - (a) According to the books and records of the company, the company is regular in depositing undisputed statutory dues including Provident Fund, Income Tax, Sales Tax, Customs Duty, Excise Duty, Cess and other statutory dues with appropriate authorities. According to their formation and explanations given to us, there are no undisputed amounts payable in respect of such statutory dues which have remained outstanding as at 31st March, 2012 for a period exceeding six months from the date they became payable.
 - (b) According to information and explanation given to us, there are no dues of sales Tax, Income Tax , Customs Duty, Excise Duty, Cess and other statutory dues, which have not been deposited on account of any dispute.
10. The Company has incurred cash losses in the current financial year..
11. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has defaulted in repayment of its dues to banks and financial institutions.
12. The Company has not granted any loans or advances on the basis of security by way of pledge of shares, debentures or other securities.
13. In our opinion, the company is not a chit fund or a nidhi/mutual benefit fund/ society. Therefore, the provisions of clause 4(xiii) of the Companies (Auditor's Report) order, 2003 are not applicable to the company.
14. In our opinion, the Company is not dealing or trading in shares, securities, debentures or other investments and hence, the requirements of clause 4(xiv) of the Companies (Auditor's Report) order, 2003 are not applicable to the Company.
15. According to the information and explanations given to us, the company has not given any guarantee for loans taken by others from banks, and financial institutions.
16. In our opinion, the term loans have been applied for the purpose for which they were raised.
17. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us and on an overall examination of the balance sheet of the company, we report that no funds raised on short-term basis have been used for long-term investments. No long-term funds have been used to finance short-term assets except permanent working capital.

18. No debentures have been issued by the company and hence, the question of creating securities in respect there of does not arise.
19. On the basis of our examination and according to the information and explanations given to us, no fraud, on or by the Company, has been noticed or reported during the year.

The Company follows the Mercantile System of accounting and recognizes income and expenditure on accrual basis. The Accounts are prepared on historical cost basis and as a going concern. Accounting policies not referred to otherwise are consistent with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

B. Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the results of operations during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

C. Inventories:

Raw Materials, work-in-process, stores & spares and consumables are valued at Cost.

D. Fixed Assets:

Fixed assets are stated at cost less depreciation. Cost comprises of purchase price and attributable other expenses.

E. Depreciation:

Depreciation on Fixed Assets is provided under Written Down Value Method at the rates specified in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956.

F. Foreign Exchange Transactions:

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are recorded at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of the transaction or that approximates the actual rate at the date of the transaction. Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies at the year end are restated at year end rates. Non monetary foreign currency items are carried at cost.

Any income or expense on account of exchange difference either on settlement or on translation is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

G. Revenue Recognition:

All Incomes and expenditure are accounted on accrual basis except stated otherwise. Gross Sales includes excise duty and excludes VAT and CST.

H. Taxes on Income:

Tax expenses for the year comprises of Current Tax and Deferred Tax. Provision for current tax is made based on the applicable tax rates and tax laws with respect to the year.

Provision for deferred tax on timing difference is made as per Accounting Standard-22 issued by the ICAI.

I. Retirement Benefits:

Employee benefits in the form of Provident Fund and ESIC are considered as defined contribution plan and the contributions are charged to the Statement of Profit & Loss of the year when the contributions to the respective funds are due.

The accruing liability towards gratuity and other retirement benefits are provided on the basis of Accrual basis according to the eligibility of the employees.

J. Impairment:

An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of asset exceeds its recoverable value. An impairment loss is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which an asset is identified as impaired. The impairment loss recognized in prior accounting period is reversed if there has been a change in the estimate of recoverable amount.

K. Borrowing Cost:

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of the cost of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

L. Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets:

Provisions involving substantial degree of estimation in measurement are recognized when there is a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that there will be an outflow of resources. Contingent Liabilities are not recognized but are disclosed in the notes. Contingent Assets are neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.
