World's most prolific film industry is on edge as cinemas re-open sought to open 'on an urgent basis'; Netflix and Amazon have taken advantage of prolonged shutdown

IN MOVIE-MAD INDIA, millions of filmgoers are excitedly waiting for cinemas to reopen waiting for cinemas to reopen this week after as even-month-long, pandemic-induced halt. It's a step toward lifting the fortunes of the world's most prolific film industry. Avid fan Hema Chock-alingam intends to hit the multiplex in the New Delhi ushuch of Nida with a group suburb of Noida with a group of girlfriends this weekend. "I'm desperate for the movie-"I'm desperate for the movie-hall experience," said the brand executive who wants to return to her once-a-week fix. "Watch-ing streamed content is no match for the real thing, I'm reclaiming my old life." Nearly 10,000 movie the-aters around the country lead in wild Marsh following keep the industry humming," said Taran Adarsh, a movie indus-fered $1.2 billion in ticket losses and needed to open "on anurgent basis."

The cascading effects of zero box-office returns and virus restrictions have already upended Bollywood and brought India's massive film studios to a grinding stop. The resumption of screening will be propitious for film buffs, big-ticket Bollywood movies awaiting theatrical release and Hollywood films such as Christopher Nolan's Tenet, key scenes of which were filmed in Mumbai. While cinemas have opened in dozens of countries around the world including the U.S. and the U.K., India's restart big screen and theater audience saidTaranAdarsh, amovieindus-try analyst, who fears hygiene concerns and falling discre-tionaryspends couldaffect ticket sales. "After a bleak phase, this weekend and the coming weeks will determine the survival of the industry."

Just weeks ago, multiplex owners had said in full-page newspaper ads that they'd suf-fered $1.2 billion in ticket

U.S. and the U.K., India's restar comes just weeks ahead of Diwali, the festival of lights, a Diwal, the festival of lights, a time when the biggest films line up for box office release. But with 7 million people in India infected with the coronavirus — the second largest outbreak in the world—doubts remain over whether audiences will fill the 50% exceptively and first particular of the coronavirus of the second largest policy of the coronavirus of the second largest policy of the coronavirus of the second largest policy of the second larg restricted-capacity halls and if that will boost the country's prodigious movie-making industry. "Indian films are made for the shake-up could permanently hurt some studios, distributors and cinemas in a country that produces more films -- about 2,000 each year -- and sells more cinema tickets -- over 2 billion annually -- than any other.

Hanging in the balance are the livelihoods of an army of tne livelihoods of an army of low-paid singers, stuntmen, spot boys and set designers in cities like Mumbai, as well as bustling local-language film centers such as Bangalore and Hyderabad.

Hyderabad.

The reopening brings hope not just for workers but the likes of BookMyShow, the country's largest online-ticketing platform, which lists over 6,000 screens.

"Flights are full, parks are bustling with people playing cricket and restaurants' tables are filling up," said Chief Executive Officer Ashish Hemanjani." In a cinema, you sit side by side, you don't have to take off your mask and you don't talk so the risks of catching an infection are vastly lower."
