While the cement volumes grew by 2.2% YoY, clinker volumes were down 60% YoY. Cement sales were impacted by sand mining ban in Bihar. Industry Scenario / Future Outlook

The several initiatives taken by the government would bolster the construction industry leading to increased demand for cement and ready mix concrete. The passage of Real Estate Bill and renewed focus on affordable housing segment would provide ample growth opportunity in all business segments of the Company. The Company has taken measures which going forward would help to improve operational efficiency and productivity. The above initiatives is likely to help demand rebound for Cement, TBK and RMC. The weather forecasting agencies have predicted above normal monsoons for the country, which augurs well for the cement demand. However below normal monsoons could be a concern.

Central India, which is the main region where the cement division of the company operates, has witnessed some traction on infrastructure segment especially the road construction segment, eastern corridor DFC, Metro rails amongst others. In the short run the division is likely to benefit from the recent reduction in fuel prices, although fuel prices seem to be bottoming out.

The Ready-mixed Concrete Industry in India is over 20 years old and was growing at a healthy rate till four years back. The industry has witnessed volume growth in the recent quarters, which had been under pressure due to paucity of new construction projects taking off. The markets in many of the metros are expected to see a turnaround in the near term as economy picks up and construction activities resume. With the Mega Projects Vertical, RMC Division is focusing to cater the infrastructure segment, which is showing signs of revival. The markets in tier 2 & tier 3 cities have also been showing maturity which will help industry's growth.

Having resolved the power and fuel issues, the TBK segment is focusing on increasing the utilization levels and product mix improvement. The division continues to focus on marketing and strengthening channel distribution. The division intends to further improve the display of value added products. The recent events of gas price reduction and anti-dumping duty on vitrified tiles from China should augur well for the division.

Overall Prism Cement as a company is well placed with cost initiatives and operating efficiencies to leverage the growing opportunities.
