The Companies has prepared these financial statements to comply in all material respects with the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013 (' the 2013 Act') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules 2014. The Financials Statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of financials statements are consistent with those of previous year.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Group's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Revised Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Based on the nature of products and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Group has ascertained its operating cycle as upto twelve months for the purpose of current - non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

2.4 Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements, in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles, requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainties about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

2.5 Property Plant & Equipment

Fixed assets, are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria met and directly attributable cost of bringing the assets to its working condition for the intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price. Subsequent expenditure related to an items of fixed assets is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing assets beyond its previously assessed standards of performance. All other expenses on existing fixed assets, including day- to day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit & loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

2.6 Depreciation on Property Plant and Equipment

Depreciation on fixed assets is calculated on straight line basis using the rates arrived at based on useful lives estimates by the management. Depreciation for the assets purchased or sold during the period is proportionately charged. The company has used the following rates to provide depreciation on its fixed assets.

The Management estimates the useful lives for the fixed assets as follows.

* For these class of assets, based on internal assessment and technical evaluation

Description of the Asset	Useful Life Applied
Tangible Assets
Furniture and Fixtures*	12.5 Years
Office Equipment's #	5 Years
Others (Computers) #	3 Years

carried out, the management believes that the useful lives as given above best represent the period over which management expects to use these assets. Hence, the useful lives for these assets is different from the useful lives as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

The useful lives of these class of assets is as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

During the Previous year ended 31 March 2015, Management had reassessed the useful lives of fixed assets and have adopted the useful lives as specified. In the view of the management, the said useful lives represents the period over which the management expects to derive economic benefits out of the use of the said assets. As a result of this change in useful lives of fixed assets, the depreciation charge for the period is lower by Rs 32,141/- in the Previous Year 2014-15 with a corresponding increase in the written down value of fixed assets and balance of reserves and surplus.

2.7 Impairment of Tangible and Intangible Assets

The company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an assets is required, the company estimates the assets recoverable amount. An assets recoverable amount is the higher of an assets or cash generating units (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual's assets, unless the assets does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an assets or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the assets is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre – tax discounts rate that reflects current market assessment of time value of money & risk specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

The company bases its impairment calculation on detailed budgets and forecast calculations which are prepared separately for each of the company's CGU to which the individual assets are allocated. These budgets and forecast calculations are generally covering a period of Five (5) Years. For longer periods a long term growth rate is calculated and applied to projects future cash flows after the 5 (Five) Years.

Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognized in the statement of profit & loss, except for previously revalued tangible fixed assets where the revaluation reserves up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the assets over its remaining useful life.

An assessment is made at each reporting dates as to whether there is any indication that previously recognized impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the company estimates the assets or CGU recoverable amount. A previously recognized impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the assets recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized. The reversal is limited so that would have been determined, net of depreciation had no impairment loss has been recognized for the assets in prior years. Such reversal is recognized in the statement of profit and loss unless the assets is carried at a revalued amount in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

2.8 Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long term investments.

On initial recognition all investments are matured at cost. The cost comprise purchase price and directly attributable acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties. If an investment is acquired, or partly acquired by the issue of shares or other securities the acquisition cost is the fair value of the securities issued if an investment is acquired in exchange for another assets the acquisition is determined by reference to the fair value of the assets given up or by reference to the fair value of the investment acquired, whichever is more clearly evident.

Current investment are carried in the financial statement at lower cost and fair value determined on an individuals investment basis. Long term investment are carried at cost. However, provision for diminution in value is made to recognize a decline other than temporary in the value of the investment.

On disposal of an investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged or credited to the statement of profit & loss account.

2.9 Revenue Recognized

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the company and the revenue can be reliably measured. The followings specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized

Income from services

Revenues from contract priced on a time and material basis are recognized when services are rendered and related costs are incurred.

2.10 Foreign currency transaction

The Company has the billing process whereby it bills its overseas clients in INR and the amount is remitted by the overseas clients by converting the equivalent local currency equivalent to the Billing made in INR.

Conversion

Foreign currency monetary items are retranslated using the exchange rate prevailing at the reporting date. Non monetary items which are measured in terms of historical cost denominated in foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Non monetary items which are measures at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in foreign currency are transferred using the exchange rate at the date when such value was determined.

2.11 Income Taxes

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current income tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the Income Tax Act, 1961, enacted in India and tax laws prevailing in the respective tax jurisdiction where the company operates. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantially enacted at the reporting date. Current income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is recognized in equity and not in the statement of profit and loss.

Deferred income taxes reflects the impact of timing difference between taxable income and accounting income originating during the current year and reversal of timing difference for the earlier years. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and tax laws enacted or substantially enacted at the reporting date. Deferred income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is recognized in equity and not in the statement of profit and loss.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible timing difference only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. In situations where the company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses all deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainly supporting evidence that they can be realized against future taxable profits.

In situation where the company is entitled to a tax holiday under the Income Tax Act 1961 enacted in India or tax laws prevailing in the respective tax jurisdiction where it operates no deferred tax (assets or liabilities) is recognized in respect of timing difference which reverse during the tax holiday period to the extent the company's gross total income is subjected to the deduction during the tax holiday period. Deferred tax in respect of timing difference which reverse after the tax holiday period is recognized in the year in which the timing differences originate. However the company restricts recognition of deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. For recognition of deferred taxes, the timing differences which originate first are considered to reverse first.

At each reporting date, the company reassesses unrecognized deferred tax assets. It recognizes unrecognized deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date. The company writes- down the carrying amount of deferred tax assets to the extent that it is no longer reasonably certain or virtually as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax assets can be realized. Any such write down is reversed to the extent that it becomes reasonably certain or virtually certain as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred taxes relates to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in a year is charged to the statement of profit and loss as current tax. The company recognizes MAT credit available as an assets only to the extend that there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal income tax during the specified period I.e. the period for which MAT credit is allowed to be carried forward. In the year in which the company recognizes MAT credit as an assets in accordance with the Guidance Note on Accounting for credit available of minimum alternate tax under Income Tax Act 1961. The said assets is created by way of credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as “MAT credit Entitlement”. The company reviews the MAT credit entitlement assets at each reporting date and writes down the assets to extent the company does not have convincing evidence that it will pay normal tax during the specified period.

2.12 Earnings Per share.

Basics earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit and loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity shares to the extent that they are entitled to participate in dividend related to fully paid equity shares during the reporting period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issues bonus element in a right shares, split issue and reverse share split (consolidation of shares) that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a correspondence change in resources.

2.13 Employment Benefits

The Company’s contribution to provident fund is accounted on accrual basis and is charged to the profit and loss account.

No provision has been considered necessary towards gratuity since none of the employees have put in the qualified number of years of service with the Company.

2.14 Provisions

A provisions is recognized when the company has present obligation as a results of past events. It is possible that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. These estimates are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

Where the company expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed for example under Insurance Contract, the re-imbursement is recognized as a separate asset but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expenses relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

Warranty provisions

To,
The Members of COMME X TECHNOLOGY LIMITED

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited accompanying financial statements of COMME X TECHNOLOGY LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2017 and the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation and presentation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these standalone financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act and other applicable authoritative pronouncements issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and pronouncements require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view, in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the Company has in place an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on standalone financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

2.1 Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in India (Indian GAAP). The Companies has prepared these financial statements to comply in all material respects with the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013 (' the 2013 Act') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules 2014. The Financials Statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of financials statements are consistent with those of previous year.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Group's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Revised Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Based on the nature of products and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Group has ascertained its operating cycle as upto twelve months for the purpose of current - non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

2.2 Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements, in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles, requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainties about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

2.3 Property Plant and Equipment

Fixed assets, are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria met and directly attributable cost of bringing the assets to its working condition for the intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price. Subsequent expenditure related to an items of fixed assets is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing assets beyond its previously assessed standards of performance. All other expenses on existing fixed assets, including day- to day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit & loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

2.4 Depreciation on Property Plant and Equipment

Depreciation on fixed assets is calculated on straight line basis using the rates arrived at based on useful lives estimates by the management. Depreciation for the assets purchased or sold during the period is proportionately charged. The company has used the following rates to provide depreciation on its fixed assets.

The Management estimates the useful lives for the fixed assets as follows.

Description of the Asset	Useful Life Applied
Tangible Assets
Furniture and Fixtures*	12.5 Years
Office Equipment's #	5 Years
Others (Computers) #	3 Years

*For these class of assets, based on internal assessment and technical evaluation carried out, the management believes that the useful lives as given above best represent the period over which management expects to use these assets. Hence, the useful lives for these assets is different from the useful lives as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

The useful lives of these class of assets is as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

2.5 Impairment of Tangible and Intangible Assets

The company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an assets is required, the company estimates the assets recoverable amount. An assets recoverable amount is the higher of an assets or cash generating units (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual's assets, unless the assets does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an assets or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the assets is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre – tax discounts rate that reflects current market assessment of time value of money & risk specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

The company bases its impairment calculation on detailed budgets and forecast calculations which are prepared separately for each of the company's CGU to which the individual assets are allocated. These budgets and forecast calculations are generally covering a period of Five (5) Years. For longer periods a long term growth rate is calculated and applied to projects future cash flows after the 5 (Five) Years.

Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognized in the statement of profit & loss, except for previously revalued tangible fixed assets where the revaluation reserves up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the assets over its remaining useful life.

An assessment is made at each reporting dates as to whether there is any indication that previously recognized impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the company estimates the assets or CGU recoverable amount. A previously recognized impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the assets recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized. The reversal is limited so that would have been determined, net of depreciation had no impairment loss has been recognized for the assets in prior years. Such reversal is recognized in the statement of profit and loss unless the assets is carried at a revalued amount in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

2.6 Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long term investments.

On initial recognition all investments are matured at cost. The cost comprise purchase price and directly attributable acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties. If an investment is acquired, or partly acquired by the issue of shares or other securities the acquisition cost is the fair value of the securities issued if an investment is acquired in exchange for another assets the acquisition is determined by reference to the fair value of the assets given up or by reference to the fair value of the investment acquired, whichever is more clearly evident.

Current investment are carried in the financial statement at lower cost and fair value determined on an individuals investment basis. Long term investment are carried at cost. Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current income tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the Income Tax Act, 1961, enacted in India and tax laws prevailing in the respective tax jurisdiction where the company operates. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantially enacted at the reporting date. Deferred income taxes reflects the impact of timing difference between taxable income and accounting income originating during the current year and reversal of timing difference for the earlier years. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and tax laws enacted or substantially enacted at the reporting date. Deferred income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is recognized in equity and not in the statement of profit and loss.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible timing difference only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. In situations where the company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses all deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainly supporting evidence that they can be realized against future taxable profits.

In situation where the company is entitled to a tax holiday under the Income Tax Act 1961 enacted in India or tax laws prevailing in the respective tax jurisdiction where it operates no deferred tax (assets or liabilities) is recognized in respect of timing difference which reverse during the tax holiday period to the extent the company's gross total income is subjected to the deduction during the tax holiday period. Deferred tax in respect of timing difference which reverse after the tax holiday period is recognized in the year in which the timing differences originate. However the company restricts recognition of deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. For recognition of deferred taxes, the timing differences which originate first are considered to reverse first.

At each reporting date, the company reassesses unrecognized deferred tax assets. It recognizes unrecognized deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date. The company writes- down the carrying amount of deferred tax assets to the extent that it is no longer reasonably certain or virtually as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax assets can be realized. Any such write down is reversed to the extent that it becomes reasonably certain or virtually certain as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred taxes relates to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Minimum alternate Tax (MAT) paid in a year is charged to the statement of profit and loss as current tax. The company recognizes MAT credit available as an assets only to the extent that there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal income tax during the specified period i.e. the period for which MAT credit is allowed to be carried forward.
