India @77: World leaders speak of 'strategic' ties

A glimpse of the 77th Independence Day function at the Red Fort in New Delhi on Tuesday.

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Moscow/Washington, August 15

RUSSIAN PRESIDENT VLADIMIR Putin, his French counterpart Emmanuel Macron, Australian Prime Minister Anthony Albanese and the US Secretary of State Antony Blinken underlined their "special", "privileged" and "strategic" partnership with New Delhi as they wished India on its 77th Independence Day on Tuesday.

In a message of greetings to President Droupadi Murmu and Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the occasion of Independence Day, President Putin said he is confident that the two nations will continue to boost fruitful bilateral cooperation in all areas through joint efforts, as well as constructive partnership in resolving pressing issues on the agenda. "We attach great importance to our relations of special and privileged strategic partnership with New Delhi," he said. Putin emphasised that the achievements that India has made in the economic, scientific, technological and social fields are universally recognised. "India enjoys well-deserved authority on the international stage, playing an important and constructive role in international affairs," he stressed, and wished happiness and prosperity to all Indians.

Congratulating the Indians on their Independence Day, French President Macron in a post on X, formerly Twitter, said a month ago in Paris, "My friend @narendramodi and I set new Indo-French ambitions all the way to 2047, the centenary year of India's Independence". "India can count on France as a trusted friend and partner, always," he tweeted in both English and Hindi, accompanied by a video of PM Modi's visit to France last month.

China, India agree to maintain peace in border areas

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, August 15

INDIA AND CHINA agreed to resolve the remaining issues along the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in eastern Ladakh in an expeditious manner, a joint statement said on Tuesday, a day after the two sides concluded two-day military talks.

"The two sides had a positive, constructive and in-depth discussion on the resolution of the remaining issues along the LAC in the Western Sector," it said.

"In line with the guidance provided by the leadership, they exchanged views in an open and forward looking manner," the statement added. The 19th round of India-China Corps Commander-level meeting was held at Chushul-Moldo border meeting point on the Indian side on August 13-14, it said.

It was for the first time that the high-level military talks on the lingering border row spanned two days.

"They agreed to resolve the remaining issues in an expeditious manner and maintain the momentum of dialogue and negotiations through military and diplomatic channels," the statement released by the Ministry of External Affairs said.

"In the interim, the two sides agreed to maintain the peace and tranquility on the ground in the border areas," it said.

The Indian and Chinese troops are locked in an over three-year confrontation in certain friction points in eastern Ladakh even as the two sides completed disengagement from several areas following extensive diplomatic and military talks.
