2. OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The consumer landscape has been continuously evolving and one has to keep pace with the changing trends in order to win consumer confidence.

The Indian silver firms are reported to be going through a transition phase, upgrading their technologies to conform to international standards. The short supply of gold in the country and the rising prices of the yellow metal have in a way benefited silver jewellery manufacturers.

The economic outlook provides the most important basis for determining the prospects for global silver industrial demand, while prices are generally more of a secondary concern. In terms of the former, healthy western market growth over the past decade has been an important contributory factor to the strength in silver industrial demand.

Currency volatility, slowdown in category growth rates and unpredictable weather patterns are some of the threats to the company's prospects.
