

ROAD AHEAD FOR FMCG

HUL chairman flags short-term challenges

SHUBHRA TANDON
Mumbai, June 23

HINDUSTAN UNILEVER (HUL) chairman Nitin Paranjpe said on Thursday that the immediate future is challenging, and will require some astute handling and a balancing act to make sure that the growth does not stall and inflation is contained.

Addressing shareholders' queries at the company's annual general meeting held through audio-visual mode, Paranjpe said even though the short term is challenging and tough, he looks forward to the future with optimism. "For the FMCG industry also, I would say that we have to navigate the short term but I remain confident of the medium to long-term future that this industry has," he said.

Highlighting some of the key reasons for optimism, he said that the low per capita consumption in the country leaves plenty of room for growth and the large young population, a growing middle class with rising affluence, the adoption of digital mode and technology suggest strong growth rates in the FMCG sector for a period of time.

“As a company, we are determined to try and see how we can mitigate some of the impact of this (inflation) to our consumers, and therefore the first action is to drive savings hard.”

NITIN PARANJPE,
CHAIRMAN, HINDUSTAN UNILEVER

However, Paranjpe said that the double-digit inflation seen in the past 14 months is “unprecedented”.

“It is truly an unprecedented moment. As a company we are determined to try and see how we can mitigate some of the impact of this to our consumers, and therefore the first action is to drive savings hard,” he said.

He told shareholders that the company is driving continuous improvements and efficiencies, and with that HUL gets about 7% savings every year, and will continue to drive hard. However, he said that the increase in prices is inevitable despite the savings agenda. “The level of inflation is such that after that it is inevitable that we will have to raise prices and they are going up, when this is required, we do it in as calibrated a fashion as it is possible, and as thoughtful a manner which is possible, and that is what we will continue to do,” he said. He added that the company is cognisant of the price point packs and has been watchful and will follow appropriate strategy. “We sometimes reduce volumes or fill levels or sometimes increase prices. But I do not want to pretend — it is not an easy moment for our people and I feel for the common persons of this country for the hardship they face,” he said.

Uber said to have explored sale of Indian arm, firm denies UBER TECHNOLOGIES EXPLORED options for its Indian ride-hailing business, including a sale, but suspended discussions after tech startup valuations cratered, people familiar with the matter said.

The US company began weighing alternatives and reached out to several interested parties after recognising it had limited potential for profitable expansion in India, the people said, asking not to be named as the information is not public. It pondered a stock swap with local companies or even a pull-out, before a global equity market rout upended plans, the people added. A stock deal was favoured in exploratory talks as that would allow Uber to retain a foothold in India, they said.

Uber disputed the idea it had considered retreating from India. “Bloomberg’s reporting is categorically false. We have never explored exiting India — not even for a minute,” its spokesperson Ruchika Tomar said.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to Regulation 5, 6 and other applicable provisions of the Securities And Exchange Board of India (Delisting of Equity Shares) Regulations, 2021 ("SEBI Delisting Regulations"), Agio Paper & Industries Limited ("the Company") is in the process of making application of voluntary delisting of its equity shares from the Calcutta Stock Exchange Limited ("CSE") only, as approved by the Board of Directors in its meeting held on 23rd June 2022. However, equity shares of the Company continue to be listed on Stock Exchange having nationwide trading terminal i.e., BSE Limited. The equity shares of the Company are sought to be delisted from the CSE only.

Necessity and Objective of Delisting:
As per SEBI Delisting Regulations, Company's securities can be delisted from CSE as the equity shares of the Company are listed and will continue to be listed on Stock Exchange having nationwide trading terminal i.e., BSE Limited. FILES PLEA TO RECONSIDER DECISION

Trapped in political web: rusticated MSU student

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, JUNE 23

FORMER FINE Arts student of Vadodara's MS University Kundan Kumar Mahato, who was debarred on May 13 following a controversy over an artwork, Thursday filed an appeal before the university to "reconsider its decision" as per the provisions of the rules of the MSU Act.

Challenging the MSU decision to rusticate him without following "principles of natural justice", Kundan said that he has been "trapped in a political web" and even "contemplated suicide" when he was rusticated "without being heard".

Narrating the sequence of events that led to his rustication by the MSU Syndicate, Kundan said, "On May 2, I appeared for my viva-voce before the examination committee and presented my experimental art work for their review. This was supposed to be a very confidential process, in which only the concerned students and examiners are supposed to be present..."

"The students were never informed that the creativity of the students should not be related to any Hindu God or Goddesses. I respectfully state that if such information was transmitted to the students, I would have spent time in creation of some other art work," he added.

Kundan further stated that his artwork involving goddesses was "trying to comment on the ongoing atrocities against women in our society".

Questioning the recommendation of the fact-finding committee to initiate action against him, Kundan has pointed out that the university has not yet identified who made the pictures public.

The former first-year Masters student of the Faculty of Fine Arts has said that he received the email from the fact-finding committee on May 7, asking him to remain present for a hearing on May 8, when his faculty members were aware that he had already travelled back to Bihar by bus and was not reachable.

Kundan said, "I called up Dr CN Murthy (head of the nine-member fact-finding committee) over his phone to explain my situation. He understood my situation and asked me to send him a message regarding my version which was duly complied by me..."

"Later, May 9, Dr Murthy called me over my phone and asked to tender my apology and asked me to send the same message in my own handwritten format which I did the same day. It was indeed very painful for me to know that by following the instruction of Dr Murthy, I am being trapped in a political web," he added.

Contending that the MSU used his apology to initiate action against him without given a hearing, Kundan has said, "I reiterate that I have not been given a fair chance to present my case in front of any fact-finding committee... I have repeatedly explained that I am a practicing Hindu myself and would never wish to hurt the sentiments of any Hindu... I have been subjected to harassment and intimidation all month... When I heard of my rustication, I contemplated suicide..."

Citing his family's poor financial condition in Bihar, Kundan has urged the university to review the decision as he has been denied "natural justice". Kundan has stated that should the university express its inability to reconsider the rustication, he will be forced to pursue legal recourse.

Kundan's advocate Hitesh Gupta told The Indian Express, "As per the rules of the Act of the MS University, under provisions of which Kundan has been rusticated, also allows the student to appeal because the welfare of the student has to be upheld... We will wait for the University to respond for a week and then take further decision... We have requested the University to allow him to continue his studies until the appeal is decided."

Gupta further said the process for rustication described in the ordinance has not been followed in Kundan's case.

"The matter was then required to be placed before the University level disciplinary committee and the same committee, after following the law of natural justice, should have submitted its report to the Vice-Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor should then take further appropriate decisions on the matter. But Kundan's rustication has not been decided by the V-C," he added.

The number of active cases in the district too has increased to 330 from fewer than 50 as of June 10.

Surat on June 22 tested fewer than 3,000 samples (2,395) across its city and rural jurisdictions.

Valsad and Navsari, both neighbouring districts of Surat, too are seeing an increase in cases. Valsad reported 12 new cases on Thursday, the highest in the district in over four months.

Other districts now seeing a rise in the number of cases include Vadodara, Rajkot, Bhavnagar, Gandhinagar and Jamanagar.

HIKE IN MINIMUM WAGES

GCCI OBJECTS TO DRAFT PROPOSAL

The Gujarat Chamber of Commerce and Industry (GCCI) wrote to the state government objecting to the proposal to increase the minimum wages by 25 per cent. The industry body also warned about the "possibility" of shifting to other states if the rise is more than 10 per cent.

CONSUMER COMMISSION OVERRULES COMPANY DECISION

Heart condition not linked to Covid, can't reject insurance claim: Panel

SOHINI GHOSH
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 23

THE DISTRICT consumer disputes redressal commission (DCDR) in Ahmedabad city overruled an insurance company's decision to reject a claim for Covid-19 treatment on the ground that the patient had pre-existing heart conditions. DCDRC ordered the insurer to pay the claim amount with interest and compensation.

The complainant, Paldi resident Fenil Shah, was admitted to CIMS Hospital for five days—from November 28 to December 2, 2020—for Covid-19 treatment and had incurred an expense of Rs 1.90 lakh. He had filed his claim with Max Bupa Health Insurance Co Ltd, which not only rejected the claim but also revoked the policy on the ground of non-disclosure of pre-existing heart disease.

However, DCDRC, in an order dated June 20, noted that at the time of the policy subscription in 2020, a medical test was done and the certificate had already mentioned the pre-existing heart condition, along with the line of treatment and medication. The order said the insurer had covered Shah's risk after accepting the medical certificate. "...there is no reason to believe that the complainant has suppressed the fact of his health issues," DCDRC observed.

"...we find no direct nexus between Covid and heart diseases. The issue of heart disease would not be a material fact for Covid. The opponent has not produced any medical literature that shows any direct nexus between Covid and heart diseases. The opponent has not proved that due to the pre-existing heart diseases, the complainant suffered from Covid and hence, the risk of the complainant was not covered," the Commission noted.

Hence, the commission held that the insurer's cancellation policy "is absolutely illegal" and "has committed an unfair trade practice" by revoking the policy as well as "repudiating a genuine claim". The insurer "has miserably failed to accept their contractual liability towards the complainant," it said.

Shah's counsel Sunil Chhabria had submitted before DCDRC that his policy entitled him to Rs 2,000 per day of hospitalisation, thus making him eligible for a payment of Rs 10,000.

The commission directed Max Bupa Health Insurance to pay Rs 1,90,619, as claimed by Shah, and an additional Rs 10,000, which was payable under the policy clause as hospitalisation cash per day, along with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of the complaint until its payment within one month from now, failing which, the interest rate would be hiked to 8 per cent.

The commission also directed an additional Rs 10,000 to be paid to Shah for "mental agony and stress", in addition to Rs 2,000 towards expenses of the complaint. It also ordered the restoration of the policy.
