Goa: India plans to lease out a fifth of its Strategic Petroleum Reserve (SPR) capacity to oil companies after the budget scrapped a ₹5,000-crore plan to purchase crude to fill it, an official said.

India has strategic crude storage at three places - Mangalore and Padur in Karnataka and Visakhapatnam in Andhra Pradesh - with a total capacity of 5 million metric tonnes.

Jain said, adding that there will be separate EOIs for Mangalore and Visakhapatnam. Bidders offering the highest rentals for the space will get the lease, he said.

About 0.75 million metric tonnes of capacity in Mangalore and about 0.25 million tonnes in Visakhapatnam are currently vacant and need to be filled, L R Jain, the CEO of Indian Strategic Petroleum Reserves (ISPRL), said on Tuesday.

India also plans to build two more commercial-cum-strategic storage facilities at Padur and Odisha's Chandikhol with a total capacity of 6.5 million metric tonnes. Land for the Padur facility has been received by ISPRL, Jain said.
