Myntra changes logo after complaint calls signage offensive to women

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, January 30

FASHION E-TAILER MYNTRA is changing its logo following a complaint by a Mumbai-based activist who alleged that the brand's signage was offensive towards women.

When contacted, Myntra confirmed the development. The logo is being changed across Myntra's website, app and packaging material.

A Mumbai-based activist Naaz Patel who is associated with the Avesta Foundation lodged the complaint in December 2020.

Mumbai-based activist Naaz Patel, who is associated with the Avesta Foundation, lodged the complaint in December 2020. The logo is being changed across Myntra's website, app and packaging material.

She also took up this matter across various forums and platforms on social media. Speaking to PTI, Rashmi Karandikar, Deputy Commissioner of Police (Cyber Crime) said a complainant had approached the cyber crime police station in the matter. "We called a meeting with Myntra activist Naaz Patel, who is associated with the Avesta Foundation, lodged the complaint in December 2020. The logo is being changed across Myntra's website, app and packaging material following the complaint, they (Myntra) came and agreed to change the logo. They have sent an e-mail as well on the same," she said.

In a tweet, Avesta Foundation said, "Congratulations to our founder. She did it what apparently seemed impossible. Thank you everyone for your support. We're overwhelmed by the response. Kudos to @myntra for addressing the concerns and respecting the sentiments of millions of women."

However, the matter has drawn a mixed response from netizens. While some have welcomed the company's decision to change the logo, many said such demands for logo changes seemed whimsical.

Fliptkart group company Myntra is one of the largest fashion e-retailers in the country.

During its 'End of Reason Sale' last month, it sold 11 million items while catering to more than 5 million orders.
