Arnab knocks SC door for bail, plea to be heard today

NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court will hear on Wednesday the interim bail plea of Republic TV Editor-in-Chief Arnab Goswami in the 2018 case of alleged abetment to suicide of an interior designer.

Within hours of filing of Goswami's appeal against the Bombay High Court's rejection of his bail, the apex court registry listed it for hearing by a vacation bench of Justices D Y Chandrachud and Indira Banerjee.

The plea, filed through lawyer Nirmimesh Dubey, would be heard at 10.30 AM on Wednesday. The Bombay High Court on Monday refused to grant interim bail to Goswami and two others in the case and had asked them to move to the local court for the relief.

PM MODI'S MESSAGE TO CHINA, PAK AT SCO SUMMIT

Need to respect sovereignty and territorial integrity

NEW DELHI

In a stern message to China and Pakistan, Prime Minister Narendra Modi while addressing the SCO summit on Tuesday said there should be respect for each others' sovereignty and territorial integrity. In his speech at the eight-member Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) summit, held virtually, Modi also hit out at those making repeated attempts to "unnecessarily" bring bilateral issues to the SCO in violation of the bloc's foundational principles, in an oblique reference to Pakistan raising the Kashmir issue in its past meetings.

The remarks by Modi came in the backdrop of the Sino-India border row in eastern Ladakh and China's contentious Belt and Road connectivity project, as also Pakistan's support to cross-border terrorism against India. The PMr made the comments in the presence of Chinese President Xi Jinping, Pakistan PM Imran Khan, Russian President Vladimir Putin and other top leaders of the influential grouping. Putin chaired the summit.

This is for the first time Modi and Xi have come face-to-face, albeit virtually, since the border standoff between India and China began in eastern Ladakh in early May.

"India believes that to enhance connectivity, it is important that we move forward by following the core principle of respecting each other's sovereignty and territorial integrity," Modi said while referring to New Delhi's involvement in International North South Corridor project, development of the Chabahar port and Ashgabat agreement.

Cong wins four mayor posts, BJP bags 2 in Raj

URVASHI DEV / Jaipur

The Congress won 4 of 6 mayor posts while the BJP bagged only 2 as results were declared after the polls on Tuesday. 5 of the 6 new mayors are women.

Elections for the posts of mayors to municipal corporations in Jaipur, Jodhpur and Kota were held on Tuesday. There was high drama during voting by councillors in the Kota South municipal corporation with Congress and BJP workers indulging in a fistfight, prompting police to resort to a lathicharge injuring workers from both parties.

All the new mayors took oath of office after the results were declared in the afternoon. They promised to focus on cleanliness, sanitation and development in their respective areas.

The Congress government had carried out delimitation of wards and created two municipal corporations in Jaipur, Jodhpur and Kota.

Prabhuram wins big...

BJP candidate Narayan Patel has also won by a margin of 22129 votes. Two Congress candidates also won seats by over 20,000 votes. From Dimmi Ravindra Singh Tomar won the election with a margin of 22,276 votes while from Karera, Congress candidate won by 26,369. He defeated BJP candidate.

BIHAR only A...

The BJP was the largest party at one point of time during the counting -- in a state where it has always played second fiddle to Nitish Kumar's JDU. However, the alliance led by Tejashwi Yadav turned the contest into dead heat, emerging as the largest party after 10 hours of counting. Among those to congratulate him for putting up a gritty fight was NCP leader Sharad Pawar.

What stood out was PM Modi's uncanny ability to swing a state Assembly election -- that too in the face of the severe economic downturn, a raging pandemic and a humanitarian crisis posed by mass migration. The results in the by-elections held in a dozen other states, which were also out on Monday, reinforced the PM's 'invincibility' factor.

CONGRESS DENTS TEJASHWI CHANCES: The party had insisted on contesting 70 seats, the second largest electoral pie after the RJD's 144, but its recurring flop show, worse than that in 2015, may cost Tejashwi his chief ministership. The party has squandered 19 seats, a dismal record even by Congress standard. Former Congress president Rahul Gandhi had vigorously campaigned in the state, but it is apparent the voters were not enamoured by his style of campaigning. In fact, every party has a better strike rate than the Congress.

The AIMIM, for the first time, won five seats in Seemanchal area, cutting into the traditional vote bank of the RJD and the Congress. "In politics, you learn from your mistakes. Our Bihar chief personally met each and every leader. No one was ready to touch us. Big parties treated me like an untouchable..." explained Hyderabad MP Asaduddin Owaisi, putting his victory in perspective.

The AIMIM will decide later which party it will support, Owaisi told NDTV.

LEFT SURPASSES ITSELF: For the first time since 1977, Left parties have performed exceedingly well, with both CPI (ML) and CPM notching 16 constituencies. It could play an important role -- if need be -- in swinging a 'hung' house in Nitish's favour.

Surprisingly, even in the Yadav belt of Madhepura and Saharsa, RJD could not sway the voters and here, too, the JDU-BJP combine prevailed. Seemingly, the 'Jungle Ka Yuvraj' campaign neutralised the one million job promise.

Recounting where margin...

The RJD delegation further alleged that its candidates were leading all day but in the evening they were shown as having been trounced. Till late in the night, the BJP and the JDU had not begun celebrating, though the party officers were stockpiled with laddoos and firecrackers. The commission clarified that 3.97 crores votes had been counted thus far and about 5 lakh more votes were to be counted. The results in 149 constituencies have been announced and counting was on in the remaining 94 constituencies. The RJD has alleged chief minister Nitish Kumar, who "would be in the chair for the next few hours," was putting pressure on the returning officers to delay the declaration of results.

DULHA BADLEGA: As suspense mounted, with both the RJD-led alliance and the BJP still in the race, the two combines went into a huddle. The BJP pleased at having successfully fended off the anti-incumbency sentiment, asserted that this time 'Dulha Badlega' -- a subtle hint at a change in chief ministership. There was jubilation in the offices and outside the residences of the leaders of the RJD and the BJP but the JDU unit was cloaked in silence. Though some enthusiastic party workers came to the JDU office and started beating drums, they were silenced by the principal spokesperson of the party and asked to return to barracks. As the see-saw battle between the NDA and the Grand Alliance continues till late in the evening, Home Minister Amit Shah rang up Nitish Kumar and thanked him for his leadership during the campaign. Later, he talked to deputy chief minister Sushil Kumar Modi too. Sources in the BJP indicated Nitish Kumar may propose the name of Sushil Kumar Modi as the leader of the NDA legislature party and as his successor. It is understood that Kumar is firm on not continuing as the chief minister, if the combine cruises through.

Imarti Devi's defeat...

Dandotiya contesting from Dimani was also served notice by election commission. He was defeated by his Congress rival Ravindra Singh Tomar by a margin of more than 21,000 votes. In Sumaoli, minister Aidal Singh Kansana lost to his Congress rival Ajab Singh Kushwah by a margin of about 10,000 votes. Sumaoli constituency had witnessed violence during election campaign including firing on the polling day.
