Kerala cabinet paves way to nix Police Act changes

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Thiruvananthapuram: The Kerala government has decided to issue a fresh ordinance to withdraw the amendment to Section 118A of the Kerala Police Act. The 118A amendment will become null and void once the governor gives his consent to the new ordinance.

The state government also told the Kerala high court that no coercive action, including registration of FIRs, would be taken on the basis of the new amendment. This means that though the particular provision remains legal as long as the amendment is in force, the government will not register any cases by invoking it.

The decision was taken by the state cabinet, which met here on Tuesday, and the repeal ordinance is likely to be promulgated on Wednesday. "The future course of action will be decided on the basis of public discussions. Any further amendments in this matter will be introduced only through the assembly," chief minister Pinarayi Vijayan said. This is a rare and embarrassing eventuality wherein the government has been forced to backtrack from an ordinance just three days after promulgating it.

The government led by Pinarayi Vijayan told the Kerala high court on Tuesday that no coercive action, including registration of FIRs, would be taken on the basis of the new amendment

Vijayan said the amendment was brought at a time of widespread demand from various sections of the society for a strong law to curb defamation, spread of fake news and attacks on women. However, when the ordinance was promulgated, apprehensions were raised that it would give excessive powers to the police, a matter being taken into consideration by the government.

State police chief Loknath Behera has issued a circular directing all station house officers to refrain from registering FIRs based on Section 118A till further orders. He said police should consult its legal cell before taking any action on petitions and complaints filed.

TMC leader attacked, wounded in Basirhat

Sanjib Chakraborty & Sujay Khanra

Basirhat/Narayangarh: A Trinamool Congress leader was shot at and then attacked with a sharp weapon in Basirhat, North 24 Parganas, late on Monday. Prasanta Ghosh, 44, was rushed to a Kolkata hospital with grievous shoulder, stomach and leg wounds, and is said to be critical.

Police are probing possible motives, including business rivalry, and are looking for four bikers who intercepted Ghosh around 10.45pm when the TMC vice-president of Basirhat panchayat samiti-I and owner of a brick kiln was returning home to Dandirhat. No arrests had been made till this report was filed on Tuesday night.

"He (Ghosh) was riding pillion on a friend's motorcycle when four masked youths fired at him. He dodged the bullet, but fell off the bike. The goons then hacked him at least thrice with a chopper and fled," a relative said.

Trinamool district secretary Kamal Das called it the handiwork of BJP-backed goons. "They have unleashed a reign of terror before the polls," he said. BJP state committee member and Basirhat unit president Shankar Chatterjee denied the allegations. "The attack was the fallout of a dispute over monetary transaction between two Trinamool factions. None of our supporters was involved," he said.

A senior district police officer said they were investigating the attack from various angles. "We will check if business rivalry led to the incident," he added.

Meanwhile, a clash broke out between Trinamool and BJP supporters in West Midnapore's Narayangarh on Monday night. Both sides alleged that their supporters' homes were attacked by rivals. Tension had prevailed in the area since Monday morning after BJP supporters took out a procession. A day before Kali Puja, Trinamool supporters had taken out a rally in the area during BJP state president Dilip Ghosh's visit.
