NOT REMAINS OF 'MISSING' MIGRANT: COPS Bag filled with bones found in Narmada canal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE VADODARA, NOVEMBER 13

A PLASTIC gunny bag filled with bones was found from the siphoning area of the Narmada main canal near Panchvati area in Gorwa in Vadodara city on Thursday.

This had sparked off rumours that the police had recovered the remains of Babu Nisar Shaikh, the 65-year-old migrant from Telangana, who allegedly died in Fatehgunj Police station custody. However, the police, after consulting veterinary doctors, said that the bones are not human remains and suspect it to be of a buffalo.

The Vadodara Fire and Emergency Services Department (VFES) pulled out the bag of bones while retrieving the body of a woman, who had drowned in the canal on October 25 while trying to save her daughter from being swept away in the canal.

The mother and daughter were washing clothes at the canal when the accident had occurred. While the body of the daughter was recovered two days later, the woman's body was not found. On Thursday, after local residents spotted the body of the woman floating in the canal and alerted VFES, fire officers came to retrieve the body. The rescuers also found a plastic gunny sack near the body, which contained

several bones

Incidentally, it is the same spot where the State Crime Investigation Department (CID) had conducted a search by draining the Narmada canal on October 21 and on November 3, earmarking a stretch of seven kilometers of the canal in search of the body of Nisar, who had arrived in Vadodara on December 10, 2019 with his son-in-law to sell bedsheets and had allegedly went missing after officers of Fatehgunj police station apprehended him for a suspected theft in Chhani area. KM Chhasiya, Police Inspector of Gorwa police station said, "The veterinary doctors suggested that the bones are of a bovine. The jaw portion found in the sack has made it almost certain that it is of cattle. We are awaiting reports of the veterinary doctor.'

No leave this Diwali for doctors, health workers, civic body staff

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE AHMEDABAD, NOVEMBER 12

THIS DIWALI, which comes more than six months after the outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic, is not for festivities and fun, at least for doctors, health workers, officials and administration staff of various civic bodies in the state. For them, it will be extended working hours, more workload and cancelled holidays.

After several doctors succumbed to Covid-19 and over 500 infected while on duty, the 11year-old Doctor-on-Call service would see heavy work load of Covid patients as well as burn cases, during Diwali. Though the service that was available 24x7 was cut short to limited hours from 7 am to 10 pm, Diwali holidays of doctors who are on Covid duty had to be cancelled.

"Between 500-1,000 doctors were infected with coronavirus and at least eight of them got reinfected. Doctors have been workinground-the-clock since March, reaching a level of fatigue and expresident of haustion," Ahmedabad Medical Association (AMA), Dr Kirit Gadhavi, said.

"Usually burn cases are high during Diwali but this year we are expecting more calls for Covid-related symptoms along with respiratory and cardiac troubles," Gadhavi added.

The service is an initiative by Ahmedabad Medical Association (AMA) in association with Ahmedabad Family Physicians Association (AFPA) and support from other associations.

"Various illnesses such as swine flu, chikungunya, malaria and dengue are at its peak and the Covid pandemic has been going on for more than six months. We are struggling for investigation and treatment as ICU facilities in hospitals are all occupied... AMA has given list of vacant beds in private hospital on its website. We will also provide assistance to Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation(AMC) at different areas through telephonic advice." Dr Dhiren Mehta, AMA secretary, said.

Most member hospitals and nursing homes of the Ahmedabad Hospitals and Nursing Homes Association (AHNA) has decided to remain open during Diwali. "Considering the the surge in Covid cases, to assist the citizens of Ahmedabad during Diwali, Ahmedabad Hospitals and Nursing Homes Association will put a list of all the member healthcare facilities working during the Diwali week beginning November 14 on the website www.ahna.org.in till November 21," AHNA president Dr Bharat Gadhavi said. A 24-hour helplines 079-26403333 and 079-26409999 — will also give details about the Covid bed availability in the designated hospitals.

The AMC has decided to cancel Diwali leaves of its staff. Speaking at the standing committee press briefing on Thursday. committee chairperson, Amul Bhatt, said, "In three hospitals run by the civic body — Shardaben General Hospital, LG Hospital and VS Hospital, doctors in the burns department will be available round-the-clock.... Officials at the corporation will also be available. As per a member of the AMC executive wing, departmental circulars have been sent to this effect.

In Vadodara, doctors at the GMERS-run Gotri Medical College will work on Diwali this year as their 15-day annual Diwali leave has been cancelled. Over 140 consulting doctors and 80 resident doctors will be on duty at the hospital, which has seen around 6.0-00 Covid cases since March. At present, 110 Covid patients are admitted here. According to the MBBS Students Association members in Ahmedabad, undergraduate students deployed as 'Covid-19 assistants' were granted Diwali vacation as usual.
